Rain began to fall last evening continuing nearly all night and was of immense benefit. Crops in Eastern Oregon are now pretty well assured, being out of danger from any source except a hot east wind.

At armory hall tonight the O. K. T. concert company give their farewell concert. Reserved seats on sale at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store. Prices of admission, 10 and 15 cents. Reserved seats 25 cts.

Professor Edwards, the great horse-tamer, will give an exhibition in handling wild horses tomorrow, (Sunday) afternoon, and also exhibit his great trick horse, Oregon Tommy at Ward & Kerns' stable on Third street.

The O. K. T. drew a crowded house last night, and one that was highly pleased with the programme. The music is delightful, and the male quartet incomparable. They appear for the last time tonight and all lovers of good music should hear them.

Dr. Doane's lecture at the Congregational church last night, filled the church. The subject was "The Physician of the Twentieth Century," which was handled in a masterly manner and was a genuine treat. Preceding the lecture, Miss Stone and Mr. John Booth avored the audience with a mandolin and guitar duet, and at its close a vocal quartet was rendered by Misses Sampson, Myrtle Michell, Beulah Patterson and Alma Schmidt.

Those interested in organizing a baseball club should attend the meeting at the council chambers this evening. The meeting will be called to order shortly after 7 o'clock, instead of at 8 as stated yesterday, so that the business can be transacted in time to let all attend the O. K. T. concert.

The dispatches today state that a San Francisco pawn broker testified yesterday at the Durrant examination, that Durrant tried to sell him a ring which he picked out from among those taken from the fingers of the dead girl Blanch Lamont. He identifies both Durrant and the ring positively.
