WILL FIGHT OPENLY

Advocates of Sound Money Organizing in Illinois.

BATTLE TO BE BEGUN AT ONCE

Senator George, of Mississippi, Talks of the Rapid Spread of Free-Silver Sentiment.

CHICAGO, May 9.—The executive committee of the Honest Money League has decided to come out and fight the silver men in the open. Work of organizing the wards of Chicago against free silver will be begun at once. This, members say means the first step in the first battle for the national delegation which will be elected in 1896. The work will begin in Cook county, but the agent of the league will press it till it ramifies the state.

In taking this step, the governing committee has determined to leave to the people the matter of the adoption of a financial pledge of national delegates. Members say the committee found it best to ignore the state convention, but since the delegates have been chosen, they are for delegates whose opinions on money will have some weight.

The committee of state organization of the league has issued an address to democrats of the state. It says that the aggressive measures taken by the silver men make it imperative that immediate action should be taken to let the people of the state know what would be the result of the abrogation of sound currency. The address says that the time for temporizing and compromising has passed, and that the decisive fight must at once be made against the silver men. It ends in urging the organization of an auxiliary to the honest money league in every county of the state. It is signed by A. Goodrich, John Mayo Palmer, William C. Assay, W. E. Thorn and F. S. Rogle. The members of the democratic central committee say they are not disturbed by the action of the league.

A Disclosure. Not a Growth.

CARROLLTON, Miss., May 9.—In an interview on the money question Senator George said: "The present exhibition of a sentiment in favor of free coinage is rather a disclosure than a growth. The people have never been satisfied with the act demonetizing silver in 1873. That act was a snap judgement taken against them by a parliamentary trick." The senator then quoted the national democratic platform favoring gold and silver money of the constitution, and said:

"The language was plain and unequivocal. Nor was it understood to mean, as afterwards claimed by the gold monometalists, that we should only have free coinage except by international agreement. That such agreement is now made a condition of free coinage of silver is a discrimination against silver. The republican national conventions of 1873 and 1892 declared in equally emphatic terms for the free coinage of silver, as did the populist convention of 1892. It will thus be seen that in every way possible the American people have from 1877 to the present time declared for remonetization.

"What has happened in the last few months is not a rapid spread of free coinage sentiment, but a general and emphatic expression of disgust at the delay in giving voice and legal force to the wishes and sentiments of the mass of the people, and of resentment at attempts to stifle the voice and to fasten on the people gold monometalism.

"I think republican leaders will not declare for gold monometalism, or what is the same thing, against the coinage of silver unless by international agreement. I think it is doubtful whether they will make any declaration either way in unequivocal terms.

"I believe the national democratic convention will be forced by the predominant sentiment of the party to declare squarely and unequivocally for independent free coinage by the United States without the co-operation of other nations."

Were Betrayed by Friends.

GUTHRIE, O. T., May 9.—Newcomb, alias "Bitter Creek," and Pierce, alias "Dynamite Dick," leaders of the desperate Dalton-Dooling gang of outlaws, who were killed last week, were betrayed by friends. They were entrapped into the latter's home and cowardly murdered while they slept under their host's roof.

The killing, according to the story of a neighbor, was done by the Dunns, who had been promised large rewards by the deputies, who claimed later to have made the capture of the outlaws. The latter's friends have sworn vengeance, and the Dunns are arming to protect themselves.

The Dunns were in Ingalls on the afternoon of the killing, and went home with a large amount of whisky and beer. It had been arranged to have Sallie Niles, a sweetheart of "Dynamite Dick," and the two outlaws meet at the Dunn house that night for a big time. By midnight the two outlaws were badly under the influence of liquor, and shortly afterwards went to sleep, heavily armed as usual, and without removing their clothes. While in this condition, it is asserted, the Dunns perforated them with Winchester bullets and buckshot. An examination of the bodies showed that all bullets and buckshot had gone into the bodies in such a way as to leave no other conclusion than that the men were lying down when shot. One of the Dunn brothers was brought here a few days after the capture and lodged in the federal jail but in two days was turned loose.

The Dunns are lying very low. Their house is an arsenal and they give evidence of expecting a raid on them every night, as Newcomb and Pierce had many friends in that country.

General Campos Suffering from an Old Wound.

NEW YORK, May 9.—A special from Havana says: General Campos sailed from Cienfuegos on the 2d for Manzanillo and Santiago. Well-informed people maintain he will soon have to return. He is said to be in good health. The old wound from a bomb thrown in Barcelona never quite healed, and gives him much trouble. Some persons say he has told friends he fears he will never leave Cuba alive.

The Spanish gunboat Alicea has left, presumably to guard the Florida coast. The reports that General Lacret had landed, and that Gomez is marching west with a body of men are confirmed, but no details can be obtained.

The expedition expected here from Key West or Tampa is reported ready for sailing.

The most astonishing feature of the war has been the considerate behavior of the rebels. They have not thus far pillaged nor burned in this as in the first revolution.

The Queen May Abdicate.

LONDON, May 9.—Much gossip is heard with regard to the queen's 76th birthday anniversary on May 24. It is not so much the festivities which are to be connected with this event which form the subject of gossip as the fact that it is freely rumored that her majesty will abdicate on that day, and after that the Prince of Wales will reign as King Edward VIII. It is learned that the queen expressed her desire to abdicate at a meeting not long ago, at which the Prince of Wales, Lord Rosebery and at least two members of the cabinet were present.

If her majesty surrenders the crown on that day she will have reigned 58 years, the longest reign of any monarch of the 19th century.

Any one who has ever had an attack of inflammatory rheumatism will rejoice with Mr. J. A. Stumm, 220 Boyle Heights, Los Angeles, over his fortunate escape from a siege of that distressing ailment. Mr. Stumm is foreman of Merriam's confectionery establishment. Some months ago, on leaving the heated work room to run across the street on an errand, he was caught out in the rain. The result was that when ready to go home that night he was unable to walk, owing to inflammatory rheumatism. He was taken home, and on arrival was placed in front of a good fire and thoroughly rubbed with Chamberlain's Pain Balm. During the evening and night he was repeatedly bathed with this liniment, and by morning was relieved of all rheumatic pains. He now takes especial pleasure in praising Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and always keeps a bottle of it in the house. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists.

Their Wages Increased.

PITTSBURG, May 9.—The National tube works, of McKeesport, have granted their 400 employes an increase of 10 per cent in their wages. The company's pipe works are the largest in the world, and it is believed this increase will result in a material increase in the price of pipe.

While in Stockton, Cal., some time ago, Thos. F. Langan, of Los Banos, that state, was taken very severely cramps and diarrhoea. He chanced to meet Mr. C. M. Carter, who was similarly afflicted. He says: "I told him of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and we went to the Holden Drug Store and procured a bottle of it. It gave Mr. Carter prompt relief and I can vouch for its having cured me." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists.
