UNFULFILLED PROMISES.

None of the promises which formed the consideration for which the present administration was placed in power have been fulfilled.

The physician in charge examined the pulse and tongue of the sick nation, and pronounced the disease Shermanism, superinduced by excessive consumption of silver.

Finally the promised income tax law, the quintessence of wisdom and justice from the standpoint of populists and socialists, is presented to the supreme court, a court a majority of whose justices are democrats, and all that is left of the work of this administration, that any one claimed was beneficial to the nation, is shattered into useless fragments.

Where are the promised blessings? Perhaps the democratic sheepherder can tell us.

LOTAN CONVICTED.

The jury in the case of the United States vs. Lotan and Seid Back returned a verdict early Sunday morning, convicting them of conspiracy to defraud the government.

"If any other man than Governor Altgeld was governor, we would not lynch the men; but we are determined he will never have a chance to turn them loose."

Within five miles of The Dalles there are now thousands of acres of lands peculiarly fitted for producing apples, prunes, grapes, and peaches of the finest quality, which are now lying idle and unimproved; yet there are many men in this city who insist that there is nothing here to attract capital and labor.

Nevada and Arizona is unlimited; we have no competitor for this trade to amount to anything except Washington.

CIRCUIT COURT IN SESSION.

Judge Bradshaw Opens Court--What the Docket Shows.

Promptly at 10 o'clock this morning Judge Bradshaw convened court for the May term of 1895. The room was well filled with spectators, while the entire bar of the city was in attendance.

Clerk Kelsey read the list of jurors, from which was chosen the grand jury as follows: D. Farrington, Thomas Johns, Frank Lubben, Joel W. Koontz, Henry Simmons, B. F. Laughlin and Wm. Floyd.

In the case of J. C. Flanders vs. O. D. Taylor, the report of the referee was filed and the decree prayed for granted.

The default in the case of Mary A. Wilson vs. Wallace Wilson, is to be tried in open court.

A default was entered against L. F. Pugh in the suit brought by W. H. Pugh.

A demurrer to the complaint was entered in the case of the Grant Powder Co. vs. E. S. Larsen et al.

The case of Oregon Lumber Co. vs. G. E. Woodward was settled.

A demurrer was filed in the case of the Columbia Building and Loan Association vs. Alfred Kennedy.

A motion to dismiss was made and allowed in the suit of Mary E. Hinman vs. E. F. Hinman.

A mandate from the supreme court was entered in the case of Moore vs. Simonson. This matter was decided recently in the supreme court, where both parties appealed and the judgment was modified.

The criminal charge against M. A. Oiler was dismissed on motion of the district attorney.

Answer filed in Esberg, Bachman & Co. vs. E. Jacobsen & Co.

Motion to dismiss allowed in Van Voorhies & Co. vs. G. J. Farley.

Below we print the program of exercises held at the East Hill primary, Academy Park and Union Street schools last Friday. These would have been published Saturday, but a press of matter crowded them out:
