A NEW USE FOR HORSES.

Eastern Oregon is rich in horses but extremely poor because of its riches; mechanical geniuses have long been in a conspiracy against the bunchgrass horse-raisers, and the trolley, the cable-car, the bicycle and bloomers have "done up" the horsemen. We have shipped our horses to the East and the South, but have returned from each venture poorer than we started; we have tried canning them, but the over-sensitive epicures turn from the flesh of the cleanliest of all quadrupeds in disgust, and eat the wallowing hog instead. We have about despaired of finding a use or a market for our splendid descendants of Arabian and Norman sires.

It is strange that no one has before suggested our plan. THE CHRONICLE is devoted to Oregon, and particularly to Eastern Oregon, and hence we patriotically make our scheme known, reserving to ourselves none of the benefits sure to come from it. Only a few years ago government mules were the standard of value up and down the Pacific slope. Prior to the dastardly conspiracy which built the Pacific railroads and demulsed mules, the government purchased that noble and beautiful animal freely at 16 to 1, placed its brand on the rump, and the government mule was the standard. As compared to a government mule, all other brass was no where; a mule was worth sixteen horses every day in the week after the government stamp was impressed upon him, and he was placed in circulation.

But our scheme—We propose the organization of a new, progressive party; one that will be loyal to the interests of the country; controlled neither by silver, mine corporations, nor gold bondholders, but guided by plain horse sense. Horse hide is strong, white and pliable; it will neither wear out nor erode; it is lighter than base gold and baser silver. We suggest for our party's banner a horse-hide, fringed with the mane and festooned with the tail, and for the single platform the free coinage of horse-hide. This will create a demand for something we have to sell. Why should Oregon seek to raise the price of the products of the wealthy mine-owners of Montana and Colorado? We own no silver mines; we own horses. Make horse-hide a legal tender, and Oregon is saved from bankruptcy and the country from ruin. We propose a joint convention for Oregon and Washington, and we suggest that Governor Lord at once appoint Al Sutton, the veteran horse-raiser of Oregon, as the leader of our state's delegation.

SECRETARY GRESHAM DEAD.

Secretary Gresham died in Washington, D. C., at 1:15 o'clock this morning, after an illness of about four weeks. That his illness was aggravated and his death hastened by the cares and annoyances of his office, there is little doubt. As a judge he won for himself an enviable reputation, and by reason of his services upon the bench he came near winning the nomination for president. Disappointed in this, he left the party which had honored him and joined the party against which he sought the presidential nomination. For this service, rather than because of any peculiar fitness for the position, he was made secretary of state.

His warmest friends will scarcely claim that his administration has been a success. Petulant and exacting, he was ill qualified to fill the position which requires the most skillful diplomacy. Had death come to him while he continued to fill the position he was best fitted to fill—that of U. S. judge—the American people would feel far different toward him than they do. He was a man of great talent, but not as secretary of state.

FRAUD IN THE FRANKING PRIVILEGES.

Attorneys in this city desiring the Decisions of the Department of the Interior in land cases ordered them of a Washington book firm; the price of the publication delivered was less than the government price, although the government is supposed to sell the publication at cost price. Yesterday the set of books, consisting of nineteen volumes arrived by registered mail, and the tag attached to them, bearing the address and registry stamp, contained also the words: "Public Documents, Free, Jno. J. O'Neill M. C." Apparently this "M. C." is in congress for revenue only, and as part of his income counts the funds placed to his credit by this book house for the use of his mail frank.

Now that the democratic administration is done with Republican Collector Lotan we would suggest that they turn their attention to congressmen who sell their mailing frank to law-book sellers. Mr. Attorney General and Mr. Postmaster-General, here is a chance to dig up fraud in your own family.

The Dalles has never had an enterprise which has contributed so much to the business prosperity of The Dalles as the D. P. & A. N. Co.'s line of boats. The men who put their capital into it have been rewarded in many ways, which are often poorly appreciated. From the business the company is now doing it is apparent that they will be rewarded in a way they can appreciate. With a capital stock of $39,500, it owns over $60,000, and is doing a paying business. The way to help the town and the county is to stand in with the boat line.

Seldom has Wasco county had a better grand jury than the one selected and sworn yesterday; it is composed of men who know the best interests of the community and understand how to protect them. There will be no monkey business with this grand jury.

of all cases of consumption can, if taken in the earlier stages of the disease, be cured. This may seem like a bold assertion to those familiar only with the means generally in use for its treatment; as, nasty cod-liver oil and its filthy emulsions, extract of malt, whiskey, different preparations of hypophosphites and such like palliatives. Although by many believed to be incurable, there is the evidence of hundreds of living witnesses to the fact that, in all its earlier stages, consumption is a curable disease. Not every case, but a large percentage of cases, and we believe, fully 98 per cent, are cured by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, even after the disease has progressed so far as to induce repeated bleedings from the lungs, severe lingering cough with copious expectoration (including tubercular matter), great loss of flesh and extreme emaciation and weakness.

Do you doubt that hundreds of such cases reported to us as cured by "Golden Medical Discovery" were genuine cases of that dread and fatal disease? You need not take our word for it. They have, in nearly every instance, been so pronounced by the best and most experienced home physicians, who have no interest whatever in misrepresenting them, and who were often strongly prejudiced and advised against a trial of "Golden Medical Discovery," but who have been forced to confess that it surpasses, in curative power over this fatal malady, all other medicines with which they are acquainted. Nasty cod-liver oil and its filthy "emulsions" and mixtures, had been tried in nearly all these cases and had either utterly failed to benefit, or had only seemed to benefit a little for a short time. Extract of malt, whiskey, and various preparations of the hypophosphites had also been faithfully tried in vain.

The photographs of a large number of those cured of consumption, bronchitis, lingering coughs, asthma, chronic nasal catarrh and kindred maladies, have been skillfully reproduced in a book of 160 pages which will be mailed to you, on receipt of address and six cents in stamps. You can then write those cured and learn their experience.

THE BEST PIPE TOBACCO.

$100 Reward $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address,
