TUE CASCADE RESERVE AGAIN.

We are in sympathy with the spirit of patriotism and love of the mountains of the writer of the letter in yesterday's CHRONICLE favoring the exclusion of sheep from the Cascade Reservation. We want no such result as the one suggested. The mountains in their present condition are more than beautiful; they are, to a large extent, the controllers of the climate and the regulators of our water supply. Denuded, their beauty and much of their utility is gone; but all the herds that can ever be maintained on the lowlands during the winter are but a handful as compared to what the mountain forests will feed in the summer months without affecting the soil, herbage or forests.

There are millions of acres along the eastern base of the mountains which are fit only for sheep and cattle pasture; stock cannot be maintained in the mountains during the months from October until May, and without the use of the mountain pastures in the summer these pasture lands are utterly worthless for any purpose. Being far from water, or so dry as not to bear summer pasturage, not only will those who have settled upon and purchased portions of these lands with the understanding that the mountains were and should remain free, be wronged, but the remainder of the lands not yet sold will be unsaleable and useless.

This order is made without any investigation of its necessity or effect. We think it is unjust to the men in the sheep industry and wholly unnecessary in order to keep the mountains in substantially the same condition as now. As to the cutting of timber from the mountains, that is quite a different matter. A forest fire from a careless or indifferent settler will do more harm in one night than a herd of sheep will do in many summers.

ENGLAND'S INVITATION TO THE PRESIDENT.

England's is now discussing the propriety of the president of the United States visiting Europe. They long for an opportunity on that side to show their appreciation of what a democratic administration has done for their manufacturers and the producers in their colonies. They will take less interest in the next president, and hence anxious that Mr. Cleveland make the journey.

We think our president, during these hard times had best remain at home and saw wood. He will soon be out of a job, and if he saves enough from his salary to visit his friends and beneficiaries afterwards, we will make no objections; but just now his closest attention is required to so run the government that when it is turned over to the incoming republican administration it will not be entirely bankrupt. Just leave book-writing and traveling alone, Mr. Cleveland, until our income is as great as our expenditures. We think by that time the United States will not miss you.

There is to be an official inquiry into the faulty loading of the Collina. How lamentable there could not have been a little more "investigation" before she sailed from port. About 180 lives might have thereby been saved. The same penalty should be inflicted upon careless stevedores as is inflicted upon careless officers of the ship in case of a wreck.

We note the fact that the "Rawhide" mine in California has become very valuable since our proposed free coinage of horsehide. We didn't suppose there was any such a mine, or we would not have made our plan so public. We made the suggestion wholly in the interest of Oregon horse-raisers; we care nothing for California mine-owners.

U. S. Attorney Murphy and his partner, Larry Sullivan, are to give a matinee of the performance given recently by them at the Tivoli saloon in Portland. In this performance there will be a slight change change in the caste; Sullivan will be defendant, instead of the aggressor.

Death of a Young Lady Formerly in The Dalles.

Mr. Alex. McLeod of Kingsley, who is in the city, received the sad intelligence yesterday of the death of his grandchild, Miss Annie Bassoni, who died Saturday morning, June 1st, in San Francisco, Cal., from an accidental poisoning. The Examiner gives a full account of the deplorable affair. It seems Miss Bassoni, who was a good bicyclist, started to ride to see a new house which the family was to occupy. In returning she got along very nicely till she approached the crossing at Van Ness avenue. At this point there was a jumble of teams and one of them nearly ran her down. She swung out of the way only to be struck by another team. Although suffering much pain the young lady rode home, but was compelled at once to lie down. The next morning about 4 o'clock she awoke and being feverish asked Mrs. Wauzeman, who occupied the room with her, for a drink. The lady arose to grant the request, but instead of pouring out a glass of malt extract she made a fatal mistake and filled a wine glass with aconite liniment and gave it to Miss Bassoni, the latter drinking it at a draught. As soon as the mistake was discovered medical aid was summoned but in vain and in half an hour from the time of drinking the poison the young lady was dead. Aconite, when used in very small quantities, is a remedy of considerable value, but when taken in too large amounts is deadly in its effects. So fatal a poison is it that there is no known antidote for it.

Miss Bassoni spent two years some time ago in Wasco county, part of the time at Kingsley and part at The Dalles. She has many friends here who remember her well. Her sister, Miss Flora Bassoni, is at present in The Dalles, while Mr. Archie Bassoni, a brother of the dead girl, lives at Rutledge, Sherman county. They are to be deeply sympathized with in their affliction.

Another New Enterprise.

Mr. Emil Schanno has purchased the lot on the southeast of Front and Washington and intends as soon as arrangements can be completed to commence the erection of a large warehouse. In all probability the building will be occupied by the Oregon Fruit Union as a storage and forwarding warehouse. The dimensions will be 97x45 feet and will be well arranged for the handling of a large amount of fruit. Mr. Schanno is an old time resident of The Dalles and this move shows his faith in the town as a business point that will increase in importance in further time. In a conversation with the agent of the Fruit Union a CHRONICLE reporter was told that the union was going to remain permanently in The Dalles and that they consider this point an excellent one for the extension of their business.

The property was purchased of some heirs of T. W. Miller, a pioneer resident of The Dalles, who died some years ago. For a number of years Mr. Miller had a tin and hardware store on the corner, but the building was burned down about ten years ago. THE CHRONICLE will be glad to see the ground occupied and note another improvement in our growing city.

Great Collection of Napoleon Pictures.

The 250 pictures in McClure's Complete Life of Napoleon are drawn from the private collection of the Hon. Gardiner G. Hubbard of Washington, D. C.; of Mgr. Duc d'Anmale; H. I. H., Prince Victor Napoleon; Prince Roland Bonaparte; Baron Larrey, the son of the chief surgeon of the armies of Napoleon; the Duke of Bassano, son of the minister and confidant of the emperor; M. M. Edmond Taigny, the friend and historian of Isabeau; M. Albert Christophe, Governor-General of the Credit Foncier of France; M. Paul le Roux, who has, perhaps, the richest of the Napoleonic collections; M. le Marquis de Girardin, son-in-law of the Duc de Caete, the faithful Minister of Finance of Napoleon I., and from the great galleries of France.

From Our Antelope Correspondent.

Miss Bertha Irvine of Antelope was given a birthday dinner on Wednesday. Her many friends all join in wishing her many happy returns of the day.

Frank Kincaid, former county commissioner, arrived from The Dalles

Wednesday, and brought the first strawberries which had arrived at Antelope this season.

The case of Lester vs. Hooper, over the damage done to a box of candy, and which was on trial before Justice Jesse Allen, was decided in favor of the defendant. A jury was called to determine the matter. H. BRETTE.

GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY

Many years ago Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., compounded this medicine of vegetable ingredients which had an especial effect upon the stomach and liver, rousing the organs to healthful activity as well as purifying and enriching the blood. By such means the stomach and the nerves are supplied with pure blood; they will not do duty without it any more than a locomotive can run without coal. You can not get a lasting cure of Dyspepsia, or indigestion, by taking artificially digested foods or pills—the stomach must do its own work in its own way. Do not put your nerves to sleep with so-called celery mixtures, it is better to go to the seat of the difficulty and feed the nerve cells on the food they require. Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Biliousness and Nervous Affections, such as sleeplessness and weak, nervous feelings are completely cured by the "Discovery." It puts on healthy flesh, brings refreshing sleep and invigorates the whole system.

Mrs. K. HENKE, of No. 836 North Halsted St., Chicago, Ill., writes: "I regard my improvement as simply wonderful. Since taking Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in connection with his 'Pleasant Pellets' I have gained in every respect, particularly in flesh and strength. My liver was dreadfully enlarged and I suffered greatly from dyspepsia. No physician could give relief. Now, after two months I am entirely relieved of my disease. My appetite is excellent; food well digested; bowels regular and sleep much improved."

"Disfigured For Life"

Is the despairing cry of thousands afflicted with Unsightly skin diseases.

Do you realize what this disfigurement means to sensitive souls? It means isolation, seclusion. It is a bar to social and business success. Do you wonder that despair seizes upon these sufferers when Doctors fail, standard remedies fail, and nostrums prove worse than useless? Skin diseases are most obstinate to cure or even relieve. It is an easy matter to claim to cure them, but quite another thing to do so.

CUTICURA REMEDIES Have earned the right to be called Skin Specifics. Because for years they have met with most remarkable success. There are cases that they cannot cure, but they are few indeed. It is no long-drawn-out, expensive experiment. 25c. invested in a cake of CUTICURA SOAP Will prove more convincing than a page of advertisement. In short CUTICURA works wonders, and its cures are simply marvellous.

Sold everywhere. Price, CUTICURA, 50c.; SOAP, 25c.; RESOLVENT, 5c. POTTER DRUG AND CHEM. CO., Sole Props., Boston. "All about the Skin," free.
