

I. O. G. T.

FOREST GROVE, June 4, 1895.
Dear Friends and Readers of THE CHRONICLE:

The thirty-first annual meeting of the grand lodge of the state of Oregon commenced its session at 1 o'clock, opening in the subordinate degree.

We first listened to the reports of the grand officers. Grand Chief Templar Kennedy was unable to be with us, and sent his report, which was read by the grand secretary. He summed up the work of the year, commenting upon successes and deploring failures in the work and made good suggestions for the coming year. He also declared Cascade Locks lodge to be the winner of the prize of officers' regalia, which he had offered to the lodge that would initiate the largest number of persons during the months of February, March and April. Thus you see Wasco county (if not The Dalles) was ahead. The grand secretary's report showed that there are now forty-three lodges in the state, with 1,870 members. The chief offered valuable suggestions for the future. The grand treasurer's report showed that there had been more than $1,100 used in the work during the past year. The grand superintendent of Juvenile Temples showed in her report that there now fifteen temples in Oregon, with a membership of 842. She urged all the subordinate lodges to organize Juvenile Temples. The grand councillor's report was helpful as a councillor's report should be. The grand superintendent of lecture work showed how the lecture work had been given up early in the grand lodge year, and the reason why it was abandoned.

Reports of lodges occupied a large part of the afternoon; and summing them all up, they showed that the I. O. G. T. work was rather on the decline than otherwise in the state of Oregon. Many reasons were given for this, such as hard times, lack of interest, the great number of other organizations; but with it all there seems to be a brighter, more hopeful outlook for the future.

MORNING SESSION—JUNE 5.
After the reading of minutes, the report of the committee on the good of the order was received. Reports from other committees were then read.

In the election of officers which followed, Bro. Breeden was chosen Grand Chief Templar; W. M. Shank, Grand Councillor; Mrs. Kellogg, Grand Vice Templar; Bro. Hurst, Grand Secretary; Bro. Dalzell, Grand Treasurer.

Last evening an entertainment was given, consisting of musical and literary selections, which all the delegates heartily enjoyed.

Any one who has ever had an attack of inflammatory rheumatism will rejoice with Mr. J. A. Stumm, 220 Boyle Heights, Los Angeles, over his fortunate escape from a siege of that distressing ailment. Mr. Stumm is foreman of Merriam's confectionery establishment. Some months ago, on leaving the heated work room to run across the street on an errand, he was caught out in the rain. The result was that when ready to go home that night he was unable to walk, owing to inflammatory rheumatism. He was taken home, and on arrival was placed in front of a good fire and thoroughly rubbed with Chamberlain's Pain Balm. During the evening and night he was repeatedly bathed with this liniment, and by morning was relieved of all rheumatic pains. He now takes especial pleasure in praising Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and always keeps a bottle of it in the house. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists.

Two Lives Saved.
Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida St., San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching consumption, tried without result everything else, then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which there are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in coughs and colds. Free trial bottles at the Snipes-Kinersly Drug Store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00.

Knights of the Maccabees.
The State Commander writes us from Lincoln, Neb., as follows: "After trying other medicines for what seemed to be a very obstinate cough in our two children we tried Dr. King's New Discovery and at the end of two days the cough entirely left them. We will not be without it hereafter, as our experience proves that it cures where all other remedies fail."—Signed F. W. Stevens, State Com.—Why not give this great medicine a trial, as it is guaranteed and trial bottles are free at Snipes & Kinersly's Drug Store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00.

A severe rheumatic pain in the left shoulder had troubled Mr. J. H. Loper, a well known druggist of Des Moines, Iowa, for six months. At times the pain was so severe that he could not lift anything. With all he could do he could not get rid of it until he applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm. "I only used three applications of it," he says, "and have since been free from all pain." He now recommends it to persons similarly afflicted. It is for sale by Blakeley & Houghton Druggists.

Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier is admirably adapted to make "a little health go a long way." Its curative power is largely attributable to its stimulant, tonic and nutritive properties, by which the energy of the system is recruited. It is pleasant to taste, easily borne on the stomach and harmless under prolonged use. Price $1.00 per bottle. For sale by Snipes-Kinersly Drug Co.

Whooping Cough.
There is no danger from this disease Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is freely given. It liquefies the tough mucus and aids its expectoration. It also lessens the severity and frequency of paroxysms of coughing, and insures a speedy recovery. There is not the least danger in giving the remedy to children or babies, as it contains no injurious substance. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists.

While in Stockton Cal., some time ago, Thos. F. Langan, of Los Banos, that state, was taken very severely cramps and diarrhoea. He chanced to meet Mr. C. M. Carter, who was similarly afflicted. He says: "I told him of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and we went to the Holden Drug Store and procured a bottle of it. It gave Mr. Carter prompt relief and I can vouch for its having cured me." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists.

Read the following opinion of one of the most prominent American dealers who has sold hundreds of these wheels:
RICHMOND, VA., Oct. 2, 1894.
Indiana Bicycle Co., Indianapolis, Ind.
GENTLEMEN—The Waverley Scorch-r and Be's came to hand yesterday. We are afraid you have sent us the high-priced wheel by mistake. You can't mean to tell us that this wheel retails for $50? We must say that it is, without exception, the prettiest wheel we have ever seen, and, moreover, we have faith in it, although it weighs only 22 lbs., for of all Waverleys we have sold this year and last (and you know that is a right good number), we have never had a single frame nor fork broken, either from accident or defect, and that is more than we can say of any other wheel, however high grade, so called, that we sell. We congratulate ourselves every day that we are the Waverley agents.
