VICTIMS OF CHINESE

A Massacre of Christians Reported From Shanghai.

NEITHER SEX NOR AGE SPARED

All Persons Connected With the English, French and American Missions at Cheng Tu Butchered.

LONDON, June 9.—A special from Shanghai says it is almost certain that a massacre of all the persons connected with the English, French and American missions at Cheng Tu has occurred. Neither men, woman nor children have been spared, according to the report. It is admitted that telegrams have been intercepted by the government, the object being to conceal the news of the massacre. A French gunboat is en route to Wuen Chang to investigate the report.

Characteristic Letter From Debs.

CLEVELAND, June 8.—The American Railway Union organization received a letter from Eugene V. Debs, who says:

EUGENE V. DEBS

"I cannot be considered a candidate for the presidency. I would not permit myself to harbor such an aspiration for an instant. I have little enough liberty as it is, and what there is I do not want to sacrifice on the political altar, not that I would fear to face the whirlwind of denunciation which such an ambition would arouse, but I wish to remain untrammelled, and do what little I can in my own way to free the American people."

Who Died First?

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—The fate of an estate valued at $100,000 is likely to rest on whether Professor Harold Whiting, of the university of California, who was lost on the Colima, died before or after his wife, who was drowned on the same voyage.

Just before Professor Whiting started on his fatal voyage he made two wills, which he mailed to an attorney at Cambridge Mass. One was to the effect that, if he should be drowned, his estate should go to the surviving members of his family. The other was that in case he and his wife and children were all drowned, his estate should revert to members of his family living in the East. If Professor Whiting died first his wife and children immediately became his heirs. But if Mrs. Whiting died later her heirs would inherit a small fortune to the exclusion of heirs of Professor Whiting in the East.

Two persons who said they were representatives of attorneys have called on A. J. Sutherland and asked him some significant questions. Sutherland was on the same raft with Whiting, and tried to save the professor's life. Sutherland was asked whether Whiting or his wife died first. While the cool-headed survivor believes that Mrs. Whiting met her death some time before her husband into a watery grave, he could not positively answer the question, as he did not see Mrs. Whiting during the storm.

Reed Would Say Little.

PORTLAND, Maine, June 8.—Hon. Thomas B. Reed, in response to a request for his opinion in regard to the recent changes in the cabinet, said: "I care to say nothing in regard to it."

He was equally reticent in regard to the disension in the Maine democracy, caused by the dismissal of Colonel Morton from the treasury department. In regard to the effect produced by the recent action of the Illinois democratic convention, he said: "It is very probable that the action of the Illinois democrats on the use of silver or anything else will not have any great influence upon the country or the coming campaign."

A Difficulty Settled.

Mc'Cor, Colo., June 8.—News received by a special messenger indicates that the trouble between the cattle and sheep men is over for the present, at least. The cattlemen found only 1800 to 2000 sheep in Colorado. The remainder had already been driven across the state line into Wyoming. Those still in Routt county were headed in the same direction. Assurance was given by the herd-ers that they would cross the state line at the earliest possible moment.

McLaughlin in Jail.

NEW YORK, June 8.—William M. McLaughlin, late inspector of police, spent last night in the Tombs as a convict. He was pale, nervous and appeared to be in a state of collapse. He walked up and down in his cell through the hours of the night, having no inclination to rest nor to go to bed. Today he declined to see reporters. It is believed by his friends that he never will serve a day in a penal prison.

Riot in Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, O., June 8.—The police were called upon today to quell a riot at the works of the American Wire Company, where 200 laborers struck yesterday for an increase of wages. The strikers on learning that their places were being filled became threatening. Stones were thrown and windows broken, but no one was injured.

McLean's Liver and Kidney Balm is especially adapted for disorders of this kind. Price $1.00 per bottle. For sale by Snipes-Kinerly Drug Co.

Verdict Against the Pullmans.

CHICAGO, June 8.—The jury in the case of Judge Ennis against the Pullman Palace Car Company awarded him today a verdict for $180. The plaintiff was suing for $49,000 salary as the company's general counsel. Judge Hency instructed the jury that by the statute of limitation only a part of the claim could be allowed.
