REPUBLICANISM IN THE DEMO CRATIC ADMINISTRATION.

When the democratic party undertakes to run the United States government it finds that much of republicanism, which it formerly denounced, is quite essential to the wise and effective administration of the government. If the South goes ever to populism, as there now seems to be a etrong probability of its doing, even the federal election law would be found quite a wise provision. The interference of the federal government in controlling riots in the northern cities is no more offensive to the populists and socialists than was a like interference by a republican administration to prevent violence in the South a few years ago to the democratic

Not only is there some good found in republicanism itself, but ex-republicans have been found of great assistance to Mr. Cleveland. #### THE WOMEN OF BOSTON.

The Woman's Rescue League of Boston, like all women, except our mothers, the Roberts and Woodcock halll. wives and sweethearts, are wholly in consistent. They resolve and resolve, and when they are fully resolved the results are diametrically opposed. First they resolve that eighty per cent of the wealth in all light manufacturing industries is created by women and therefore they are entitled to all the political and other privileges of manly men-wear pants, make stump speeches, run caucuses, vote and hold office. Next, forgetting the attributes of manly men. whom they insist upon imitating, they resolve that women must not ride bicycles because it makes them mannish and tempts women to wear pants. But there is no use in discussing the subject with the dear creatures; they will only declare that there is no inconsistency in their resolutions, and remain as resolute as ever. Better do as did the man who was sued by his wife for a divorce; when the summons was served upon him he remarked: "Bless her dear bear! She has always had everything she has asked for; if she wants a diworce, she shall have it."

The taxpayers of this county have cause to be thankful that the sessions of our circuit court are as short as they are. In former years, when there was a wild and reckless'element in our midst, composed of "bad" men, who are now either all killed or gone away, the term of court used to last much longer and the subsequent burden on the taxpayer more grievous. Because the calendar is not stretched to a great length does not mean that business is not good or even that the lawyers do not have enough to do, but that people are learning to settle their disputes outside the courtroom and repair there when all other efforts fail. Busy men have not the time to enjoy the luxuries of a law suit when there is
