

WHO WILL IT BE?

More Gossip About the Next President.

WILLIAM C. WHITNEY SAYS NO.

The Union Pacific Going to Pieces—Debs Begins his Prison Life on Wednesday.

BOSTON, June 10.—Ex-Secretary of the Navy W. C. Whitney was interviewed at the home of his mother, in Brookline, last night. He said:

"I am not and will not be a presidential candidate. If the silver men should carry the next democratic convention, it will split the party. The democrats must stand for sound money. There are a good many sound-money men in the West and South, and the Memphis convention, I think, has helped the cause along. Carlisle's speech at the convention was an excellent one, and deserves to be widely read. It has undoubtedly had an influence in the South. I think the people will eventually treat this question the same as they did the greenback question. They want sound money now just as much as they did then."

Mr. Whitney said he felt, however, that the free-silver question was liable to assume the same proportions or even greater than did the greenback movement. He said the organized educational movement was necessary to counteract the spread of the free-silver craze. "I do not think the republicans will care to reopen the tariff question again," he said. "They see they would gain nothing by it. The money question will dominate everything in the next campaign unless there is a radical change in sentiment within the next year."

Mr. Whitney does not think any Eastern states will follow the Illinois democrats in the matter of calling state conventions to consider the financial question. In answer to the question whether the United States should continue its navy as in the last few years, he said:

"Yes; but I think what we should confine our attention to now is the building of large battleships of the best type."

He does not think the United States could very well recognize the Cuban insurgents as belligerents.

When ex-President Harrison's movement in New York and Philadelphia were spoken of, and reference was made to the Depew dinner, Mr. Whitney smiled and said:

"Yes, it looks very much as ex-President Harrison were after the republican nomination."

It was suggested that there would be probably hard work for him to do in the next convention, and Mr. Whitney said: "Well, I shall be in the struggle if there is an intellectual one for sound money, you may be assured."

Going to Pieces.

DENVER, June 10.—The report of a separate receiver for the Kansas Pacific branch of the Union Pacific finds credence, although it cannot be confirmed in this city. In 1893 the Union Pacific was operating 8167 miles of railway, though its own mileage from Omaha to Ogden is but 1083. In that year the St. Joseph & Grand Island, of 251 miles, was lopped off; then, in the order mentioned, went from the Union Pacific, the Denver & Gulf, with its 1478 miles; the Oregon Railway & Navigation line, 1059 miles; the Denver, Leadville & Gunnison, 325 miles; the Oregon Short Line, 1431 miles; and if the Kansas Pacific goes, 747 more miles will come off.

Gould, who is heavily interested in the Union Pacific, would naturally be expected to oppose its permanent crippling, but he is also interested in the Gulf and Kansas Pacific, and by working in with the Colorado Midland, Rio Grande Western, Oregon Short Line and Central Pacific, would make a combination with Portland, San Francisco, Galveston and St. Louis as the four corners.

A report filed with the secretary of the Colorado board of equalization shows that the entire system had, in 1893, 764 engines and 11,000 box cars, with other stock in proportion. All the engines except 100, together with a proportion of rolling stock, belonged to associated roads. As each line is lopped off, it claims its own stock. That which it is now using has almost all been built and charged to the Kansas Pacific branch. Should the Omaha report prove correct, the Union Pacific would be in sore straits.

Debs Goes to Jail.

CHICAGO, June 10.—Eugene V. Debs and other officials of the American Railway union, will be sent to Woodstock jail tomorrow. A certified order to the supreme court was received here today. The men under sentence are: E. V. Debs, G. W. Howard, S. Keliber, L. W. Rogers, James Hogan, W. E. Burns, R. M. Goodwin and Martin Elliott. There is a question as to the time the men will serve. The original sentence was six months for Debs and three months for his associates, in two different contempt cases sentence the being made concurrently by the court. The defendants' attorney later had the sentence made cumulative in order to take the desired legal action. It is thought probable that an effort will be made to have Judge Wood reinstate the concurrent sentences.

Robert Lincoln.

NEW YORK, June 10.—Thomas L. James, ex-postmaster-general, and president of the Lincoln National bank, said, discussing the political question: "I look upon Robert Lincoln as the likeliest dark horse in the race for the republican nomination. I believe he will get half of the entire Southern delegation, and when the break comes on the favorites, Lincoln and Allison will get the benefit of it. The Iowa senator is a well-balanced, sound-viewed man, who, next to Lincoln, possesses elements of strength where other candidates are weak. It is my opinion that Harrison cannot, by any means, be nominated."

Any one who has ever had an attack of inflammatory rheumatism will rejoice with Mr. J. A. Stumm, 220 Boyle Heights, Los Angeles, over his fortunate escape from a siege of that distressing ailment. Mr. Stumm is foreman of Merriam's confectionery establishment. Some months ago, on leaving the heated work room to run across the street on an errand, he was caught out in the rain. The result was that when ready to go home that night he was unable to walk, owing to inflammatory rheumatism. He was taken home, and on arrival was placed in front of a good fire and thoroughly rubbed with Chamberlain's Pain Balm. During the evening and night he was repeatedly bathed with this liniment, and by morning was relieved of all rheumatic pains. He now takes especial pleasure in praising Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and always keeps a bottle of it in the house. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists.
