DISASTROUS ACCIDENT

An Unused Railroad Bridge Falls.

CARRYING DOWN THE PEOPLE.

It Had Been Used Only for a Foot Bridge for Some Time—Many Were Injured.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., June 15.—Today while a crowd was on the east end of the old C. & W. M. railroad bridge, no longer used for regular railroad traffic but for foot passengers only, a part gave way, and 15 or 20 people precipitated to the rocks below, a distance of 15 feet. No one was killed, but a number were injured, as follows: Michael Devos, cut over the right eye, injured internally; John Devos, his son, right ankle sprained; Frank White, right kneecap broken; Henry Wylie, brakeman, right wrist broken and right hip sprained; Henry Hundoris, 7 years old, chest injured; Jacob Quint, 70 years old, right foot injured; L. Bokman, conductor, left wrist and right arm sprained and bruised. The railway men were at work with a piledriver, which stood on the bridge, and other people were watching the job.

Delegates Arrive.

CLEVELAND, June 16.—Delegates to the convention of the National Republican League are beginning to arrive, and by tomorrow it is expected there will be an influx of strangers. Among the arrivals today was R. C. Evans, national committeeman from Minnesota, and delegate at large to the convention from that state. He says he thinks the convention will be the largest and most enthusiastic that has yet been held, and scouts the idea that there will be a fight over free coinage. Mr. Evans has just returned from the east. Being asked what he thought of the republican presidential question, he said Minnesota had a candidate in the person of Senator C. K. Davis, and while he was not a leader in the race, Minnesota republicans hoped matters would so shape themselves before next year as to make his nomination prospective. In regard to the question whom he considered the strongest candidate in the race at present, Mr. Evans said:

"McKinley is by all odds the strongest candidate."

He said Reed, Harrison and Allison were all strong and able men, and each was positive of a considerable following.

Fur Seals Disappearing.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Captain Hooper, in command of the cutter fleet in Behring sea, has reported to the treasury department that his observations south of Unalaska convince him that the seal herds moving north are far less numerous than formerly. This scarcity it is believed, is entirely due to the indiscriminate slaughter during the last two or three years. While patrolling the North Pacific Captain Hooper boarded and searched a number of sealers, both Canadian and American, but there was no evidence of unlawful killing, hence they were allowed to proceed. It is very probable that the maximum catch of the North American Commercial Company will be materially reduced even from last year, when it reached about 13,000 skins.

Whooping Cough.

There is no danger from this disease Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is freely given. It liquefies the tough mucus and aids its expectoration. It also lessens the severity and frequency of paroxysms of coughing, and insures a speedy recovery. There is not the least danger in giving the remedy to children or babies, as it contains no injurious substance. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists.

Any one who has ever had an attack of inflammatory rheumatism will rejoice with Mr. J. A. Stumm, 220 Boyle Heights, Los Angeles, over his fortunate escape from a siege of that distressing ailment. Mr. Stumm is foreman of Merriam's confectionery establishment. Some months ago, on leaving the heated work room to run across the street on an errand, he was caught out in the rain. The result was that when ready to go home that night he was unable to walk, owing to inflammatory rheumatism. He was taken home, and on arrival was placed in front of a good fire and thoroughly rubbed with Chamberlain's Pain Balm. During the evening and night he was repeatedly bathed with this liniment, and by morning was relieved of all rheumatic pains. He now takes especial pleasure in praising Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and always keeps a bottle of it in the house. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists.

The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address, F. J.
