THE WAY IT SEEMS TO US.

A lesson in money is furnished from Seattle. The school board of that city, in need of money, offered bonds for sale to the amount of $400,000.

We do not know all that is to be known concerning the history and science of national finance, but the foregoing is in line with our idea that any attempt to make uncertain the measure of values, or to use a measure that fluctuates is dangerous.

A COMMERCIAL ORGANIZATION.

Few towns of the size and importance of The Dalles are without any organization of business men. Prior to the fire of 1891, we had an efficient organization of this character in the board of trade, to which the town and country are largely indebted for the boat line.

In some places the social feature is added to the business interests, and the efficiency of the society strengthened. Let us have a commercial club.

OUR FRIENDS.

THE CHRONICLE is proud of the business and financial standing of this city, and we are more concerned in its welfare than any other subject. We note, with much satisfaction, the kindly feeling manifested toward our city by the leading papers of this portion of the state.

The council, at their meeting Saturday evening, reduced the salary of city recorder to $50 per month. This is in line with the suggestions heretofore made by THE CHRONICLE, and we believe will meet the approval of the citizens.

The report to be made by the board of engineers recently sent to Nicaragua by the government, will be looked forward to with great interest by every Pacific coast shipper. It will indicate that already a large amount of work has been done, and well done, and the difficulties are not so great as have been predicted.

A Proper Ending.

THE CHRONICLE made mention several days ago of the arrest of Scott Delaney, charged with the abduction of Maggie Yonce, a young lady aged 16 or thereabouts. The case came up before Justice Davis Saturday and was continued till yesterday.

Mr. Phelps dismissed the complaint, and all went merry as a marriage bell.

A Rousing Time at the Locks.

Yesterday afternoon a party of gentlemen, consisting of Judge Bradshaw, Sheriff Driver, John Mitchell, L. E. Crowe, A. S. MacAllister, J. A. Crossen, Frank Summers and Hugh Glenn, took the afternoon local for the Locks, where they attended a meeting of the Elks.

The exercises at the hall were highly exciting, and the fun was great and lasting. After the new members were shown what it was to be Elks, a sumptuous banquet was the scene of gaiety.

There is some talk of moving the lodge to The Dalles, where it would in all certainly have a prosperous existence. The newly-made Elks returned on the noon local, and the proper question is to ask them to describe their sensations.

Tygh Valley Tennis Club.

TO THE EDITOR:—Tygh valley has organized a tennis club for the coming season. At the recent election C. J. VanDuyn was chosen president; Mr. Chas. Adams, vice president; Dr. N. G. Powne, treasurer and Mr. Chas. F. Powne, secretary; Messrs. J. Kirtner, B. F. Swift, V. P. Steers and W. D. Munger were elected an executive committee.

The constitution that has been broken down or weakened by long standing disorders in the liver and kidneys, is ill fitted to withstand the encroachment of disease. Such a person takes cold easily, cannot stand fatigue, and in cases of epidemics, is the first to fall a victim.

If you contemplate going East don't fail to call on W. C. Alloway, agent for the Northern Pacific railroad, for full information in regard to rates, etc. The Northern Pacific is the only route running through tourist sleepers from Portland without any lay-overs, and is the only line running a dining car out of Portland.

of Consumption is stopped short by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. If you haven't waited beyond reason, there's complete recovery and cure. Although by many believed to be incurable, there is the evidence of hundreds of living witnesses to the fact that, in all its earlier stages, consumption is a curable disease.
