THE GERMAN CANAL.

The opening of the great German canal, which opens a short route from the North Sea to the Baltic is the greatest event to Europe of this century; it is the completion of a great waterway, and gives new facilities to large commerce.

This celebration brings together the representative war vessels of the great powers, and the eyes of each is noting the weakness and strength of the other. But we believe the greatest consequence of the gathering will be the creation of a better feeling among nations, a strengthening of the bonds of peace, which will bring to the world a greater blessing than all the commercial and strategic advantages it brings to Germany.

THE CLEVELAND CONVENTION.

No political gathering of the year has attracted, or will attract, closer attention than the gathering of the Republican League Clubs. No better evidence is needed of the fact that the nation is looking to the republican party to draw it out of the slough of despond, into which the democratic party has misled it.

D. P. & A. N. CO. DIVIDEND.

As was suggested yesterday, few transportation companies in the West have declared a dividend during the past two years, and it is safe to say none have paid a dividend of ten per cent. It is true that this is the first dividend, and the company has been doing business for nearly four years; but it must be remembered that with a subscribed stock of $39,500 it has bought and paid for property costing about $65,000, so that each dollar of stock now represents nearly two dollars worth of property.

The dispatch in yesterday's Oregonian, saying the salary of the postmaster at The Dalles had been reduced from $1,900 to $1,000, was clearly a mistake, and yet an unwished-for impression could go abroad concerning it. The salary of the postmaster at this place is $1,800, and the receipts of the office, instead of decreasing, are increasing steadily, till only a slight raise further would advance this office into a higher class. It is doubtless Dallas, Polk county, that is meant, and makes the demand for a change in name all the more urgent. There has always been great confusion between the two places, and many serious mistakes have resulted. As The Dalles was here first, and is progressing at such a greater speed, we do not see any other way than to have the name of Dallas changed, provided the department at Washington desires to accommodate the people of Oregon, and especially of The Dalles, who do not wish to bear the shortcomings of another town. The next change in the salary of this postoffice will be an increase.

The payment of the floating debt of the city and the dividends of the boat company will put into circulation here a considerable amount of money, most of the city warrants and of the boat stock being held here. We sincerely hope this capital will find investment here. The only enterprise in which everybody has capital invested is proving to be a good investment. Let's try another—a woolen mill and clothing factory for example.

The opening of the great German canal suggests that it is none too early to consider plans for the proper celebration of the opening of the canal and locks at the Cascades. No better opportunity will ever be offered to Oregon to bring to the attention of the eastern states and Europe the advantages, resources, climate and scenery, than a fitting celebration of this important event, now fast approaching. We propose a joint action by the commercial bodies of Astoria, Portland, Vancouver and The Dalles in preparing a suitable celebration. It is none too early to lay the plans for it.

A large clip of wool of extra fine quality and light weight sold at Pendleton a few days ago at 8 cents. The papers speak of it as a remarkable price. At The Dalles it is a poor quality of wool that will not bring 8 cents, and many of the better clips have been sold for 10 cents. That is what transportation facilities are doing for the producers who market their products here.

Owing to some disagreeable features connected with the institution, Miss Ruth Cooper, of this city, who, for the past year, has been a teacher at the Klamath Indian Reservation, tendered her resignation to the authorities and asked to be relieved. Yesterday she received a letter from the agent in charge, saying a telegram had been received from the department at Washington to the effect that the resignation would not be accepted, but if Miss Cooper would report for duty July 1st she would be transferred to some other school more congenial for her work. She telegraphed back asking to be allowed to remain in The Dalles till August 1st and then she would accept the offer. The action of the department is exceedingly complimentary to Miss Cooper and shows that her work has been so satisfactory that her services are valuable to the department. The representatives of The Dalles wherever they go always bring credit to their home town.

Mr. Joles, who returned yesterday from the East, reports having met Professor John Gavin and wife at Ogden. Mr. Gavin said they had stopped at Huntington for a several days visit and while at that place their little daughter, Celia, fell off the bed and broke her collarbone. The fracture was speedily remedied and the little sufferer made as comfortable as possible. Mr. Gavin said that everything was doing as well as could be expected and no serious results will follow. The little child was an exceptionally bright one and her accident is deeply regretted.

Any one who has ever had an attack of inflammatory rheumatism will rejoice with Mr. J. A. Stumm, 220 Boyle Heights, Los Angeles, over his fortunate escape from a stage of that distressing ailment. Mr. Stumm is foreman of Merriam's confectionery establishment. Some months ago, on leaving the heated work room to run across the street on an errand, he was caught out in the rain. The result was that when ready to go home that night he was unable to walk, owing to inflammatory rheumatism. He was taken home, and on arrival was placed in front of a good fire and thoroughly rubbed with Chamberlain's Pain Balm. During the evening and night he was repeatedly bathed with this liniment, and by morning was relieved of all rheumatic pains. He now takes especial pleasure in praising Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and always keeps a bottle of it in the house. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists.

Rev. T. H. Starbuck and Rev. D. T. Fero are in the city, having charge of the Seventh Day Adventist meeting now being held in The Dalles. The large tent on the vacant lot at the corner of Second and Liberty streets will hold a large crowd of people and good seats have been provided. Both the gentlemen have the reputation of being able speakers and the meetings will doubtless be very interesting. The time of their stay in the city is uncertain as it depends upon the measure of success that attends their efforts.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida St. San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching Consumption, tried without result everything else, then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in coughs and colds. Free trial bottles at the Snipes-Kinnersly Drug Store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

One in Four.

One person in four has a weak or diseased heart that entirely unites them for business and social life, or is simply a little annoying. Disease is never so insidious as it gets the mastery of you. You lose all courage; the slightest exertion tires you; your feet, ankles and legs swell; you cannot lie on your left side. Finally, you become so bad that you cannot lie down without smothering, and are compelled to get what sleep you can in a chair. You are urged to avoid this.

Have you the least little ambition left? Mrs. Eliza Cassidy, a mill employee of Lowell, Mass., had slight heart troubles many years ago. She neglected it for years. Her son tells the story best in his letters. Lowell, Mass., April 6th, 1894. "I must tell of the wonderful things your Heart Cure has done for my mother. She is 68 years of age, and always had good health until a severe cold left her with a slight heart trouble, which kept getting worse and worse. Physicians called it bronchitis of the heart seven years ago, but they did not help her; we had the best physicians in Lowell. She would not sleep, and was so nervous and impatient; several times we thought she would not live to see morning, and every spell seemed to be worse than the last. On March 18th, she was prepared for death and we watched for her last breath, but reviving somewhat, I was prompted to try your Heart Cure. We found it to relieve her almost immediately, and she is now using the third bottle, and thanks be to God, and your medicine she has had no more spells and goes up stairs as well as ever and don't have to stand and wait for breath. Her cough has left her. I write to let you know, as there are others suffering same as she. Mother says 'May God bless you every day of your life.'"

"Mother tells everybody in praise of your medicine which saved her from the grave; she is gaining strength and flesh every day. No palpitation or trouble of the heart at all now, and is at work every day since I wrote you last. If any person wishes any information, we will be only too glad to have them write or come to see us and will give full particulars concerning the good your valuable Heart Cure has done here. We remain yours truly, JOHN T. CASSIDY, 383 Thorndike St. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold by druggists everywhere on a positive guarantee, if the first bottle does not help you, your money is refunded.
