SATURDAY, - - - JUNE 22, 1895

BRIEF MENTION.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

Additional Local on Fourth Page.

The good ship Interstate arrived last night heavily laden with wood.

Today is the longest day in the year according to astronomy and the almanacs.

It is now definitely settled that company A of Wasco will come and assist The Dalles in celebrating independence day.

Six bill posters for the coming circus arrived in town this morning and are finishing up the work of decorating the town.

It was W. N. Wiley that won the diamond ring Thursday night and not Bob Wiley as THE CHRONICLE had been informed.

Over $550 have been subscribed for the celebration on the Fourth and other contributions are coming in to help swell the amount.

The Regulator brought up a good assortment of freight for local merchants last night. Most of it consisted of general merchandise.

The executive committee has decided to have a display of fireworks on the evening of the fourth and the pyrotechnics have been ordered.

An important meeting of the Jackson Engine company will be held this evening to make arrangements for its part in the celebration of the fourth.

A forest fire is burning on Chenoweth hill this afternoon and unless we have a rain is apt to do some damage. There is generally a fire in that locality every summer but it seldom comes so early in the season.

The sheriff's office is still busy collecting taxes. Deputies Kelly and Hill are engaged nearly all the time forcing collections and writing receipts. We venture to say that the delinquent list this year will not be very large.

The river has now fallen so that a large expanse of beach along the waterfront is high and dry. This will be a great convenience to the wood men who have been compelled to put their cordwood in inconvenient places.

Capt. Sherman Short has sold his stock in the D. P. & A. N. Co. to parties in this city and is now working for the Shaver Transportation Company, on the steamer Dixon. He expects in a few days to go on the steamer Bailey Gatzert.

Don't forget the baseball game tomorrow at the fair grounds. Both nines are fully prepared, and the contest promises to be an exciting one. The game will be called promptly at half past 2. The nines from Hood River and Dufur will play.

Mrs. Jennie Russell of this city, was chosen secretary of the Woman's Relief Corps at the late meeting in Oregon City. The Dalles received great recognition at the hands of the Relief Corps and the veterans at the state meeting.

A telegram was received from Washington saying that Miss Ruth Cooper had been transferred as a teacher to the Siletz Indian reservation. She will remain in The Dalles till August 1st and then assume the duties of her new position.

Twenty car loads of wool go east today and six cars leave for Portland. Wool is being received at The Dalles warehouse nearly every day from Arlington. About one fourth of the amount that is shipped westward from Arlington is unloaded at this point and placed on the market.

One hundred and two bales of wool were turned out at Moody's warehouse yesterday and up to half past ten this morning forty-two had been baled. It is a very interesting sight to see the machines at work and a trip through the warehouses would well repay the trouble.

Efforts are being made by the executive committee for the celebration to have the militia companies from neighboring towns join us in observing the day. The companies from Klickitat county and those from Sherman county will be asked and if satisfactory arrangements can be made the people of this city will see a monster military parade.

A diminutive skunk made fun for about fifty Chinamen and white men last night on Front street. Frantic efforts were made to kill the animal, but were of no avail till a Chinaman threw a big rock wildly in the air and it came down upon the skunk. When this bit of excitement was over, the crowd adjourned to listen to the Salvation Army.

Today The Dalles had a very lively appearance. In the morning a great number of farmers visited town and Second street was lined with teams. The wholesale houses were loading wagons with goods for the interior, and all their clerks were rushed with orders. The Dalles is selling large amounts of merchandise to a country whose business in former years went to other places but now comes to us.

Notice.

The Columbia Ice Company will deliver ice to any part of the city. Thankful for past favors we solicit a continuance of the same.

Hawthorne on Trial For His Life.

The trial of John Hawthorne of this city for the murder of the Indian Karpolis, is progressing rapidly in the United States court at Portland. The prosecution brought in evidence to show the robbery of Mays & Crowe's store; the shooting by the night watchman; the escape and killing at the Warm Springs. Several Indian witnesses told how they attempted to surround Hawthorne and capture him without any bloodshed; but that Hawthorne shot before it could be done. The government is nearly through with its case and the evidence shows the above state of facts. The defense will attempt to prove that Hawthorne shot thinking that the Indians were going to kill him and not knowing that they were Indian police. Judge Caples, the attorney for the defense, performed the masterly feat of getting a poor ignorant Indian witness to say once that he was behind a tree and then to contradict himself to say that it was behind a clump of bushes. As the testimony had to be sifted through an interpreter the variance is too slight to be called a contradiction. Walter Rowe, who has already testified for the prosecution will also be a witness for the defense and Hawthorne's attorneys expect to prove by him that Karpolis shot first. Mrs. Emily Hawthorne, mother of the prisoner, and his sister, Anna, are by his side in the court room. Hawthorne shows no nervousness or worry in the least, except in talking, when there is an apparent effort of self control.

An Exciting Time at the Court House.

This morning the officials at the courthouse had their equanimity considerably disturbed. An insane man, Dave Williams by name, had been arrested last night by Policeman Frank Connelly, and placed in the county jail for examination. This morning, as he was being questioned by Dr. Hollister, the idea of jumping through the window suddenly occurred to him, and out he went. Frank Hill and Judge Blakeley were standing by the railing in the sheriff's office, and as they saw Williams' coat tails disappear out the window, started for him. Mr. Hill caught up with him just outside the fence, and immediately there was a tussle. Jailor John Fitzgerald next appeared upon the scene, and Mr. Hill returned to get a pair of handcuffs. Seeing that Williams and Mr. Fitzgerald were having a merry time of it, Judge Blakeley rushed in to help the officer, and in return for his kindness received a kick, which took off considerably skin from below the knee. Williams was finally subdued and taken back to the sheriff's office and the examination speedily concluded. The insane man was taken to Salem this afternoon by Deputy Sheriff Hill and Frank Powers. He was securely handcuffed and the officers will watch him closely. The trouble with Powers is probably hereditary. He says he is very wealthy and that his grandfather left him ten thousand million pounds. His grandparents lived to be 120 and 130 years old. He says he has ten sisters and brothers living in The Dalles, but we have never met any of them.

An Afternoon Party.

A very pleasant gathering was held yesterday at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Houghton, on Court street. The party was given in honor of Mr. Houghton's mother, who has been visiting in the city for some time. The afternoon was spent in social conversation and in a display of the artistic abilities of those present. A card was given each one with the title of some well known book upon and the recipient was required to illustrate the title. The result was art in all its different phases grave, gay and ludicrous. It all tended to merriment, however, and made an exceedingly pleasant diversion for the afternoon. About a dozen ladies had been invited.

Mrs. Houghton returned to Portland by the steamer this morning.

About that Disappearance.

Frank Spicer, of Antelope, returned last night from Portland where he has been looking for Harry Stark, whose disappearance was noted in this paper several days ago. It was stated that Stark had been found in Portland but this is now said to be untrue and the chief of police with whom Mr. Spicer talked is watching for the missing man. Stark had a wagon and six horses when he came into town and the outfit has been here ever since till yesterday, when it was taken to Antelope. There is something mysterious about the affair as Stark is said to have owed very little and what property he had was more than enough to pay his debts. Our county officers are not through with the matter and its possible some interesting developments may be noted.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Portland police force, came up last night and returned this afternoon.

Mr. C. A. Cooper and family leave today for Chehalis, Wash., where he will take an important position in a furniture factory. Mr. Cooper has been living at Rufus for several months.

Mr. Charles Tibbets, who has been in California for some time, returned last night, and will resume his old position with the express company. Mr. Tibbets has been quite sick, and his friends are glad to see him looking so well.

Mr. Charles A. Wintermier, a Dalles boy who has been a student in the University of Oregon at Eugene, came home last night. Mr. Wintermier is a member of this year's junior class, and next June will receive his diploma from that worthy institution.

Judge E. C. Miller, judge of the superior court of Clarke county, Washington, accompanied by his family came up from Vancouver on the Regulator last night to visit his father Mr. George W. Miller.

Mr. G. W. Stapleton, who has just resigned as prosecuting attorney of Skamania county, accompanied by his wife, came up by boat last night on their way to Goldendale, where Mrs. Stapleton's parents reside. Mr. Stapleton is a lawyer in Vancouver.

Truman Butler, the gentlemanly purser of the Dalles City, who is now the oldest employe in time of service of the Dalles, Portland and Astoria Navigation Company, will change places with Fursar French of the Regulator today and spend Sunday with his parents and friends in The Dalles.

Last night was a bad one for hats on the Regulator dock. Just as the boat was making a landing Jim Harper's hat, for which he had just traded, and paid two bits to boot, flew off and gracefully fell into the river. Bob Hood was so busy laughing at the spectacle that he forgot to hold on to his sombrero and it went too. The last seen of them they were sailing abreast towards the cannery. All this furnished amusement for the crowd.

Mr. W. S. Myers of this city, was elected a delegate to the national encampment of the G. A. R. Mr. Myers is one of the most enthusiastic G. A. R. men in the state and has always been very prominent in the councils of the order. He has held almost every office in the gift of the local post and has been repeatedly honored by the state department.

Special Meeting.

There will be a special meeting of Mt. Hood hose company Saturday evening at 8 o'clock to organize a team and take other measures to assist in celebrating the 119 anniversary of the nation's birthday, Thursday, July 4th.
