The Orchestra excursion, and the Turners from Portland next Sunday.

Just received new lot of Princess Duck, full assortment of colors and designs at A. M. Williams & Co.

Night Officer Frank Connelly is on the day beat now temporarily in place of City Marshal Blakeney, who is not feeling well.

The river rose one-tenth last night and now stands at 21.7. The probability is it will rise more during the next two or three days.

A number of Indians, who were witnesses for the government in the Hawthorne trial at Portland, came up on the Regulator Saturday.

The King's Daughters are requested to meet Tuesday afternoon, at the residence of Mrs. Randall, on the hill. As this is the last meeting a large attendance of members is requested to be present at 2 o'clock.

General Agent Allaway, of the D. P. & A. N. Co., is busy today filling out cheques for the dividend, which will be paid tomorrow. The cheques are drawn on the First National bank of The Dalles and Portland.

The Turners from Portland are coming Sunday and that evening will give a concert in the opera house. The Regulator is going to make a special trip and the orchestra will accompany it. As only a limited number of tickets can be sold, it is best to buy them in time.

The local train was over two hours late today, not arriving in The Dalles till after 2 o'clock. The delay was caused by a too heavy blast a half-mile or so below the bridge. The track was covered over with loose rocks, and trains from both directions were blockaded until the obstruction was removed.

The quiet of Sunday afternoon was disturbed yesterday by an exciting runaway which took place in the east end of town. Lon Stephen's team came down the street at break-neck speed and seeing the doors of Skibbe's hotel ajar, made a rush to get in. They made the entrance all right, but left the wagon on the sidewalk. The horses knocked down both the doors and the screen, and only stopped at the brick partition. No particular damage to the animals or wagon was done, except what a little repairing will mend.

The case of the State vs. Wm. Rodzom, charged with assault and battery, was dismissed today. The defendant paid all the costs. His wife was the complaining witness and the dismissal saved a family broil from being ventilated in court.

The old Stoller place at Trout Lake, now owned by Hon. E. L. Smith of Hood River, will not be open to campers this season. There are, however, plenty of good camping places on the adjacent places to accommodate the large crowd that seems to be going to Trout Lake this season. The road to the lake is an exceptionally good one and pleasant camping places are easily found.

Strawberries from Hood River are selling in Helena and Butte from $2.50 to $2. Berries from other places bring only $1.50 to $2.50. Black cherries are selling at $1 per box of ten pounds. There is the greatest demand for Royal Anne cherries, which are bringing 12 1/2 cents a pound. The vegetable market is falling fast, and the prospect for garden truck in Montana markets is not good.

The school directors held a meeting Saturday in Hugh Glenn's office, at which were present all the directors. The only action taken was the election of a teacher to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Lura Welch—now Mrs. Wenzler. A number of applications were received and much care and time spent in selecting the person to fill the place. Miss N. J. Brydols, who lately has been teaching in Goldendale, was finally elected.

The question is being agitated among baseball enthusiasts of having a game on the Fourth that will combine not only the skill of good players, but also a personal interest that will make the contest attractive to everyone. The idea is to get up a married men's club and have it cross bats with the single men. Many of our benedicts are good players and could very probably make it interesting for the youngsters. Let us have the game by all means. It will be one of the most attractive features of the day.

A lot of wool belonging to James Small of John Day was received at the Wasco warehouse today. This consignment came twenty miles from Canyon City and is the first time in 18 years that this shipper has sent his clip to The Dalles. All the other 18 years it has gone to Heppner, but this year attracted by the higher price paid in The Dalles the wool was sent here and Mr. Small is well satisfied with the venture, as he has made a neat turn on the venture. After this the wool from all this country will come to our market.

In Memory of Mrs. Allie Boyer.

The death of Mrs. Boyer some time ago occasioned much sorrow among her many friends in this city, and especially among those with whom she had been associated in the Methodist church. The Good Intent Society, of which Mrs. Boyer was the faithful secretary, adopted the following resolutions expressive of love for their lost friend and sorrow at her taking away:

WHEREAS, In the death of Mrs. Allie Boyer our society and church have sustained a very great and sad loss, and

WHEREAS, Mrs. Boyer had been a resident of our community about eight years. Quiet, unassuming, retiring by nature, her acquaintance must be sought; but when the hidden path to her friendship was discovered it led to a lasting and pleasant companionship; and

WHEREAS, She was lovely in her life, and we sincerely mourn her loss, be it therefore

Resolved, That while we mourn deeply her early removal, we humbly acknowledge "It is the Lord, let him do as he wills."

Resolved, That we extend to the bereaved husband, motherless daughter and absent relatives, our loving sympathy and earnest prayers.

Resolved, That these resolutions appear in our minutes, and be sent to THE CHRONICLE for publication and a copy to Mr. Neil Boyer.

MRS. WM. MICHELL,
MRS. E. E. LYTLE.

Comm.

Hawthorne Guilty of Manslaughter.

The jury in the Hawthorne case returned a verdict of manslaughter, Saturday night. The deliberations lasted only four hours. Hawthorne, though expressing regret at the result, said he was glad that it was no worse. The punishment which can be meted out for this offense is imprisonment in the penitentiary for a term not to exceed 10 years or a fine not over $1000. Hawthorne was defended by Attorneys John F. Caples of Portland, and E. B. Dufur, of this city. Mr. Dufur made the opening speech for the defense. The prospect before Hawthorne is a good deal better than it might be, but still it isn't very exhilarating. After he has served out this sentence he still has the Mays & Crowe robbery to meet. He will be a wiser man when this little experience is over.
