BRIEF MENTION.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

Additional Local on Fourth Page.

A slight east wind is blowing today. The farmers do not like its heated breath.

Deputy Sheriff Frank Hill and Jack Powers returned this morning from Salem, where they had thaken a patient to the insane asylum.

Some wool sellers announce their intention of waiting till the price reaches 15 cents a pound before selling. This is rather high and the prospects do not warrant holding for such a figure.

An effort will be made tonight to get up a baseball nine to give the Hood River club a game on the Fourth. There is plenty of good talent in The Dalles and all we need is to take the proper interest in the matter.

Several wagons of emigrants passed through The Dalles this morning on their way to the southern part of the county to look for homes. There is plenty of room in Wasco's broad acres for a large immigration.

A special car was attached to the local train this afternoon going west. The car contained Superintendent J. P. O'Brien and party. Mr. O'Brien has been on the eastern divisions of the road looking after their conditions.

There will be $3000 more money in circulation in The Dalles today than there was yesterday. This is from the boat company dividend. The wool money is being paid all the time and our merchants are feeling the result of the sales in their increased collections.

Mr. John Michell, editor of the Times-Mountaineer, has been chosen orator of the day on the Fourth of July and Mr. Nicholas J. Sinnott will read the Declaration of Independence. Every effort made by the committee promises to be rewarded with success and The Dalles is to have one of the grandest celebrations in its history.

The citizens who were going to bed last night about 10 o'clock were startled by the clanging of the fire-bell. An alarm had been tried in by telephone saying the feed yard of E. J. Collins & Co. was burning. The fire ladders quickly responded, and the engines and hose carts were just ready to move when word came that the fire was out. It seems a blaze had caught in one of the stalls, but was soon put out.

A marriage ceremony was performed last night in Justice Davis' office, in which the justice officiated, and Miss May Turner of this city and Mr. John C. Fell, a soldier in the regular army, stationed at Fort Canby, were the high contracting parties. The happy couple left this morning for their new home down by the sounding sea.

The boat brought up a good cargo of freight last night. A large portion of it consisted of 100 barrels of lime for Hugh Glenn. The freight business continues very good, and the deck is well filled with merchandise on every up trip. A good amount of feed and groceries is shipped to way points on the down trip every morning.

The little girl of William Floyd, of 3-Mile, was driving the cows home last night, when she was thrown from her horse and severely injured. Dr. Logan was called and alleviated the little girl's suffering. The fracture is probably at the elbow, though owing to the swollen condition of the arm it is hard to tell just how serious the accident is.

Next Sunday the Orchestra Union will give an excursion to Cascade Locks on the steamer Regulator. The Orchestra band will be in attendance and furnish music during the day. The boat will connect with the steamer Dalles City from Portland, which will bring up the Turners from Portland. It would be wise to secure tickets early.

John McNeil, who during the day time refixes the carbons on the electric lights, found a canary bird yesterday in one of his are globes on the hill. The little bird had flown into the globe and in trying to get out had struggled and bruised itself, till one of the wings was injured. The canary had probably escaped from a cage and someone is missing a pet bird.

The Taine class met last evening at the residence of Mrs. Dr. Shackelford. A large number of ladies were in attendance and a pleasant evening spent with studying Macaulay. This is the second evening spent with the distinguished historian. A large number of readings were made from his works and special attention given to that noble production "Horatius at the Bridge." The meetings continue very pleasant and the members of the class keep up an unflagging interest in the work.

Messrs. R. H. Darnielle and F. J. Kellar, two prominent farmers of 8-Mile, have just returned from a trip to the Warm Springs. They left The Dalles June 12th and on June 14th they had the novel experience of witnessing a snowstorm which began on the 13th and continued till the next day, when the snow fell as hard as a winter storm, according to Mr. Darnielle's story. The crops in the country around Warm Springs are not doing very well on account of the excessive cold. The grass is not as high as is usual at this season of the year and irrigation has been of little benefit because of the continued cool weather. The two gentlemen, while on their journey, saw Mr. E. E. Loughlin, who holds the "championship belt," as the best sheep shearer in Crook county. His best record is 197 sheep in one day and on June 14th when Mr. Darnielle and Mr. Kellar saw him, he sheared 150 sheep.

Hon. W. L. Bradshaw will act as president of the day, July Fourth, and the executive committee have invited the following gentlemen to act as vice presidents: Hong E. L. Smith, of Hood River, G. W. Johnston, of Dufur, Chas. VanDyyn, of Tygh Valley, Wilbur Bolton, of Antelope, Dr. H. H. Leavens, of Cascades, Walter Moore, of Moro and John Medier, of Wasco. All these gentlemen are representative citizens of the localities from which they come and the executive committee have shown much wisdom in their selections.

A civil case was begun before Justice Davis this morning, but was settled before it came to trial. Mrs. Obarr was the plaintiff and S. Monnahan, who was the central figure in the smallpox episode, was the defendant. The matter at issue was an account of $44.45, which Mrs. Obarr had against Monnahan, and about which there seemed to be a little trouble in the payment. Before the justice's time had been long occupied, however, the defendant came in and settled the case by paying the amount sued for and the costs.

A plan was laid last night to rob the till of the Columbia hotel. The night clerk and barkeeper are always out at the night train when it comes in and the men who did the planning knew this. There were three men in the scheme and the number proved too many, for one of them got drunk and his conscience hurting him, he told Policeman Connelly about it. This nipped the thing in the bud and the men who were in the scheme were nowhere to be found when the officers went to look for them.

A fight took place last night on Second street, in which several of the boys were badly mixed up. A large crowd soon gathered to see the fray and would have been much amused had not the police stopped the melee. As a result George Sandman swore out warrants against C. Murray and F. Heater, charging them with assault and batteries. The case came up before Justice Davis this morning, but by request of the defendant the case was put off till 7:30 this evening. E. B. Dufur appears for Murray, but Heater had not retained any lawyer.

Oregon Eastern Bear Meeting.
A regular meeting of the Columbia Chapter, No. 33, O. E. S., will be held at Masonic hall on Tuesday evening, June 26th, at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of installing officers.

By order of the worthy matron,
J. J. MARY S. MYERS,
Have you seen the Klubb's piano and organ, on exhibition at the old Chronicle building?

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. S. B. Adams left for Portland by the Regulator this morning.

Mrs. Judge Bradshaw was a passenger down the river by boat this morning.

Mr. Grant Mays left for Portland on the boat this morning to spend a few days.

Mr. C. C. Hayward, of Tygh Valley, was a pleasant caller on THE CHRONICLE today.

Miss Onida Banker was a passenger on the Regulator down the river this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Hilton returned last night from a several days' outing down the river.

Mrs. L. A. King of Anaconda, Mont., is in the city visiting her cousin, Mr. W. H. Hobben.

Dr. Frazier left for Portland on the steamer today to remain a week. He will return by July 2d.

Mrs. Frank Sampson returned last night on the Regulator, after a several days' absence from the city.

Mr. Ray W. Logan, who recently graduated from the Bishop Sedgwick academy, is visiting his father Dr. Hugh Logan, in this city.

Mrs. R. F. Gibbons and Mrs. J. M. Marden left by the Regulator this morning for Cascade Locks, where they will make a short visit to Mrs. Geo. P. Morgan.

Mr. T. H. Johnston of Dufur was upon our streets this morning. He reports that with propitious weather from now on the grain around Dufur will be very good this season.

Mr. A. M. Balfour of Lyle was in the city last night. Mr. Balfour is an Englishman who has bought a large tract of land at Lyle, and is spending much time and labor in beautifying it.

Mr. Henry Harper returned last night from Hood River, where he has been camping several days to benefit his health. He has been suffering severely for some time from rheumatism, but his trip did him much good, and he is now considerably better.

The Latest From the Fruit Market.

The manager of the Oregon Fruit Union in The Dalles kindly furnished THE CHRONICLE with the following latest advices regarding fruit in the Eastern markets. The quotations were those which applied in the markets yesterday:

Prices for fruit in Helena and Butte remain the same, each place receiving a car of California vegetables per week, beside California apricots and plums. Raspberries and strawberries are moving slow. New potatoes are in good demand at $1.50; yellow onions, $1.75; cabbage, $2; cherries 30c@41c, demand light.

The Oregon Fruit Union sold in Denver today currants, $2.50 to $3; Royal Anne cherries, $1.15 and $1.25, market good for limited supply. Sioux City the same, Omaha and Kansas City are receiving some California stock, but the market will not rise good until after July 1st, when home-grown gooseberries, raspberries and blackberries are out of the market.

The present outlook for cherries is very favorable. California has a short crop, and Oregon is left to supply the bulk of the fruit. They must, however, be well packed, and not all sent to the same market.

Excursion to Cascade Locks

The Dalles Orchestra Union will give an excursion to the Locks and return, on
