Additional Local on Fourth Page.
A. M. Williams & Co. have received a large shipment of valises and telescopes. call and inspect them.

The weather forecast for Monday and Tuesday is fair and stationary, for Wednesday, fair and much warmer.

A car belonging to the United States Fish Commission passed through The Dalles this morning, attached to the Northern Pacific.

James Callahan, formerly employed in the Holton's House barbershop, Portland, has taken a position in Julius Fisher's during the absence of Mr. Long.

Don't forget the social at the Good Templar's lodge tonight. An attractive program has been prepared. Every one who comes is sure to have an enjoyable evening.

The Good Templars held a pleasant social at the Knights of Pythias hall Saturday night. An attractive program had been prepared, which was much enjoyed by the large number present.

Saturday night and Sunday morning was an exciting period in The Dalles. Doctors and officers were kept busy running to and fro from one place to another attending to victims from accidents of various sorts.

There is a sugar war going on in The Dalles and prices are being cut way down. The profit to the merchant on a sack of sugar at the present price is about the same as the profit on wheat to the farmer who sold last fall.

Mr. John Ledford, an old settler living near Wauvic, is lying very ill as the result of a paralytic stroke. Mr. Ledford is an old resident of Waco county and for many has been a resident of Wauvic. His neighbors hope that he may survive the attack.

The Northern Pacific trains have made good time while running over the O. R. & N. track, the run to Umatilla being made in three hours and five minutes; and while it isn't the fastest record yet, it is wheeling along at pretty good speed.

The Dalles markets are supplied with a great variety of good eatables. Strawberries are still occasionally seen in the market, while blackberries, all kinds of raspberries, pears, peaches and green corn, besides other varieties, are coming in large quantities.

Among the events of Saturday night was the beating and robbery of a Chinaman presumably by another individual of the same nationality. No arrests were made as the Chinamen themselves wished the matter hushed up. The unfortunate celestial was badly used up.

Mrs. F. Webster Hindsdale sang in her characteristically sweet way a divine melody, full of rapturous trills and ecstatic bursts of vocal splendor. The assembled thousands drank in eagerly the melodious utterances, and liberally applauded the sweet singer.—Sacramento Bee.

The Congregational church held no services last evening. Several of its regular attendants went to the Methodist church and listened to a very able sermon by Rev. J. H. Wood. The text was "Come Unto Me and Be Saved All Ye Ends of the Earth." Mr. Wood is an earnest, impressive speaker and holds the closest attention of his audience.

The flooring mills are running at full blast now and have orders ahead which will keep them busy all the present season. The mill will probably close down for a few days before this year's wheat will be received in order that some repairs may be made to the machinery. The management looks forward to another prosperous season.

City Treasurer Burget received today the money from the sale of Dalles City bonds. The money reached The Dalles Saturday. The total amount was $38,140.83, while the expense of sending the bonds, telegraphing, etc., was $101.68. This leaves a net amount of $38,039.15 for the payment of claims. All city warrants no matter of what date, are now payable at the treasurer's office.

Every move among the business men of this city indicates prosperity. Enlargements in stores are continually going on, and merchants are enlarging their field of operations continually. Funk Bros. have leased from Max Vogt the building formerly occupied by M. T. Nolan, and are using it as annex to their present business. The partition between the stores is being taken down, and both rooms thrown into one. The new store will have a frontage of over fifty feet, and will make an attractive business house. The progress of The Dalles is very satisfactory to all who have a belief in its future.

Sunday morning about 3 o'clock J. Taylor, a man from North Yakima, walked off the board walk on the Mill creek trestle and fell a distance of twenty-five feet. No one was present at the time, and the injured man was compelled to drag himself back to the Columbia, where he was stopping. Dr. Hollister was hastily sent for, and an examination told that a leg was broken just above the ankle. How the man escaped still greater injury is a marvel. The injured man is suffering a great deal of pain, and yesterday his suffering was so intense that he got out of bed and by the aid of crutches went out on the street, against the orders of the physician and attendants. The accident occurred at the same place Jim Ferguson's horse committed suicide several days ago.

Shooting Sunday Morning.

A shooting occurred early Sunday morning which came nearly terminating fatally and which may yet have a serious outcome. A carpenter named McDonald and James Hagan were having a dispute in Lemke's saloon and Hagan charged McDonald with having worked for $1.50 a day. This insinuation McDonald quickly resented and a wordy war ensued between the men which quickly gathered a crowd of witnesses. Hagan and McDonald then patched up their differences.

Later on they met Louis Ostlund and asked him if McDonald had ever worked for him at the price referred to. Mr. Ostlund replied that he had not, but had always received $2.50 or $3 a day. McDonald who had been getting in an ugly mood, suddenly whipped out his revolver and applying a savage oath to Hagan began shooting. One shot struck Hagan in the small of the back and made a grievous wound. Fred Bronson was struck by a stray shot and received a severe wound in the fleshy part of the leg. His injury is not severe and Dr. Sutherland reports him as resting easily. When Hagan was taken home he was thought dangerously wounded and the belief became current that he was dying, but the bullet has been found and unless blood poisoning sets in he will in all probability recover.

McDonald was arrested soon after the shooting and placed in the county jail. His revolver was empty, showing he had shot as long as there were cartridges. The affair caused a great deal of excitement and the vicinity of the affray was crowded with people who heard the shooting. Until the exact extent of Hagan's injuries are ascertained it cannot be known what charge will be made against McDonald.

Death of Mrs. Bessie Wagonblast.

Last night at 11 o'clock Mrs. Bessie R. Wagonblast died at the home of her mother, Mrs. Sarah Doyle, on 8-Mile. Mrs. Wagonblast had been a sufferer from consumption for about six months, but no immediate danger of death was thought by her friends. She had been up and around the house during the day, and when her husband left her at 7 o'clock to go to another farm she seemed fairly well. In five hours death had taken her.

Mrs. Wagonblast lacked about three months of being 21, and had been married three years to Mr. Chas. F. Wagonblast, whose farm is on 8-Mile. She leaves, besides her husband, two little boys. The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock from the Dry Hollow schoolhouse.

Her death is a great blow to her young husband and members of the family. Although consumption had long ago made her as a victim, yet the shock of her death was none the less cruel. In disposition she was very sweet and attractive, and her memory will remain dear to her bereaved friends as long as their lives last. The sympathy of the whole neighborhood goes out to the stricken family in their distress.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. Alex McLeod of Kingsley is in the city.

Mr. S. E. VanVactor of Goldendale is in the city.

Mr. E. M. Shutt, editor of the Antelope Herald, is in the city.

Mr. Fred Fisher and family have gone to Ocean Park to spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Judd Fish and Mr. N. J. Sinnott have returned from their camping trip to Mt. Hood.

Mrs. M. T. Nolan and Miss Lizzie Farmer made the trip to the Cascades and return on the Regulator.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Thompson returned today from attending the Chautauquan assembly at Gladstone Park.

Harry Esping left this morning on the boat for White Salmon from which place he will ride his bicycle to Trout Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Keyster have gone to Walla Walla for a two-weeks visit with Mrs. Keyster's father, Mr. Geo. Starrett.

Mr. M. A. Moore, postmaster at Prineville, accompanied by his wife, passed through The Dalles on their way to Portland.

Miss Sula Ruch and Miss Florence Lewis returned home today. They have been at Gladstone Park with the Chautauquans.

Miss Bertha Still of Portland, who has been visiting relatives at Endersby, returned home today on the Regulator, accompanied by her aunt, Mrs. Wm. Endersby.

Judge Geo. C. Blakeley and wife left yesterday for Portland. They will also visit friends in Brownsville, and then attend the meeting of the Oregon Press Association at Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gomez will remove from this city to Albina where they will reside. Mr. Gomez has been in the fishing business but owing to the poor catch his wheel has been idle most of the time.

Mr. and Mrs. Wes Rice have gone to Arizona to seek renewed health for Mr. Rice. Their address will be Phoenix. Mr. Rice has been very sick for several months and it is believed a change of climate will do him good.

Mr. W. H. Butts left on yesterday's train for Portland to remain several days. While absent he will attend a meeting of the fireman executive committee to make arrangements for the coming tournament at Vancouver.

Mrs. Frank Menefee and children have returned from a protracted visit at the farm of her uncle, Mr. H. E. Stone, near Portland. Mr. Stone, who is county commissioner for Multnomah county, accompanied them to The Dalles.

Mr. Mark Long and family have gone to Trout Lake for a summer outing. They have taken all necessary camping paraphernalia and will stay as long as a good time lasts. Mr. Long took along his clarinet and as there are several musicians from Portland at the lake the campers will have some music.

Departure Delayed.

On account of a number of serious cases on hand, Dr. J. F. Lewenberg, eye specialist at the Umatilla House, has postponed his intended departure. He will be here this week. This gives you an ample opportunity to have your eyes examined and glasses fitted. Quite a number of your best citizens have been already treated and I can refer you to them as to my ability. 1532
