

Hawthorne Sentenced.

John Hawthorne, who has been on trial for his life in the United States court at Portland, was sentenced Saturday to five years in the penitentiary and to pay a fine of $100. He received just one-half of what might have been given, as the law provides ten years as the maximum for penalty. When Judge Bellinger asked Hawthorne if he could say anything in mitigation of his sentence, the young man made the following statement:

While Hawthorne and Rowe were asleep in the tent at Warm Springs, George Thompson, an Indian, entered and, grasping two pistols, jumped out of the tent. The two boys immediately awoke and Hawthorne fired two shots at Carpolis, believing that he was the thief who had come into the tent to rob them. After firing the shots he turned, when Carpolis shot him in the back. Hawthorne fell and then he says Rowe shot at Carpolis.

When Judge Bellinger asked Hawthorne why he had not told this story during the trial, the prisoner made no reply. The judge remarked that the new version of the killing would have no weight with him as it should have been brought out in court so the jury could hear it. The defendant had had a fair and impartial trial and all mitigating circumstances had been considered by the jury and it was owing to some extenuating phases that Hawthorne had not been convicted of murder. Affidavits from several Dalles citizens and from Jailer Chamberlain were read. The jailer testified that since his incarceration Hawthorne had been a model prisoner and Detective Misner said that it was information gathered from Hawthorne that led to the arrest, capture and conviction of Klein and Savage. The Dalles affidavits tended to prove the previous good character of Hawthorne. The affidavits seemed to have an effect on Judge Bellinger and probably the sentence would have been larger had they not been admitted. This marks the last chapter in the story of the Mays & Crowe robbery last summer.

The Concert.

Next Thursday evening, at the opera house, the music-loving citizens of The Dalles will be treated to a first class concert. Mrs. F. Webster Hinsdale of Portland, recently San Francisco's favorite soprano, is sojourning here for health and recreation. She is a singer of European as well as continental renown; is a graduate of the Royal Academy, London, England, and has sung with the great artists of the age throughout the United States, Canada, Mexico and Great Britain, with great success on the operatic stage and concert platform. Her voice is a clear, sweet soprano, sympathetic and of great power and exceptional range, crowned by graceful mannerisms.—Hood River Glacier.

Interesting to Fruit Growers.

Here is something from a leading fruit journal which will prove of interest to fruit growers:

Everyone planting apples should insist that they be on Northern Spy root. Apples on this root are proof against woolly aphid. The Australian and New Zealand people have another kind, the Winter Majetin, which they find equally as good as the Spy. If apple planters will demand it, they can get aphid proof roots.

"We had an epidemic of dysentery in this vicinity last summer," says Samuel S. Pollock, of Briceand, Cal. "I was taken with it and suffered severely until some one called my attention to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I procured a bottle and felt better after the first dose. Before one-half of the bottle had been used I was well. I recommended it to my friends and their experience was the same. We all unite in saying it is the best." Thousands of persons flounder along for months, yes even years, suffering from indigestion, bowel troubles and liver disorders with their accompanying disagreeable symptoms, because they think they have to. If they would take a short course of Dr. J. H. McLean's Liver and Kidney Balm they would soon get rid of the miserable feeling and that overpowering sense of weariness and incapacity for work, would give place to one of health, vigor and cheerfulness. Price $1.00 a bottle.

A tunnel claim was filed today in the county clerk's office by Henry F. Dietzel. The claim is situated 600 yards east of the Newell creek water ditch, east of the Newell and Brooks meadows, and about sixty yards south of the road leading to the meadows, and lies about fifteen miles east of Mt. Hood.

Very bad policy to neglect symptoms of trouble in the kidneys. If allowed to develop they cause much suffering and sorrow. Bright's Disease, Diabetes and Dropsy owe their great prevalence and fatality to neglect of the first warning symptom. Dr. J. H. McLean's Liver and Kidney Balm is a certain cure for any disease or weakness of the kidneys. A trial will convince you of its great potency. Price $1.00 per bottle. CONCERNING PIANOS.

Kimball's Methods a Menace to the Entire Trade.

(Chicago Musical News.)

The following advertisement has been given a prominent position in the daily papers of Washington, D. C., and has been printed in the Chicago Musical News and the American Hebrew News, of Portland. We desire to call the attention of the public to it.

The unfairness of the assertions it contains needs no emphasizing, for they will appear at once to the sense of right inherent in every legitimate dealer in pianos all over the country:

Next Tuesday will be a special bargain day on pianos at our store. We have found some grand bargains in new Upright Pianos (not the celebrated Kimball pianos), and propose to give the public a chance to secure new pianos next Tuesday at manufacturers' wholesale prices.

The prices Tuesday next for these new elegant Upright pianos will be only $149 and $159 each. Part time given if desired. These pianos will be on exhibit at our store all day Monday, but no sales will be made from this lot until Tuesday, and will continue that day only.

W. W. KIMBALL, Co., Metzerott Building, Cor. 12th and F. Sts. The Kimball Company may regard such methods as fair and honorable, but they are open to the severest criticism in attempting to destroy the piano trade in Washington after many years of honorable work to promote it.

The unfairness of the card lies in the assertion that the pianos which are to be sold at sacrificial prices are not made by the Kimball company. Therein is the poison.

This whole scheme is perpetrated to give the Kimball pianos a position to which their merits do not entitle them. Although the Kimball advertisement declares these are not Kimball pianos which are to be slaughtered it does not enhance the value of their own instruments.

Those who are familiar with the Kimball pianos know perfectly well that the makers can afford to sell them at just such ruinous prices as are quoted for other instruments in their possession at Washington.

What is there in the Kimball piano to justify this step? Nothing.

The Kimball company make one of the cheapest pianos in the United States. And after the Kimball piano is made ready for the market it is not then worth a place above a low rank.

When you come to think of it, can you name any genuine, first-class house that is selling the Kimball pianos?

The Kimball managers may consider they have made a brilliant stroke, but they are merely using gigantic power to foist a cheap make on the market.

The question is also one of a broader conception than mere local purview. Such advertisements as these cut at the root of the piano industry for they mislead private buyers.

We shall not let this subject stop here. It is fraught with grave danger to the entire trade, and, although the Kimball company is composed of schroed schemers, they may find they have overstepped the bounds of legitimate business dealing.

RICHMOND, VA., Oct. 2, 1894.

Indiana Bicycle Co., Indianapolis, Ind.

GENTLEMEN—The Waverley Bicycle and Bells came to hand yesterday. We are afraid you have sent us the high-priced wheel by mistake. You can't mean to tell us that this wheel retails for $85? We must say that it is, without exception, the prettiest wheel we have ever seen, and, moreover, we have faith in it, although it weighs only 22 lbs., for of all Waverleys we have sold this year and last (and you know that is a right good number), we have never had a single frame nor fork broken, either from accident or defect, and that is more than we can say of any other wheel, however high grade, so called, that we sell. We congratulate ourselves every day that we are the Waverley agents.

Yours truly, WALTER C. MEYER & CO.
