MOSIER BREEZES.

What Our Correspondent Has to Say About Happenings in Mosier Neighborhood.

Rev. Starbuck, who has been holding meetings at The Dalles, was here last Tuesday prospecting for a campmeeting. J. M. Carroll was at The Dalles last week and bought brick to wall a well.

One of the Reno girls has been quite sick for a while, but is on the mend. Mrs. Smith and daughters from Hood River were here this week visiting friends.

Mr. Parmeter of Oysterville, Wash., is here. He has rented the Mrs. Ireland farm near the station.

A. B. Craft of Rufus, Or., is here visiting friends and relatives.

Will Davis and Wesley Huskey have gone to Sherman county to harvest.

Messrs. Root and Evans have made two trips to The Dalles this week. They are getting the boxes in which to ship their plum crop, which is immense.

The party that went to Portland to spend the Fourth did not come back as expected. Mr. Ed Phillips and the little son of Chas. Phillips were taken very sick. They all came back last Saturday except Mrs. Chas. Phillips and boy.

Mr. Oscar Phillips and wife of Portland accompanied them. Mrs. Phillips will follow as soon as the boy's health will permit. J. M. C. Good Templars' Social Last Night.

The Independent Workers lodge of The Dalles gave a very pleasant social last night at their hall. After the regular ritual exercises were finished, the chief templar requested all to remain and do justice to the social which was to follow.

Promptly at 9:30 the chief templar called the meeting to order, and announced that the first exercise would be the opening ode by the lodge. Mr. Windom then furnished an instrumental selection, which was heartily applauded, and for an encore he sang a German song, to the amusement of all.

Little Effie Adams gave a charming recitation. Lucile Crate recited in a pretty manner the piece entitled "Grandma's Angel." "The Origin and Influence of the Temperance Reformation" was the subject of a select reading by Miss Lena Snell, and was worth the consideration of all.

The early part of the century was when this reform took its rise. The Washingtonian Society, started in 1830, grew rapidly throughout the whole country. John B. Gough was eulogized, and his wonderful work spoken of. A sketch of Father Matthew's work was given, and his efforts to secure 600,000 signers to the cause of temperance.

Miss Snell's reading was highly appreciated. The piano solo by Mrs. Varney closed this part of the program.

Although not a large number was present, the entertainment was declared to be one of the most pleasant of the kind given in The Dalles. After the literary exercises were finished, the guests were requested to repair to the ice cream parlors and given ice cream and cake. The last part of the program was among the best.

Concluded from Third page.
Someone asked, "Were there any birds there? This question brought the statement that Mr. Condon was the owner of eighty specimens of bird bones which were loaned to an Eastern society for scientific investigation, and were never returned. Mr. Condon had used all peaceable means to secure their return, but so far has been unsuccessful. Mr. Condon has daily instruction to a class at 9 a. m.

The immense advantage of this Chautauqua assembly will be far more keenly felt in 1806. Every one says "Next year I will bring a tent and stay the whole time."

This afternoon (Monday) an Indian allowed a lasso to get entangled around his horses fore feet. A hard fall was the result of his carelessness.

OBSERVER.

The Casino Concert.

The popularity of the Sunday evening concerts at the Casino was attested last evening by the very large audience in attendance, and by the appreciation expressed for the music rendered.

Campbell's orchestra wins golden opinions from all sorts of people and Mrs. Hinsdale pleases everybody with her singing of the very best music. Her numbers last night were Bishop's song, "Tell me, my Heart!" and the favorite "La Paloma" of Yradier. These gained imperative encores to which Mrs. Hinsdale responded with Strelleski's "Dreams" and Jordan's "The Song That Reached my Heart."—F. Exchange.

Departure Delayed.

On account of a number of serious cases on hand, Dr. J. F. Lewenberg, eye specialist at the Umattilla House, has postponed his intended departure. He will be here this week. This gives you an ample opportunity to have your eyes examined and glasses fitted. Quite a number of your best citizens have been already treated and I can refer you to them as to my ability. 15221

CONCERNING PIANOS.

Kimball's Methods a Menace to the Entire Trade.

(Chicago Musical News.)

The following advertisement has been given a prominent position in the daily papers of Washington, D. C., and has been printed in the Chicago Musical News and the American Hebrew News, of Portland. We desire to call the attention of the public to it.

The unfairness of the assertions it contains needs no emphasizing, for they will appear at once to the sense of right inherent in every legitimate dealer in pianos all over the country:

Next Tuesday will be a special bargain day on pianos at our store. We have found some grand bargains in new Upright Pianos (not the celebrated Kimball pianos), and propose to give the public a chance to secure new pianos next Tuesday at manufacturers' wholesale prices.

The prices Tuesday next for these new elegant Upright pianos will be only $149 and $159 each. Part time given if desired. These pianos will be on exhibit at our store all day Monday, but no sales will be made from this lot until Tuesday, and will continue that day only.

W. W. KIMBALL, Co., Metzerott Building, Cor. 12th and F. Sts.

The Kimball Company may regard such methods as fair and honorable, but they are open to the severest criticism in attempting to destroy the piano trade in Washington after many years of honorable work to promote it.

The unfairness of the card lies in the assertion that the pianos which are to be sold at sacrificial prices are not made by the Kimball company. Therein is the poison.

This whole scheme is perpetrated to give the Kimball pianos a position to which their merits do not entitle them. Although the Kimball advertisement declares these are not Kimball pianos which are to be slaughtered it does not enhance the value of their own instruments.

Those who are familiar with the Kimball pianos know perfectly well that the makers can afford to sell them at just such ruinous prices as are quoted for other instruments in their possession at Washington.

What is there in the Kimball piano to justify this step? Nothing.

The Kimball company make one of the cheapest pianos in the United States.

And after the Kimball piano is made ready for the market it is not then worth a place above a low rank.

When you come to think of it, can you name any genuine, first-class house that is selling the Kimball pianos?

The Kimball managers may consider they have made a brilliant stroke, but they are merely using gigantic power to foist a cheap make on the market.

The question is also one of a broader conception than mere local purview. Such advertisements as these cut at the root of the piano industry for they mislead private buyers.

We shall not let this subject stop here. It is fraught with grave danger to the entire trade, and, although the Kimball company is composed of schroed schemers, they may find they have far overstepped the bounds of legitimate business dealing.

E. JACOBSEN & Co., I. C. NICKELSEN.

"We had an epidemic of dysentery in this vicinity last summer," says Samuel S. Pollock, of Briceland, Cal. "I was taken with it and suffered severely until some one called my attention to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I procured a bottle and felt better after the first dose. Before one-half of the bottle had been used I was well. I recommended it to my friends and their experience was the same. We all unite in saying it is the best." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton Drugists.

Thousands of persons flounder along for months, yes even years, suffering from indigestion, bowel troubles and liver disorders with their accompanying disagreeable symptoms, because they think they have to. If they would take a short course of Dr. J. H. McLean's Liver and Kidney Balm they would soon get rid of the miserable feeling and that overpowering sense of weariness and incapacity for work, would give place to one of health, vigor and cheerfulness. Price $1.00 a bottle.

Maverley Bicycles.

Are the Highest of all High Grades.

Warranted Superior to any Bicycle built in the World, Regardless of Price.

Read the following opinion of one of the most prominent American dealers who has sold hundreds of these wheels:

RICHMOND, VA., Oct. 2, 1894.

Indiana Bicycle Co., Indianapolis, Ind.: GENTLEMEN—The Waverley Scout and Be's came to hand yesterday. We are afraid you have sent us the high priced wheel by mistake. You can't mean to tell us that this wheel retails for $37? We must say that it is, without exception, the prettiest wheel we have ever seen, and, moreover, we have faith in it, although it weighs only 22 lbs., for of all Waverley wheels we have sold this year and last (and you know that is a right good number), we have never had a single frame nor fork broken, either from accident or defect, and that is more than we can say of any other wheel, however high grade, so-called, that we sell. We congratulate ourselves every day that we are the Waverley agents.
