BRIEF MENTION.
Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

Additional Local on Fourth Page.
Concert tonight at the opera house.
The Dalles City brought up eighteen campers for the lower Cascades today.
A large invoice of wagons from the East was received by Pease & Mays today.
A red memorandum book was lost yesterday. Finder please leave at THE CHRONICLE office.
The social at the Methodist church should be attended tomorrow night. Everyone who goes will be well entertained.
A complaint was filed today in the county clerk's office, by the German Savings and Loan Society against T. J. May et al.
Seats are on sale for the concert, at Blakeley & Houghton's. Admission, 50 cents; children, 25 cents. No extra charge for reserved seats.
The Rev. Father Placidus Fuerst of Mount Angel will hold services in the Catholic church next Sunday, Rev. Father Bronsgeest being absent.
Commitment papers were made out today turning Bert Hawthorne over to the tender mercies of the sheriff for ten days, unless he pays a fine of $20.
The circus crew, consisting of eleven men, are putting up more bills in town today. The bill boards are gaily decorated again after a rest of several years.
The accompaniment to Mrs. Hinsdale's singing and the solos by Miss Minto will be played on a Ludwig piano, furnished by the Jacobsen Book and Music Co.
In the office of the county clerk today a deed was filed from George W. McCoy and Hulda McCoy to J. N. Jennings, conferring all of the sec 25, tp 2 n, r 9 e, W. M., containing 160 acres.
If this delightful weather keeps up, The Dalles can make claims as a summer resort. The days are as cool as the crankiest of people could wish. The wind from the ocean comes laden with moisture.
The season of fires along the railroad has now commenced and in the last day or two several have started. This morning the grass and timber between here and Mosier were on fire in four places.
Tonight the people of The Dalles will have an opportunity of attending a fine musical and literary performance. Celebrated artists will appear, assisted by the Orchestra Union. The press in other places speaks very highly of the ladies who appear this evening.

Wasco county is going to have a new town, as surveyors are laying out a site at 10-Mile, near Mr. Smith's place. A store is expected to be built and the other adjuncts of a town will doubtless follow in time. Just what the reason for the new town is doesn't appear, but may be well known to the projectors.
Jailer Fitzgerald's wards are increasing fast, as there are now seven inmates in the county jail. Lane Mahaffy, who has been bound over to the grand jury to await the charge of attempting to obtain money under false pretenses, was released yesterday. Z. P. Jones has been released on bonds till the grand jury meets.
The first of a series of new Zenda stories by Anthony Hope, author of "The Prisoner of Zenda," will appear in August number of McClure's Magazine. There will be six of these stories, each complete in itself, but all having to do with the charming Princess of Zenda, Osra, and published under the general title of "The Heart of the Princess Osra."
A new Jungle story by Rudyard Kipling, in McClure's Magazine for August, will describe a remarkable stratagem practiced by Mowgli and the wise python Caa against the merciless Red Dogs of the Dekkan, and an all-night fight wherein the Red Dogs were vanquished by Mowgli and the Free People—the wolves. The story will be fully illustrated.
The Regulator was loaded full this morning and her appearance suggested the flood days of last summer, when all the business was done by water. The passenger list was quite large while the lower deck was crowded with 150 bales of wool and a large cargo of miscellaneous freight, including fruit for Portland and flour for way points. The baggage and outfits of the campers added to the amount of freight.
Mr. Hubert Rodgers of Portland is in the city. He represents the great Bradstreet Commercial Agency and will spend a couple of weeks in this vicinity looking up the reliability of our business men. Mr. Rodgers says The Dalles has a splendid standing with the merchants in the larger cities and its credit is unsurpassed by any town in the Northwest. The business men, he finds, prosperous and quick to meet all obligations.
Reports from Sherman county say the yield will be better than anticipated several weeks ago. The spring grain has filled out well and the fall wheat has at all times been good. Harvesting is under way now and for the next month the hum of the threshing machine will be heard in the land. Last year Sherman county raised, it is said, one-sixth of the wheat crop in Oregon and this year the yield will be very satisfactory.
The militia boys drilled last night in the new armory. With such elegant quarters there should be another militia company formed in The Dalles. No one questions the good of such an organization and there is plenty of good material from which to select a good company. Besides the good resultant from military discipline the social feature is also a very pleasant one and with two companies a good natured rivalry would exist which would stimulate both companies to greater effort. The militia should have a large part in the social life of the town next winter.

The wool season is about over, and the receipts from now on will be nominal. There are a few buyers still in town, but the majority have finished their business and gone away. Most of the wool in the warehouses is sold and will be shipped steadily from now on. Trucks loaded with bales pass down Second street at all hours of the day to the steamer dock, and the railroad is hauling a good many cars of wool. The present season has seen an immense amount brought into The Dalles, but next year the record will be still larger. Many localities whose wool has gone to Arlington and Heppner will be attracted to The Dalles because of the higher prices paid here this season.
Concert Program.
Following is the program tonight at the Baldwin opera house:

It Must Be a Mistake.
It is said one of the Phelps brothers, the revivalists, was brutally beaten at The Dalles by a tough who had taken exception to something the preacher had said. He waited for him at the church door, and pounced upon him. The young preacher, it is said, made a gallant struggle, but finally went down. The tug then beat him unmercifully.—Albany Herald.
This item has been going the rounds of the press for some time and should be corrected. There have been no Phelps brothers, revivalists, or any other revivalists in this town beaten by thugs. It may be Dallas again that is meant.
Only Two Days More.
Dr. Lewenberg, the eye specialist, has concluded to leave on Saturday evening, so there remains only Friday and Saturday for you to see him. If your eyes trouble you, if you suffer with headache, if you have glasses that give you trouble you had better consult him without delay. Dr. Lewenberg has fitted a number of our best people here with glasses. All are enthusiastic in praising both his efficiency as well as liberal treatment. Remember you have only two days longer to consult him.

PERSONAL MENTION.
Mr. D. P. Ketchum came up from Portland on the noon train.
Mrs. Elizabeth Wilson has returned from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Mays, in Portland.
Rev. O. D. Taylor is able to be out again after a hard siege with an attack of poison oak.
Dr. Stowell and wife of Goldendale were passengers to The Dalles on the Regulator last night.
Mr. Hugh Glenn returned last night from a brief outing at the coast. His family are still at the beach.
Mr. Robt. Carr of Collins Landing, one of the promoters of the town of Stevenson, was in the city last night.
Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Cushing, with their family, started for Lower Cascades this morning for a camping outing.
Mrs. Frank Sampson and family left this morning for Lower Cascade, where they will spend several weeks camping.
Prof. M. N. Stratton, assistant principal of our public schools, has returned home, after a month's absence from the city.
Mr. D. W. Kyle, formerly connected with the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, paid THE CHRONICLE a pleasant call this afternoon.
Prof. Wm. Birgfeld came up from Cascade last night to be present at the concert which takes place this evening in the opera house.
Miss Minnie Rockfellow of Ashland, who has been visiting Mrs. D. C. Herrin for several weeks, returned home this morning by boat.
Mr. Orion Kinersly returned last night from the seashore, where his family are spending the summer. His face has a healthful tan.
Mrs. S. C. Wilson and Mrs. B. S. Huntington left on the Regulator this morning to spend a few days at Moffit springs, Lower Cascades.
Mrs. M. E. Briggs of The Dalles is registered at the Imperial. She will make a short visit in Portland, also at her old home in Chehalis.
Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Butler left yesterday for Portland, where they will make a short stay and then go to Centralia, where their daughter, Mrs. Dysart, lives.
Mrs. L. J. Norman and daughters, Mollie and Georgie, went to Stevenson this morning on the boat. They will remain about ten days visiting Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Clarke.
Mrs. F. Webster Hinsdale, Miss Lloyd Jessup and Miss Minto came up on the Regulator last night. They have been spending several days in the neighborhood of White Salmon.
Miss Melissa Hill left today on the Regulator for Portland. In company with friends from Eugene she will go to Gearhart Park and attend the summer school in session there.
Mr. A. L. McIntosh of Prineville, who has been spending two weeks in The Dalles, returned home today. Mr. McIntosh made many friends during his stay in The Dalles, who will gladly welcome him whenever he returns.
Mr. Joseph Buchtel of Portland, ex-chief of the Portland fire department, is in The Dalles visiting his daughter, Mrs. W. G. Kerns. Mr. Buchtel is an old pioneer and prominently identified with the early history of Oregon. He can give many interesting reminiscences.
Headache and Neuralgia cured by Dr. MILES' PAIN PILLS. "One cent a dose."
