BRIEF MENTION.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

Additional Local on Fourth Page.

At three o'clock the thermometer stood 97 deg.

The bureau forecast says warm weather for tomorrow. It is a pretty safe guess.

A lot of fruit came from Husbands Landing last night to be shipped east from The Dalles.

A. M. Williams & Co. are selling Court Royal Figue and Princess Duck at low prices.

Three cars of sheep left the stockyards this morning for Portland. They were shipped by Mr. Hollaway.

A large shipment of muskmelons went to the Portland market today from the gardens of Mr. Stademan.

Prosperous firms advertise and the way to build up business is to call peoples' attention to your goods.

Read A. M. Williams & Co.'s ad. on the front page. Their prices will astonish you. Their goods are of the finest quality and every article marked low.

Thirty-five boxes of plums were received in The Dalles this morning from Columbus. They will go East tonight. Such shipments as this show what a trading point this city is.

By their large advertisement Pease & Mays call attention to the way their goods are being sold this week. They wish to make room for their fall invoice. Read their ad. and note the prices.

Herald E. Mosier of Berkeley, Cal., will give his free lecture at the Christian church tomorrow night, July 24th. He is a fine speaker and those who hear him will be well paid for coming out.

Antone Bowers has just purchased Craver & Steele header. There has been a great deal of farming machinery sold this year in The Dalles. A. J. Douglas, a prosperous farmer near Du'ur, has bought a J. I. Case threshing machine.

Yesterday afternoon a man started to see how fast he could ride up Second street and rode into the arms of Marshal Blakeney, who was waiting for him. The city was $5 richer when the officer got through with him. There is some merit in a scheme for the city to rent Second street during the quiet hours of the day for $5 a ride. It would help to pay the interest coupons.

Judd Fish will soon make his debut on the streets astride of the latest improved bicycle. He has been faithfully practicing for several weeks on a private track under the Unastilla House and the facility he shows in learning proves he has a great future before him as a bicyclist. Due notice of his appearance will be given later at which time Henry Fowler will retire from the contest.

The pile driver is working on the railroad bridge leading to the company shops. Large piles are being driven and when the work is done the bridge will be good as new. It is not yet known whether the railroad company intend building the main line through the shops and cease using the long trestle along Mill creek. This plan would have many advantages.

The fruit raisers are busy shipping their products today. The street in front of the fruit warehouse has been crowded with teams all day and Manager Pinkham has had his hands full attending to the receipts. A car for Denver leaves The Dalles tonight, loaded with blackberries, peaches, peach plums and apricots. Fruit raisers are waiting anxiously to hear returns from the car that went Saturday.

The preliminary examination of John Dalrymple is being held today in Justice Davis' court. This evening, if the Dalrymple case is finished, the trial of Lane Mahaffy, who is charged with issuing fictitious checks, will be held. Tomorrow the case of the State vs. Myron Taft, arrested for stealing grain, will occur so it can be seen that the justice court is keeping up with the revival that is talked so much about in other lines of business.

The city marshal received a telegram from Sheriff Houser at Pendleton asking him to try and arrest two boys who would probably pass through The Dalles. The boys had gone through before the telegram reached here, but today Police-man Connelly arrested George Gillenbach, Andrew Anderson and Charlie James, three young boys who have started to see the world. They will be detained until word can be received from Pendleton.

The board of fire delegates held a special meeting last evening in the city hall. The meeting was called to choose judges and clerks for the coming fireman's election and to make all necessary arrangements. The election will be held August 5th and the polling place will be in the engine house. The board chose as judges John W. Lewis, R. B. Sinnott and Matt Shoren while George Gibbons and Fred Van Norden will serve as clerks. No candidates have yet been announced for chief of the department.

During the absence of Captain Waud, who will be away during part of the week, Captain McNulty is in charge of the Regulator. He looks well in his accustomed place and old travelers find it very natural to see him as they come aboard the boat. Captain McNulty carries a handsome gold watch presented by Capt. J. C. Ainsworth and the directors of the O. S. N. Co. for good seamanship shown while in command of the old Idaho. It is a beautiful trophy and the manner and reason for which it was given can well make any man feel proud.

MOSIER BREEZES.

What Our Correspondent Has to Say About Happenings in Mosier Neighborhood.

Everybody seems busy this time of the year. Those who have fruit have plenty to do and those who have none are helping those who have or have gone to the upper country to the harvest field.

James Carroll and wife, and A. B. Craft went to Portland this week to visit friends there.

Mr. Paul Howard of Eugene City is visiting his aunt, Mrs. Mosier. He is on his way to Harney.

Some of the boys are talking baseball now. It is pretty late in the season but it seems there should be amusement of some kind for the young men of this community. Won't some young man take hold of it and get the "ball to rolling."

Mr. Wm. Phillips' wife and child are up from Portland visiting friends and relatives.

Rev. Stark of this place is home again. He has been preaching at Oysterville, Wash., but having to come home he resigned his charge. Everybody is glad to see him back. He preached last Sunday at schoolhouse in district No. 52 just after Sunday school.

Campmeeting on Lamb's place is progressing finely under the leadership of Rev. Starbuck of Portland and Rev. Fero of Seattle. They have been talking on the subject of the "Second Coming of Christ." They have given four discourses, which were good. Rev Starbuck has his wife, son and daughter along who furnish good singing.

Root & Evans made their first shipment of plums last Saturday, which was 212 boxes. There will be a very large crop and shipments will increase.
