

NOT A SICK DAY For Over Thirty Years! RESULT OF USING AYER'S PILLS

"Ayer's Cathartic Pills for over thirty years have kept me in good health, never having had a sick day in all that time. Before I was twenty I suffered almost continually—as a result of constipation—from dyspepsia, headaches, neuralgia, or boils and other eruptive diseases. When I became convinced that nine-tenths of my troubles were caused by constipation, I began the use of Ayer's Pills, with the most satisfactory results, never having a single attack that did not readily yield to this remedy. My wife, who had been an invalid for years, also began to use Ayer's Pills, and her health was quickly restored. With my children I had noticed that nearly all their ailments were preceded by constipation, and I soon had the pleasure of knowing that with children as with parents, Ayer's Pills, if taken in season, avert all danger of sickness."—H. WETSTEIN, Byron, Ill.

McClure's for August.

The first of Anthony Hope's new series of Zenda stories, in McClure's Magazine for August, reciting a heroic love passage between the beautiful Princess Osra and brave Stephen the Smith, is most charming. "The girl was young and the dream was sweet," and the story is in full accord with these attractive conditions. The new Jungle story by Kipling is also notable. Only one or two of the previous Jungle stories approach it in strength and ingenuity. It tells how Mowgli, under the shrewd direction of Kaa, the rock python, lured the Red Dogs of the Dekkan, whom the Jungle feared above all other creatures, to a destruction so complete that not one was left to tell the tale. In the same number are a story by Stanley H. Weyman, wherein good, hearty justice finally overtakes an oppressive tax-gatherer; and a California story by Bret Harte. Miss Tarbell supplies a very interesting account of Bishop John H. Vincent and his work in founding and developing the Chautauqua Assembly, and also of the wonderful growth and usefulness of that institution. Numerous portraits and other pictures accompany the paper. The life of the circus performer, as it shows itself behind the scenes, is the subject of an illustrated article by Cleveland Moffet. Moltke's manner of carrying on war is described by the English war correspondent, Archibald Forbes, from the writer's own observation of Moltke through the Franco-Prussian war, and from conversations which he himself held with Moltke on the subject. In illustration of the article there are historic battle scenes and some interesting portraits. The romantic story of the robbing of the Northampton (Mass.) Bank of upwards of a million dollars in money and securities, and of the long pursuit and ultimate conviction of the robbers, is related from the records of the Pinkerton detective bureau.

A Pioneer's Recommendation.
Mr. J. W. Venable, of Downey, a pioneer of Los Angeles County, Cal., says: "When ever I am troubled with a pain in the stomach or with diarrhoea I use Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I have used it for years, know it to be a reliable remedy, and recommend it to every one." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists.

Our farmers report more smut in fall grain this year than ever before, and what is more, the grasshoppers won't eat it.

Assessor Wakefield has been among us the past week. This is the way he becomes acquainted with the no property man: "Your name, age, one dollar, please. Here is your receipt, thanks."

"Ob" Russell met with quite an accident on Sherar's grade last week. Ask him for the particulars.

The country surrounding The Dalles has never been extolled as very suitable for bicycles and the Creator never intended it for a race track. But wheels seem to go everywhere and mountain steepness seems to offer no hindrance for the wheelist. Yesterday afternoon Douglas Dufur left The Dalles about 1 o'clock and rode to Hartland, on the other side of the Klickitat mountains, and returning reached The Dalles shortly after 6 o'clock. The distance covered was twenty-five miles and Mr. Dufur stopped to transact some business at several places along the way. A great part of the trip he had to walk and push the bicycle up the hill. People who have said wheeling would be impracticable in this mountainous country will have to change their minds.
