BRIEF MENTION.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

Additional Local on Fourth Page.

The weather report says fair and warmer for Wednesday and Thursday.

Two cars of sheep were shipped last night to Troutdale from Saltmarsh's stock yards.

Recent designs in belts buckles and waist sets have just been received at Harry Leibe's.

Mr. J. H. Cradlebaugh has opened a law office in the Chapman building over Johnston's grocery store. He is busy today moving in.

Eastern Oregon wool is quoted in Boston at 13 1/2 cents a pound. This seems a little strange when it brings almost that figure in The Dalles.

The second consignment of tea from the steamer Aslaun passed through The Dalles this morning at 5 o'clock. There were twenty-three loads in the train.

Mr. Pinkham of the Oregon Fruit Union, presented THE CHRONICLE with a basket of luscious peaches this afternoon, which made all the force glad they were alive.

Farley & Frank are busy removing their harness store from the building they have had so long occupied in French's block, to their new store in the east end of town.

On account of a failure of trains to connect, the lecture on Catholicism, by Judge E. K. Taylor, did not take place. The lecture will occur this evening at 8 o'clock, in the First Baptist church.

Mr. J. W. Condon of the Seufert & Condon Telephone Co. has a force of fifteen men at work building the company's telephone line between this city and Dufur, Tygh Valley and Antelope.

Twelve cars of telegraph poles for the new line which the Western Union is building from Portland to The Dalles, were in the freight yard here this morning. They came from Idaho and are much longer and thicker than the ones to be replaced.

A contest was heard yesterday in the land office in the case of John C. Tucker vs. O. H. Davenport. There was no defense made so the matter will probably go by default. The land claimed is 1/2 sec 7, sec 18; nw 1/4, nw 1/4 sec 17, all in township 4s, range 12 e.

A deed was filed in the office of the county clerk today from Alexander and Isabella Joss to James Joss, of Mt. Hood postoffice, conveying the nw 1/4, nw 1/4, sec 14 and lots No 1, 2 and 8, of sec 15, tp 1 n, r 10 e. Also sw 1/4, sec 15, tp 1 n, r 10 e. The consideration mentioned was $1.

The water has fallen sufficiently to allow work being commenced on the Regulator wharf, which was damaged by the river rising. The pile drier has been put in readiness and the dock will be made stronger than ever. Considerable plank was raised by the water and is now afloat. The damage will not be great.

A party of Portland gentlemen, consisting of R. B. Lampson, J. W. Marsh, F. E. Lloyd, Geo. F. Lyman and Geo. F. Grant, reached The Dalles this morning on their return from Mt. Hood. They have been enjoying an outing in the mountains and have the inevitable pack horses and all necessary equipment. They report having had a hard, but thoroughly enjoyable trip.

The number of people at the different seaside resorts is said not to be as great this year as usual. The attractions of the mountains have allured many Portland people who generally are found at the ocean shore. The Mazamas have stimulated an interest in mountains and mountain climbing and many people spent their vacation at Mt. Adams and Mt. Hood. The Dalles has sent its usual delegations to all the seaside resorts and wooded camps.

The Independent workers of the I. O. G. T. held their quarterly election last evening and the following officers were duly elected: E. H. Merrill, C. T.; Mrs. E. L. DeWolf, V. T.; Mrs. L. S. Davis, C.; Miss Emma Fisher, Sec.; A. A. Urquhart, F. S.; Mrs. E. J. Robinson, Treas.; Mrs. Kate Barrell, M.; John Spivey, G. and Madison Stewart, S. There were three initiations last evening and though not many were present it was a pleasant meeting.

The new residences of J. M. Huntington and E. F. Sharp are nearly completed and will soon be ready for occupancy. They are both handsome in design and will go a long way in adding to the good looks of The Dalles. The traces of the great fire are being wiped out and it won't be but a few years till the vacant spots will be covered with new buildings. With some exceptions, like the Vogt block and a few other buildings and residences, which were destroyed, the new structures will be better than the old.

A large excursion from Eastern Oregon is coming to visit the Cascade Locks. The date has not yet been announced. Every county in the eastern part of the state will send a delegation and the arrangements are made for a mammoth affair. The railroad will make reductions in rates and the boat company will probably run an excursion. The people east of us are beginning to realize what a stupendous undertaking the building of the locks really is and have a desire to visit it. This excursion will help the celebration idea and it is none too early to begin talking. The Dalles must show that it can be grateful for benefite received and give a demonstration that future years will remember and coming generations tell.

The car of fruit did not get started East last night as expected, but probably one may go tonight. The plums that are in condition for shipment are nearly all gone and the fruit agent is having difficulty in obtaining enough to make out the car. There will be no further shipments of plums after tonight. The latest advices from the East give a little encouragement for apples. In Denver they are selling at $1.75 for a 50 pound box. In Portland apples bring from 50 to 80 cents per box. There is a good demand for Bartlett pears in the East and they bring from $1.50 to $2.50. For other varieties there is little call. The peach market is entirely overdone and immense shipments could be made from the Mississippi valley if justified by the demand. California has ceased shipping peaches and is drying them. The melon shipments will begin from The Dalles very shortly.

MOSIER BREEZES.

What Our Correspondent Has to Say About Happenings in Mosier Neighborhood.

Plum season is about over. The shipment this year was very good. Mr. Root has shipped over 1000 boxes, and Evans over 400, while there were many other small lots. Mosier will soon be an important fruit district. There are many young orchards not bearing and there are many more going to be set this fall and next spring.

Mr. Baker, who lives on the hill, drove a horse from The Dalles to Lamb's. When he was done drinking, the horse reeled and fell. He immediately telegraphed for the owner of the horse, who came down and brought a veterinary surgeon with him, but the horse died and they pulled the buggy back to town behind the hack, in which the veterinary surgeon and the owner came.

All those who are interested in base ball playing should be at the station at 1 o'clock next Saturday, as the boys are going to try to organize.

G. L. Carroll has closed his school in the lower school house and has moved up on the hill and is teaching there. He has 17 scholars on roll.

Rev. Johns was here last Sunday, but only preached at the upper school house. Some of the people are wishing the appointments would be filled more regularly. The meeting held in the large tent is progressing finely.

Mr. James Carroll and wife came back from Portland last Monday.

Mrs. Phillips and little boy got back from Portland last Friday. The little boy is on the mend.

Reno's still have sickness in their family.
