AN INSURGENT LEADER KILLED

San Francisco is Being Strongly Fortified. Plan to Assassinate the Czar. Will Stop the Fight.

Fortifying San Francisco.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—Reports received at the office of the chief of engineers indicate that satisfactory progress is being made in the fortifications and preparations for the defense of the harbor of San Francisco. Among the works which are expected to be completed during the year is the construction of emplacements for two 12-inch guns on non-disappearing carriages. This work will cost when completed about $72,000. The mortar battery which was begun in 1893 has been completed, and four of the 12-inch on lifts have been made ready for service and put in place. The emplacements for one of the new 10-inch guns on disappearing carriages has also been finished, and it is expected that the second of them will be completed during the year. While naturally adverse to the secrets of fortifications improvements, the engineers about army headquarters express gratification at the progress of the work in the vicinity of San Francisco.

Mysteriously Disappeared.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 31.—James B. Cook, who for many years has occupied a prominent position in the office of the general passenger and ticket office of Southern Pacific, has disappeared, and General Passenger Agent Goodman, and those immediately under him, are very much concerned as to his whereabouts. Cook has not been seen by any of the attaches of the passenger department since last Monday, when he left the general office at the conclusion of his day's labors. Careful inquiry had been made for him ever since, but the only information obtainable is to the effect that Cook was seen at Sacramento last Tuesday and latter in Ogden. Cook handled all the money of the general passenger office. The railroad officials say his accounts are all right, and are at a loss to account for his disappearance.

HIS LIFE IN DANGER.

A Peacemaker Diverts the Anger of Both Factions to Himself.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 31.—Consul-General Li Yung Yew is now accompanied by a bodyguard when he walks the streets of Chinatown. He has excellent reasons for fearing personal violence, as one attempt has already been made to do him bodily harm. The attack on him was the result of the factional warfare being waged in Chinatown, and it is believed by those acquainted with the situation that unless peace is declared very soon the lives of certain prominent Chinese will pay the penalty. Never in the history of Chinatown has there been so much talk of a serious outbreak as at present.

The trouble is between two strong societies. A member of one society was wantonly murdered a few weeks ago and general offices of the consul-general were requested to settle the dispute between the factions. The consul-general's efforts were not satisfactory to either side, each accusing him of having been influenced by the other, and now both factions are awaiting an opportunity to

Will Do Their Duty.

GALVESTON, July 31.—Since the governor's proclamation prohibiting glove contests or prizefights, the chief of Police, sheriff and other executive officers of the city and county have been notified that they would be held amenable if they did not see that such contests or fights were suppressed. The officers say they will do their duty, and this means a discontinuance of fighting in this city and county.

Czar's Assassination Planned at the University of Moscow.

NEW YORK, July 31.—A Herald's dispatch from St. Petersburg says: A conspiracy has been discovered among the priests of the arminary and university of Kieff, aiming at the introduction of a plan of greater freedom of attack on the prevailing system of nepotism in governmental positions. It is also stated that the discovery had been made that the student's union in the university of Moscow are planning to assassinate the czar.

Convict Allen's Claims.

CHICAGO, July 31.—A dispatch from Little Rock, Ark., says: "Superintendent McConnell said last night that Convict Allen stated to him during the evening that he declined to say whether or not his name was Hatch, but one thing was certain, that he was in possession of facts which would give the heirs of the Williams girls $10,000, and he could ascertain the whereabouts of the missing girls.

Chief Badenoch, Inspector Fitzpatrick and Attorney Capps today subjected Pat Quinlan and his wife to a severe examination. After two hours with the prisoners, the officials announced that nothing new had developed.
