A Big Job

It would be a big job to tell one hundred people very day anything that would interest them in your goods.

It's Dead Easy

If done the right way. This paper will tell several thousand at once.

THE ORIENT.

In the days when the world was large, and weeks, even months, passed without word from its distant corners, the stories of massacres, assassinations and outbreaks were old, and seemed as if separated by more than miles of mountains and seas from us.

The philanthropist hardly knows whether to be glad or sorry for the submission of Turkey. The other alternative was the immediate partition of the empire. It is hard to see how the present status does anything more than put off the evil day.

No wonder when one reads, a part even, of the awful stories from that land—none could read them all—that we are ready to cry, "Oh, for a spell of Oliver Cromwell!"

The news received this morning that the jury in the Durrant case had returned a verdict of guilty created a great deal of comment. While nine people out of every ten are convinced that Durrant's hand was the one which caused Blanche Lamont's death, yet it was generally expected that a disagreement would result.

During the first nine months of this year our imports of dutiable goods were $110,468,966 greater than during the corresponding months of 1894.

goods represents their labor cost, then American labor has lost upwards of $55,000,000 in nine months of this year.—Economist.

BUSINESS POINTERS OF LOCAL INTEREST.

Arlington Record: A meeting was called this afternoon to consider the possibility of putting on a line of boats to do a carrying business between Arlington and Celilo.

Pendleton East Oregonian: A man has just arrived in Baker City from a visit to the Greenhorn mining country, and he emphatically predicts a bright future for it.

Hood River Glacier: Capt. H. C. Cook of White Salmon was awarded premiums on his seedling apples, the Yakima and Klickitat, at the Hood River fair, for which he received an order for twenty-five apple boxes.

La Grande Chronicle: Some evil disposed people have circulated the report frequently during the year just past that the O. R. & N. were contemplating moving their machine shops away from this city.
