

OUR SPECIAL SALE. Saturday, November 9th.

Dress Goods Free. Dress Goods Free.

With every Wool DRESS PATTERN sold on that day, we will furnish FREE the necessary

FINDINGS

For making up the Dress. This includes the Linings, Braids, Casing, Silk, Twist, Hooks, Bones, and in fact everything except the trimming.

This special sale should be most attractive to all ladies searching for Dress Goods.

See Our Show Windows.

ALL GOODS MARKED IN PLAIN FIGURES.

PEASE & MAYS.

We respectfully invite all those in need of a cook or heating stove or steel range to call and examine our new line and get our prices.

We are also prepared to do plumbing, tinning, Hot water heating, furnace work, and employ none but first class workmen, practical and experienced in this class of work.

MAIER & BENTON,

Next door to Snipes-Kiners Drug Co.; A. Bettingen's old stand, Second street.

Removal Notice.

Nolan's Book Store now located at No. 54 Second St.

Do You Want a Pointer?

We just want to tell you that we are in the STOVE business ourselves, and you can't save any money by going anywhere else for a stove.

MAYS & CROWE.

The Tygh Valley Creamery BUTTER is Delicious. CREAMERY

Ask Vanbibber & Worsley for it. Every Square is Full Weight.

TELEPHONE NO. 80.

CREAMERY

Tyg Valley

A. B.

The Dalles Daily Chronicle.

Entered as the Postoffice at The Dalles, Oregon as second-class matter.

10 Cents per line for first insertion, and 5 Cents per line for each subsequent insertion.

Special rates for long time notices.

All local notices received later than 3 o'clock will appear the following day.

SATURDAY, - - NOVEMBER 9, 1895

BRIEF MENTION.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

The Regulator left the Cascades at 2:30.

A black silk mitten was picked up on the street today and left at this office.

Four Indians were arrested last night for being drunk and made their appearance before the recorder this morning.

Al Cone, who has been confined in jail several days being bound over to keep the peace, secured bondsmen today and was given his liberty.

The first dance in the series given by the Smith Bros., will take place this evening at the opera house.

The weather program tomorrow is varied. The weather for the day time is predicted fair and warmer with a probability of being succeeded by rain or snow.

The Relief Corps will give their dime social and entertainment this evening in Fraternity hall.

In the list of premiums where it said Ives Boston was awarded the first prize for potato or hop rising bread, a mistake was made.

A flash light photograph was taken by Herrin last night of the display of pianos in the Jacobsen Book & Music Co's store.

The Hood River box factory has received a small dynamo for furnishing electric light, and during these long evenings the factory will be lighted by twelve lamps.

The trees are denuded of foliage and the sidewalks and streets in places are covered with a mass of decaying foliage.

The auction of a 5-year-old mare on Second street this afternoon attracted quite a crowd of spectators.

W. A. Slingerland returned from Portland Monday. While there he sold 100 boxes of apples for shipment to Hong Kong.

sold seventy boxes to the local trade at good prices. He is much encouraged at the outlook for the sale of our apples.—Glacier.

A patent granted to A. J. Douglas was filed for record today. Deeds from Robt. Rand and wife to Mrs. A. R. Smith, Dalles city to Anna Stubling, Martha Davidson to I. B. Humbert, W. J. Wright to I. B. Humbert, R. B. Humbert to A. J. Douglas were also recorded.

Just as the Regulator was ready to pull out this morning Sheriff Driver went aboard and arrested George Hassack, who is wanted in Sherman county for the larceny of a horse.

Miss Essie Tittell, assisted by local talent of Vancouver, gave two performances in that city last week of the "Arabian Nights," the same play that was produced with the assistance of the Home Dramatic Club in The Dalles some time ago.

Revival services began last evening in the Methodist church under the direction of Rev. J. Wood. He is assisted by Miss Laura B. Pippitt, who will occupy the pulpit tomorrow morning and evening.

A complaint was sworn out in the justice court this morning by Gus Smith charging F. W. L. Skibbe and A. Huguine with assault and battery.

The Congregational church, corner Court and Fifth streets—Sunday services as usual. At 11 a. m. and at 7:30 p. m., worship, and a sermon by the pastor, W. C. Curtis.

The whist club held its first meeting last night at Fraternity hall. A large number of the members were present.

No more BOILS, no more PIMPLES. Use Kinersly's Iron Tonic. The Snipes-Kinersly Drug Co. Telephone No. 3.

Call at the Scipes-Kinersly Drug Co.

At St. Mary's Academy.

A large audience gathered in the concert hall of St. Mary's Academy last evening upon the occasion of the musical entertainment given by Herr Aamold, assisted by Miss Beamer.

Miss Beamer gave great satisfaction in her vocal selections, and was compelled to respond to hearty encores.

The entertainment was of a high order throughout, and proved one of the most attractive ever given in the city.

Table listing musical pieces and performers: a Majourka, Nocturne, Chopin, Herr A. Aamold, Millard, Miss Etta Beamer, Grand Fantaisie, Ole Bull, Herr A. Aamold, Ben Hur, A Lyon, Miss Etta Beamer, Yankee Doodle, with variations, Vieuxtemps, Herr A. Aamold, Waiting, Yes, Waiting, Keller, Miss Etta Beamer, Elegy, Lest, Herr A. Aamold, Echo Song, Sir Henry Bishop, Ave Maria, Miss Etta Beamer, Gounod, Herr A. Aamold.

The county court adjourned at noon today till next Monday, when it will convene again to finish up some routine business.

The petition of George A. Liebe and others for a road near the Perry Watkins place, was allowed.

A bounty of $1 was ordered to be paid for each scalp of a coyote, wild cat or cougar which should be brought in.

The petition of W. Bolton and others for a road was granted.

I have had seven inquiries for dwelling houses the last two days, and want one dozen houses on my list.

FRED D. HILL, Room 12, Chapman Bldg.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. A. B. Craft of Rufus is in the city. Mr. C. G. Hieckok, a merchant of the Cascade Locks, was in the city this morning.

Mr. Lyman Lee returned to Portland today, after a visit of several days in The Dalles.

Messrs. George R. and Charles L. Campbell returned yesterday evening from Portland.

Mr. W. E. Campbell, the well known surveyor, returned last evening from a visit in Portland.

Mrs. P. W. DeHuff came home last night from a visit to their daughter, Mrs. Cates, in Cascade Locks.

Mr. J. B. Rankin, who operates the ferry across the Columbia at Hood River, was in the city this morning.

Mr. Joseph Paquet, a well-known contractor and boat builder of Portland, came up to The Dalles last night.

Prosecuting Attorney Jayne, who has been in the city several days, left last night for his home in Arlington.

Mr. Charles Lewis, son of Captain John W. Lewis, of this city, is down from Grant county on a visit to his father.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Schenck and Mrs. Sheldon, returned on the Regulator last evening from a week spent in Portland.

Mrs. Grace Dexter of Vallejo, Calif., who has been visiting several weeks in The Dalles, the home of her childhood, left for Vallejo on the afternoon train.

Mrs. G. C. Bills returned this morning from a month's visit to her parents in Genesee, Idaho, where she was called by the fatal illness of her sister, Mrs. Mollie Atwell.

Messrs. J. W. French and H. S. Wilson and Dr. Hugh Logan returned yesterday from Goldendale where they went on business connected with the new bond issue contemplated by Klickitat county.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Congregational church have a committee appointed to receive contributions from persons that may have any donations to make a suitable Thanksgiving offering and the same will be distributed by the committee to the poor of this city who are in need of help.

Ladies' Underwear, Men's Suits, Boys' Suits, Latest Styles in Overcoats at C. F. STEPHENS.

ONE WEEK ONLY

JACOBSEN BOOK & MUSIC CO'S

162 Second Street, The Dalles, Oregon.

One Pound Fine Note Paper, with 60 Square Envelopes to match, All for 25 Cents.

Don't fail to get a box. See Display in our Show Window. Pianos and Organs sold on easy monthly payments.

Jacobsen Book & Music Co., 162 Second Street.

New Odors

Only a few names as a "persuader."

- Jesamine, May Pink, Little Trianon, Tube Rose, Peach Blossom

Just received, a new and elegant bulk of Handkerchief Extracts and Sachets, principally "Lundborgs," at Donnell's Drug Store.

Deutsche Apotheke. Telephone No. 15.

Patronize Home Industry.

Stephens has received today a large consignment of BLANKETS direct from the factory at Salem. Now is the time to prepare for winter. These blankets are of the finest quality and sold at low figures.

C. F. STEPHENS.