BRIEF MENTION.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

Go and see The Minstrel Show. Saturday evening. The Regulator left the Cascades this afternoon at 1:30.

Mr. James Keily, a well known resident of Kingsley is in the city.

There are now six inmates of the county jail, but the number will be materially reduced within a few days.

Mr. George A. Liebe of The Dalles has been chosen on the United States jury. U. S. Court meets in Portland Nov. 26th.

William Harding has resumed his position as conductor on the division between The Dalles and Umatilla. He has been laying off for nearly a year.

There will be religious services held in the Kingsley schoolhouse, Friday evening, Nov. 22nd, at 7:30. Rev. R. C. Moter, presiding elder of The Dalles district, will preach the sermon. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

The rain has been slow in coming, but it has been all the more welcome. The showers of yesterday and today have soaked the ground for quite a distance and the promise for more rain is good. The farmers will yet have cause to observe Thanksgiving.

The members of the Young People's Society of the Christian church are busy planning for the Merchant's Carnival which will be held on the 22 and 23d of this month. Over fifty firms will be represented in the Carnival. An attractive program will be presented upon both evenings.

The will of William Counts lately a resident of Cascade Locks, was probated in Portland yesterday. The estate is valued at $1500. One hundred dollars is bequeathed to Miss Bessie Jones of Cascade Locks and the remainder to a sister of the deceased, living in Charleston, W. Va.

Work on the Rattlesnake road has commenced and the commissioners, through their chairman, S. B. Adams, have issued a call to all those who have promised labor to report at the head of the grade. The commissioners intend to push the work vigorously and before long the grading will be well under way.

The revival services at the Methodist church are attracting much attention. Meetings conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. H. Wood, assisted by Miss Laura Pippett, are held every evening and the results are proving very satisfactory. Large crowds fill the church every evening and pay close attention to the words of the speakers. The meetings will continue for some time.

Passenger business has been quiet both by boat and rail for the last few days. During the days when the exposition was in full blast the travel was very heavy and most of those who had business in Portland took advantage of the exposition rates and the fine weather. November is generally a quiet month in the transportation business. Freight traffic on the Regulator and Dalles City continues very good.

The athletic club will finish its lessons this week. The members have enjoyed the course under Prof. Christol and have made marked improvement. Regret is expressed that the professor has to leave so soon to meet his engagement in Portland, as there are many who would like to keep on with lessons under his instruction. It is more than likely an athletic class will be formed from the members of the class and outsiders who may wish to join.

Despite the very inclement weather which prevailed at the Locks yesterday, the laboring force kept at work. The men are congregated at the upper and lower ends of the canal at which places most of the work is being done. At the upper end the work is being done in sand, but in the lower bulkhead there is considerable solid rock which must be blasted out. Rainy weather will not interfere with the work this season so much as in former years, since the excavation is nearly done and most of the work that remains is the dredging and the building of walls.

Harry, the Chinaman who is in the county jail, awaiting trial for the murder committed last summer, took a notion he didn't want to eat and for five days tasted no food. The last day or two he came around to coffee and bread, but persistently refused a more strengthening diet. He is showing the effects of his abstinence and confinement and looks pale and wan. Just why he dislikes to eat is not known but some facetious wag has said that the Chinaman was dieting himself so that in case the jury should bring in a verdict of guilty, he would not be heavy enough to make the rope taut and consequently escape strangulation. But that is rather a ghastly joke.

A business man of The Dalles, who lately returned from Tacoma, said the "City of Destiny" shows the result of overbooming in a lamentable degree. Blocks of elegant buildings are standing tenantless and "for rent" and "for sale" signs are too frequently seen. Tacoma grew faster than its resources justified and its present condition is one that could have been foreseen had cooler judgment prevailed. The future is not at all hopeless, however, for when things are reorganized on their proper basis the city will progress at a satisfactory pace. It seems, though, that Tacocomans must be content to acknowledge that Seattle has passed them in the race, and instead of striving to be the metropolis of Washington must work to maintain second place. And even then the city will have a lusty rival in Spokane.

Flag Day Tomorrow.

Tomorrow will occur the presentation of flags to the public schools by the Woman's Relief Corps of Oregon. Mrs. W. S. Myers, the state president of the Relief Corps will make the presentation. The program which is published below is a very interesting one and the exercises will undoubtedly be witnessed by a large audience. The exercises will be held in the Armory at 2 p. m. tomorrow afternoon. It will be a splendid opportunity to see all the children of our city schools together and we would advise those who intend going, to be at the Armory ahead of time in order to get good seats.

Following is the program of the exercises: Song—"Our Flag and Union Forever" Rec—"The American Flag" Solo and Quartet Song—"Patriotic Glee" Four small girls Rec—"History of the Flag" Four Boys Song—"Red, White and Blue" Thirty-five Primary Pupils Rec—"Devotion to the Flag" Six Boys Flag Drill Twenty-four Boys Chorus—"Flag of Our Ancestors" Presentation of Flags. Mrs. W. S. Myers Rec—"State President of W. R. C. Acceptance of Flags, "Salute" By the Schools Chorus—"Home, Sweet Home" Grover Young Costume Dialogue—"Liberty Seeking" Home" Eleven Girls Chorus—"Star Spangled Banner" Rec—"The School House and the Flag" Rec—"Getting Acquainted" Lena Sexton Sash Drill Seven Girls Song—"America" School and Audience

The Home Dramatic Club.

The members of the Home Dramatic Club are busily engaged practicing for the comedy "A Night Off," which will be produced in the near future. The piece is an extremely funny one—in the opinion of some who have heard it more laughable than the "Arabian Nights," which the Dramatic Club recently produced with the aid of Miss Tittell. Two rehearsals have already been held this week and another one will occur Friday night. The Dramatic Club will produce the piece without any outside aid, but it is believed the performance will be one that will please all who witness it. Following is the cast:

Justinian Babbitt R. H. Lonsdale Marcus Brutus Snapp N. J. Sinnott Jack Mulberry J. H. Hampshire Dr. Dansek E. B. Sinnott Lord Mulberry F. W. Wilson Mrs. Xantippe Babbitt Mrs. G. C. Blakeley Miss Nisbe Babbitt Miss Rose Michell Miss Angelen Danask Miss Myrtle Michel Susan Mrs. A. L. Varney

Rev. S. G. Irvine, the pioneer of 1851, who died in Albany, Or., Oct. 31st, was for forty years the pastor of the United Presbyterian church at Albany. He had preached over 4000 sermons to the members of his congregation. Dr. Irvine was a man of more than ordinary ability and ranked as one of the most prominent divines of the state. In 1854, forty-one years ago, he performed the marriage ceremony of Joseph G. Wilson and Elizabeth Millar. Mr. Wilson died in 1873, while a representative in congress from Oregon, while the bride of forty years ago is still a resident of The Dalles. Dr. Irvine succeeded Rev. James P. Millar, the father of Mrs. Wilson, as the pastor of the Albany church. Rev. Mr. Millar was killed by the explosion of the steamer Gazelle at Oregon City in 1854.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. M. M. Glavey is in the city. Mr. John L. Confer came in from Wapinitia today.

W. H. H. Dufur, Esq., of Dufur is in the city attending court as a witness.

Mr. W. R. Winans of Hood River is among the visitors in town attending court.

Mr. A. D. Brush, a business man of San Francisco is in The Dalles on a business trip.

Dr. J. F. Watt, a well-known physician of Hood River, was in the city this morning.

Mr. R. B. May, representing Mason, Ehrman & Co. of Portland, came up on last evening's train.

Rev. J. W. Jenkins went to Hood River on the afternoon local. He will hold services in the valley.

Mr. J. E. Rand, a business man of Hood River, came up on the local this morning, returning on the afternoon.

Mrs. William Michell, who has been visiting in Portland for several weeks, returned home this morning.

Mr. F. N. Jones, who has been in The Dalles for several days left yesterday for his ranch near Sherars Bridge.

Rev. W. H. Shearman of Monmouth, a prominent minister in the Baptist church, arrived in The Dalles on this morning's train.

Mrs. Joseph Merchant, of Walla Walla, who has been visiting Mrs. George Herbert in The Dalles, left for home on last night's passenger.

The Rev. Mr. Gue of Portland, will lecture in this city next Friday evening, in the new armory, at 8 o'clock, under the auspices of the Woman's Relief Corps. Mr. Gue is an eloquent speaker and in deep sympathy with our patriotic work, of which he will speak.

DIED.

On 8-Mile, Wednesday, Nov. 13, 1895, Mrs. Minnie Bradley, aged 38 years, wife of Mr. D. Bradley.

Mrs. Bradley took sick last Sunday. She leaves a husband and three children to mourn her loss. Funeral will take place tomorrow (Friday) at 11 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Muller will preach the sermon.
