

LOSS OF VOICE After Acute Bronchitis CURED BY USING AYER'S Cherry Pectoral A PREACHER'S EXPERIENCE.

"Three months ago, I took a violent cold which resulted in an attack of acute bronchitis. I put myself under medical treatment, and at the end of two months was no better. I found it very difficult to preach, and concluded to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. The first bottle gave me great relief; the second, which I am now taking, has relieved me almost entirely of all unpleasant symptoms, and I feel sure that one or two bottles more will effect a permanent cure. To all ministers suffering from throat troubles, I recommend Ayer's Cherry Pectoral."—E. M. BRAWLEY, D. D., Dist. Secretary, Am. Bapt. Publication Society, Petersburg, Va.

The minstrel performance given by Maharra's Minstrels Saturday night at the Baldwin was attended by a large audience. Every seat in the building was taken and behind the chairs were a crowd of people standing up. The singing was very good while the dancing and clog work delighted the audience exceedingly. The contortionist work was about the finest ever seen in The Dalles. Many of the selections called forth encores. The company left yesterday morning and this evening will begin an engagement at Cordray's theatre in Portland. The performance was very satisfactory to the audience and the box receipts large.

The case of Richard Palmer vs. Aleck Strachan was on trial Saturday before Judge Bradshaw. The action was one brought for damages which the plaintiff claimed had been done him by the defendant's breaking down a fence belonging to the plaintiff. A jury was called and the evidence for the plaintiff put in when the case came to an abrupt termination by the granting of a motion for a non suit made by defendant's attorney. The motion was granted on the grounds that the plaintiff had not proven that the fence was a lawful one according to the requirements of an act of a recent legislature.

Miss Louise E. Francis, a correspondent of the San Francisco Examiner and Few York Tribune, was in the city Saturday, having made the trip from Portland to The Dalles by boat. She spoke on high terms of the scenery along the river and the readers of the Examiner will hear of the Columbia river, the rapids at the Cascades and points of interest on the trip.
