MOTORMAN'S STORY

His Testimony Before the Coroner's Jury.

IN THE CENTRAL VIADUCT HORROR

He Saw no Red Lights Over the Closed Gates—Other Witnesses Did, However.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 20.—At the coroner's inquest in the Central viaduct horror today, Augustine Rogers, the motorman of the ill-fated car which plunged into the river, testified that the conductor ran ahead when the car stopped at the safety switch, and signalled "All right." He stated the glass in the vestibule was blurred by rain and he did not discover the bridge was open until the car was within about 30 feet of the gates. He then turned off the current, set the brake and jumped. He testified that he saw no red light and believed had there been one displayed he would have seen it. He admitted he had been misled by the fact that the electric cutoff, provided by the street railway company as a safeguard, was out of order.

Two other witnesses examined today swore the red light was displayed over the gates when the car struck them.

THE TARIFF.

Many Newly Elected Congressmen Favor Its Immediate Revision.

CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—A special from Washington says:

In spite of the plans of the republican leaders for the avoidance of a tariff fight at this session, many newly elected members are determined to keep up the battle. Representative Tawney, of Minnesota, said:

"The sentiment of the republicans in my state is in favor of a conservative revision of the tariff upon straight-out republican lines. We believe that the revenue for carrying on the government should be raised by a tariff on imports rather than by excessive taxation under the internal revenue system. If we cannot get a conservative revision it might be advisable to pursue the 'popgun bill, plan of accomplishing the purpose in part."

Sailors Stabbed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 20.—Two sailors, Joseph Welsh and J. Wooler, were stabbed this morning on Folsom street by a man named Kelly, who made his escape. The three men entered the Abbey saloon, kept by Mrs. Roberts, on Folsom street, and had drinks there. In a few moments they went out on Folsom street, where Kelly, without warning, commenced stabbing both of his companions. Wooler received half a dozen severe cuts in the vicinity of the heart, and will doubtless die. Welsh was cut under the right arm and breast. His wounds are severe, but not fatal.

Defaulting Bank Teller.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 20.—Daniel H. Brenzler, bank teller of the citizens' Trust & Security Company, is a defaulter. He disappeared last Thursday, and has not been seen since. President Townsend, in reference to Brenzler's embezzlement, said:

"So far as we find out the bonds and other securities stolen will amount to $25,000. We make an audit four times a year, and the last one, made last summer, show everything to be all right. It was about time to make another one, which Brenzler knew, and knowing his crime would soon be discovered, he ran away."

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

Sp.ulation Concerning the Recommendations it Will Make.

CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—A special from Washington says:

A cabinet officer says that in all probability the president's message will not contain a direct recommendation for increased revenue, but it will urge the issue of the Allison exchequer notes to provide for current expenses, and, possibly, to be used as the means of retiring the greenbacks.
