The members of the Good Templars lodge, No. 7, will give a lunch social at Fraternity hall Monday evening, Nov. 25th. A good program has been prepared. Ladies will bring lunch for two.

The display at the carnival tonight promises to be even better than that of last night. In addition to the program as published, there will be a vocal duet by Myrtle and Retta Stone. The fancy drill will be extended.

Isaac Matney reports that fifteen men are at work on the new road leading up Mill creek to Matney postoffice. About thirty rods are finished and it is expected to get the greater part of the grade done before winter sets in.

The management of the Howe-Readick Company wish it announced that no matter whether or not the electric lights will be burning tonight, the opera house will be lighted. Large lamps have been procured so the matter of light should not prevent any one from attending this evening.

A Degree of Honor social will be given at Fraternity hall, Thanksgiving eve. An attractive program will be presented followed by refreshments and dancing. All persons, except Workmen, are requested to present written invitations at the door. All Workmen cordially invited.

The members of the East End Hose Company are wearing the new badges which recently arrived from the East. The badges are of very tasty design with the words "East End Hose Co" and the initials "D. F. D" upon them.

The case of the State versus Lee Morehouse, charged with burglary, is on trial today in the circuit court. Morehouse was indicted jointly with Myron Taft, but separate trials were demanded. There was not a large attendance at the play last evening owing to the conflicting attractions elsewhere. The act was of the same high order as on the previous evenings. Tonight there promises to be a large attendance as the seats are selling rapidly. The "American Girl" is a very popular piece, and there is no question but that the Howe-Readick Comdany will put it on properly. This will be the last opportunity to see this popular company. The chance should not be missed.

The Trades Carnival Last Night.

The attendance at the Trades Carnival last evening was very large and the audience seemed much pleased with the entertainment offered. The program began with a piano solo by Mrs. Eshelman which was very well rendered. Following this selection came the grand march representing the business men of the city. The parade was very well executed, the marching and counter-marching down the hall of the gaily dressed boys and girls making a pretty sight.

The program closed with a fancy drill by the characters representing the business houses. The drill was under the supervision of Captain Levi Chrisman and was exceedingly well done. The young ladies and gentlemen went through the evolutions in good time and spirit and caused much commendation from the audience.
