Sultan's Spasm of Reform Did Not Last.

MORE OUTRAGES WILL OCCUR

Belief That Nothing Short of Drastic Measures Will Bring the Porte to Terms—Gunboat Order Not Issued.

LONDON, Nov. 23.—The sudden fit of energy which convulsed the sultan of Turkey into doing something towards suppressing anarchy in Asia Minor, the result of the Marquis of Salisbury's Mansion House speech, seems to have spent its force and Abdul Hamid is said to have relapsed into his usual lethargic state. Reports of fresh massacres have reached here from many points of the disturbed empire and in brief, the Eastern question does not appear to be as near solution as it was during the early part of the week. There has been little change in the nature of the problem before the powers however. Their mutual suspicions are acting as drags upon them and delay decided action upon their part, though the belief is still prevalent that nothing short of drastic measures will bring the sultan to terms for any length of time. This step, however, will not be adopted until all hope of the moral enforcement of reforms which Abdul Hamid solemnly promised to adopt have vanished.

A GHASTLY FIND.

A grim story is published today from Constantinople, according to which a diver, while recently engaged in assisting in the work of driving piles for a new pier at the Golden Horn, on reaching the sea bottom was surprised to find himself surrounded by the bodies of a number of men apparently standing upright around him. Upon investigation the diver discovered they were corpses of students who were recently arrested by the Turkish police and afterward taken out in boats and drowned in the Bosphorus for taking part in the recent disturbances at Stamboul. All the bodies had leaden weights attached to their feet, which kept them upright. The diver said there were from fifty to sixty bodies in that spot alone.

ARMING FOR RESCUE.

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—The Armenians of this city and vicinity, according to one of their number, are hopeless and desperate, and are actively promoting a movement which is said to be spreading over the country to enlist men to go to Turkey to prevent the extermination of their relatives and friends.

A VALUABLE MINE IS AT STAKE
 Ownership of the Easter, in Southern Idaho, to be Decided.

BOISE, Nov. 23.—An important decision was rendered by Judge Richards at Idaho City today in the case of the Magpie mine vs. the Easter mine in Willow creek district. Plaintiffs occupied the entire week in introducing testimony, but were non-suited by the decision today. The Easter is the mine owned by D. B. Levan, which brought Willow creek into prominence. It is very rich and was producing heavily when this litigation was begun. The property then was placed in the hands of a receiver. The matter of receivership is to be heard in chambers here early next week, but it is believed the property will be turned over to Levan.

PALMER TO HAVE A CHICAGO HOUSE

Great Northern Theatre, Now Building Will Play His Attractions.

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—The new Great Northern theatre, erecting on Jackson street, east of Dearborn, has been leased by A. E. Palmer of New York. It will be opened September 1, 1896, and is to be a combination house. Palmer will look after it personally. It is announced that the Great Northern is to be made the theater of Chicago, and Palmer will give in it the first productions of his best attractions. The seating capacity is 1600. The building will cost half a million. The part devoted to the theater will cost about $225,000.

More Cause For Uneasiness.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 23.—The sultan has not yet authorized the passage of Dardanelles by the extra guard ship; asked for by the representatives here of Great Britain, Italy, Austria and Russia. This is causing more and more uneasiness here. Unless Abdul Hamid submits there is likely to be trouble, as the powers insist that the extra gunboats are absolutely necessary for the protection of the foreign population here.

Cold Weather on the Coast.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 23.—A rapid fall in temperature during the past 26 hours is reported from almost every point on the Pacific coast. In many places in Oregon, Washington and Idaho the thermometer was below freezing point last night and today. At Fresno, the center of the grape culture in California, the temperature fell today to 24 degrees, the lowest point recorded in nine years. The fall of temperature had been so gradual, however, that no vines or orange trees were frozen. With colder weather predicted for tonight, the owners of citrus orchards are greatly alarmed.

Great Storm Raging in the West.

OMAHA, Nov. 23.—A storm has been raging through the west for the past 24 hours that has seriously interfered with railroad business. The storm was most severe on the 500 miles between Cheyenne and Ogden. The wind blew at a rate of 60 miles an hour, with a blinding snow storm in progress and the mercury at zero. On the Wyoming division of the Burlington there was much snow. The Black Hills were covered, and eight inches are reported at Billings. In Wyoming and South Dakota it was more severe than in many years.

Blakeley & Houghton, the druggists, will tell you that no one is better qualified to judge of the merits of an article than the dealer, because he bases his opinion on the experience of all who use it. For this reason they wish us to publish the remarks of other dealers about an article which they handle Messrs. C. F. Moore & Co., Newberg, Ore., say: "We sell more of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy than all others put together, and it always gives good satisfaction." Mr. J. F. Allen, Fox, Or., says: "I believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be the best I have handled." Mr. W. H. Hitchcock, Columbus, Wash., says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy sells well and is highly praised by all who use it."

Squire a Candidate for Re-election.

SEATTLE, Nov. 21.—In an interview with the Post-Intelligencer, Senator Squire this evening spoke freely of his intention to be a candidate for re-election, saying in reply to a question that he could see no reason why he should not be returned. He leaves tomorrow for Washington.

Appeal in the Great Northern Case.

ST. PAUL, Nov. 23.—The attorneys of the Great Northern today served notice of appeal from the order restraining consolidation of the Great Northern railroad and Northern Pacific by Judge Kelly some time ago.

Say, why don't you try De Witt's Little Early Risers? These little pills cure headache, indigestion and constipation. They're small, but do the work.

The Pope's Condition.
