PORTE WILL REFUSE

Gunboats May Not Enter the Bosphorus.

REASONS FOR THIS ACTION

Under Present Conditions the Effect Might Be Disastrous--Besides, They Are Not Required.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 24, via Sofia, Nov. 25.—The main question now being discussed between the porte and representatives of the powers is the demand of Great Britain, Italy, Russia and Austria for firmness for passage through the Dardanelles of an extra gunboat to be attached to their respective embassies. While admitting that the powers possess the right to have two guard ships each in the Bosphorus, the porte considers that the proposed increase of the number of foreign war vessels there under present conditions, might excite the Mussulmans and produce an effect far from the one desired by the powers. In addition the porte points out that in view of the measures taken to preserve order there, an increase in the number of guard ships attached to the embassies is not required. It can be said upon good authority that this is the substance of the note the porte has sent the representatives of the powers.

As soon as the notes shall have been received and considered at the British, Russia, Italian and Austrian embassies a conference of the representatives of those powers will be called and a joint reply may be sent the porte. Turkish representatives at London, St. Petersburg, Rome and Vienna will be instructed to earnestly request the four powers not to insist on their demand.

In political circles the repugnance of the porte to grant the firmness applied for contributes to the belief said to exist among the Turkish ministers that to grant the firmness would be a sad blow to the dignity of the sultan and a direct proof of the lack of confidence upon the part of the powers in his ability to govern and maintain order. Behind this, it is claimed, the Turks fear the demanded increase in the number of foreign guard ships in the Bosphorus is really only a cloak for the intention of the powers to make a naval demonstration in Turkish waters in case of renewed disturbances in Asiatic Turkey.

There is no doubt that efforts are being made to maintain order in districts where disturbances are threatened, and to suppress disorders where outbreaks have occurred. All danger is now passed, however. The governor of Hadjin, who threatened to burn the convent here, and set fire to the barley fields, has, owing to the strong representations made the porte on the subject by Mr. Terrell, been re-called, and his conduct will be inquired into.

In reply to the appeal directed by Baron von Calis, the Austrian ambassador, to the Armenian patriarch to exert his influence to prevent another outbreak, which it was feared was the purpose of the demonstration the Armenian central revolutionary committee is alleged to have planned for this city, the patriarch says no such demonstration is contemplated, "although," he says, "despair reigns among them, owing to the incessant arrests and exiling of the Armenians." The patriarch says 400 armed Armenians of this vicinity have recently been exiled to Anatolia.

Hairinik, the local newspaper, suppressed last week, because its editor refused to publish an article sent him by the Turkish authorities, condemning the "intrigues of the Armenians," has been granted permission to resume publication.

The absence of news from Zeitoun, where the Armenians are collecting in strong force, and the failure of the government to furnish any information regarding the concentration of Turkish troops at Marash for an advance on Zeitoun, are causing some uneasiness, besides which no news is obtainable concerning the rising of the Druses against Turkish rule.

One of the most serious features of the whole situation, the financial situation, continues to hamper the government in its efforts to restore order in Asiatic Turkey, and there does not seem to be any relief.

LLOYD MONTGOMERY.

Breaks Down and Admits the Triple Killing.

ALBANY, Or., Nov. 25.—Lloyd Montgomery, the murderer of his father, mother and Daniel Mc Kercher, near Brownsville Tuesday last, has been unable to endure the weight of the terrible crimes upon his mind, and this evening made a full confession, admitting that he killed all three of them. The prisoner had appeared in a very distressed state of mind during the day. Late this evening, when visited in his cell, he answered several questions, but said his attorneys advised him to say nothing about the murder. However, after some further questioning, he began weeping and said:

"Oh, if I only had to do it over again! I don't know what made me do it!"

"What were Mc Kercher and your father talking about as they stood by the picket fence in front of the house, after Edward Gilkey, the 'hobnayer,' drove away, and what was Mc Kercher's business there?" was asked.

"Mc Kercher asked father how he was fixed for money; that he would like to get a few dollars father owed him. They were talking about that, and were speaking in a friendly manner. Mc Kercher asked for a drink of water, and I got it for him."

"How did the shooting begin; what was the cause of it?"

"We were quarreling, father and I. Father commenced getting after me for going away from home and neglecting my work. He had always abused me. Mc Kercher sided in with father while we were quarreling. Father asked me where I had been. I told him I had been hunting. Then he slapped me in the face and told me to go and cut some wood. This made me so angry that I did not know what I was a doing. I went into the house and got father's rifle. It was in the bedroom. I came out and stood in the kitchen door. Father and Mc Kercher were still standing by the fence talking, and mother was standing near by in the yard."

AMERICAN MISSIONARIES.

A Number Have Safely Arrived St. Albans From Central Turkey.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 22.—(Copyrighted, 1895, by Associated Press).—United States Minister Terrell has received a dispatch from Aintaba announcing the safe arrival there of the American Missionaries, belonging to the Central Turkey Mission. They are: Dr. and Mrs. Americus Fuller, Rev. Charles S. Sanders, Mrs. A. M. Trowbridge, Miss Ellen Rye and Miss Elizabeth M. Trowbridge, and an English governess, Miss McDonald. The missionaries said full protection was afforded them by the Turkish authorities when demanded from the porte by Terrell. The latter is now satisfied that the 172 missionaries in Anatolia are safe. The situation here is still grave and more complicated.
