The Fifty-fourth Congress Met Yesterday.

THOMAS B. REED ELECTED SPEAKER

Republican Caucus Nominees for House Officers Elected--No Action Taken by Republican Senators Towards Reorganization.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—All Washington hies to the big capitol building on opening days, and today there was an added interest on account of the changes involved and the large influx of new blood. It was an orderly crowd which came through the rain in private conveyances, in street cars and on foot. By 10:30 o'clock, an hour and a half before the time of meeting, the public galleries of both houses were filled and the eager crowd had overflowed into the outer corridors.

The senate was called to order promptly at noon. The vice-president administered the oath to the senators elect, and the usual formal resolutions were adopted.

At 1:30 it was announced that the president's message would not be submitted today, and the senate adjourned.

The republican senators caucused half an hour, but adjourned until Wednesday without taking action on reorganization.

IN THE HOUSE.

The 54th house of representatives was called to order at noon by Clerk Kerr. The roll was called and the clerk announced 341 of the 350 members present and that no credentials had been received from tenth New York and first Nevada districts.

Kerr then called for nominations for speaker. No nominating speeches were made, but Grosvenor of Ohio, named Reed, Sayres of Texas, Crisp, and Kern of Nebraska, Bell of Colorado.

The result of the vote for speaker was: Reed, 234; Crisp, 95: Bell, 6; Cuberson, (dem.) 1. Total 236. The announcement of Reed's election was greeted with great applause, which was continued when he ascended the rostrum, and his speech was also punctuated with applause. It was as follows:

"It will not be unbecoming in me, I hope, if I acknowledge to this assembly that it is very agreeable to me to stand once more in the place I left four years ago. Of the past, however, I shall not speak, for the past speaks for itself in terms more fitting and appropriate than any words which could come from my lips. Nor shall I speak of the future, for we are not putting off the harness, but putting it on. Yet, I think I can venture to say of the future, in the light of the past, that if we do something which for the moment seems inadequate, it may be that time, which has justified it for us on many occasions, may do so again. Those who have acted with wisdom heretofore may be fairly expected to act with wisdom hereafter. I am sorry to say the pleasure associated with the honor you have bestowed on me, an honor no American citizen can fail to appreciate and for which I give thanks, lasts for but a moment or so, while the cares and responsibilities extend over many days.

"So far as the performance of my duties affects the whole people of the United States I invoke their considerate judgment. So far as it affects the members of this house, I ask from both chambers that cordial co-operation, without which I can cannot hope to succeed, assuring them that no effort on my part will be spared to aid them in the performance of their duties by that entire impartially which is their just due.,'

The republican caucus nominees for house officers were promptly elected.

By unanimous consent Newlands, of Nevada, and Cummings of New York, whose credentials had not arrived, were sworn in with the other members.

The drawing of seats being concluded the house adjourned till tomorrow.

Fell Forty Feet Without Injury.

INDEPENDENCE, Dec. 2.—A thrilling but not fatal accident occured last Saturday eight miles south of this place. William Caster was returning, at 5 o'clock in the morning, from a dance at Suver, driving a horse attached to a dog-cart. In crossing the Helmich bridge, which is covered, making it very dark, a place where two boards are missing from the side of the bridge was evidently mistaken for the end of the bridge, and horse, cart, and driver went through and fell 40 feet into the water below. The water, seven feet deep, broke the force of the fall, and neither horse nor driver was hurt.

READY FOR TALK.

Telephone Line Between La Grande and Union Completed.

LA GRANDE, Dec. 2.—The Grande Ronde Telephone Company has completed its line between this city and Union. Saturday night the instruments were put in at La Grande and Union, and Sunday satisfactory tests were made. The line will be open for business in a few days. The line between this city and Island City was completed today. The extension from Island City to Elgin will be completed Friday, and, when it is in operation, will form a circuit from Union through La Grande, Island City, Summerville, Elgin, Enterprise and Joseph, the two last named places being in Wallowa county.

UNION, Dec. 2.—The telephone line between Union and La Grande was completed, and placed in working order today.

There is nothing that causes women greater discomfort and misery than the constantly recurring Headache. Men suffer less with Headache. "My wife's health was very indifferent having Headache continually, and just two packages of Simmons Liver Regulator released her from all Headache and gave tone and vigor to her whole system. I have never regretted it's use."—M. B. DeCord, Mt. Vernon, Ky.
