Mr. E. B. McFarland came up from Portland yesterday. Mr. McFarland was formerly one of The Dalles' best known residents but for several years has lived in Portland. He expresses himself as gratified at the progress The Dalles has made during his absence.

An Increased Attendance.

Gratifying reports come of the progress our city schools are making. Last year the attendance greatly exceeded the enrollment of the previous one; but this year shows an increased number over 1894. During the month of November the public school enrollment and attendance are generally the largest of the school year. In November, 1894, all previous records of attendance were broken; but the month just ended shows the number of pupils enrolled to be the largest in the history of the schools. From figures furnished us by the principal we make the following table:

Enrolled from opening in September	95, '94
Enrolled during November	628 647
Average number belonging in Nov.	602 630
Average daily attendance	628 688
	606 663

The Dalles has reason to be proud of its public schools. Under the present management the schools have attained high rank and gained an enviable reputation abroad, as well as at home. They are the means of attracting many residents to this city, who come in order that their children may obtain educational advantages. The raising of the grades was a good thing, both for the school and the city. We trust our city schools may keep up the high standard which at present is maintained.

BRIEF MENTION.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

Tonight

At the Baldwin

"Kentucky Thoroughbreds."

The weather forecast for tomorrow is fair and cooler.

Mays & Crowe have just received a car load of oak wood, which they will sell at $4.25 per cord. dec21f.

A deed was filed today from James J. Baldwin to Andy Baldwin for a 160 acres in sec 8, tp 2 n, r 12 e.

The collectors have been the busiest people in town today. The weather has been very disagreeable for such pursuits.

Four carloads of hogs were shipped from The Dalles to Troutdale this morning. It is expected this week will be a busy one in stock shipments.

Parties in from Tygh Ridge report that a foot of snow fell there last night. If a little warm weather would come and cause it to melt, the ground would be well moistened.

The lecture of Dr. Kantner, which was to have taken place at the Congregational church tonight, has been postponed for a time. Due notice will be given of its occurrence.

Chrisman Bros. have re-purchased the meat market at the corner of Court and Third street, and will continue the business at the old stand, where they hope to renew old acquaintances and make new ones by fair dealing. d2-3f.

Rev. A. Bronsgeest, of the Catholic church, will hold services next Sunday at Cascade Locks. On either Friday or Saturday, just which day has not been decided, he will dedicate the bell for the new church at the Locks. The church itself was dedicated last summer.

A meeting of the Hook and Ladder Company is called for tomorrow evening in the recorder's office. All members are requested to be present. The business of the meeting will be transacted as speedily as possible so that the members may have an opportunity of attending the athletic and social club meeting, which takes place in the council chambers.

The president of the Social Athletic Club has called a meeting for tomorrow night the council chambers. All those who have signed as members and others who are interested in the formation of the club are requested to be present. Steps will be taken towards permanent organization.

Either The Dalles is growing rapidly in population or its citizens are more prone in going out in public. Last evening the Methodist church was filled with listeners to hear Prof. Riddell, while a large crowd packed the Baldwin at the performance of the Chase Stock Company. Besides these several lodges held regular meetings and probably they had their full share of attendants.

A crowded house greeted the Chase Stock Company at the Baldwin last night. The play was "Uncle's Darling," produced for the first time in The Dalles. The company is composed of actors and actresses of merit and the audience was generous in applause. Some very good singing was interspersed in the play. The company carries their own scenery and that representing an Arctic scene, showing a ship fast in the ice, was very realistic.

The following witnesses were examined today in the case of the State vs. Lee Ching. E S Burch, Dr Sutherland, Dr Doane, W H Lochhead, Dan Maloney, R V Gibbons, Chris Bills, F G Connolly, J H Blakeney, Chow and C C Cummings, the interpreter. Although Ching is a hard looking citizen, there are a good many people who think he may be innocent of the charge against him. His story that he was present but did not know that a murder was to be committed is a reasonable one.

The first slide of the season occurred last night about 11 o'clock at the new grade near the high bridge, about seven miles west of town. The rain and snow of yesterday had loosened the soil, which had been already torn up by the blasting of last summer, so that a portion of the hill came down upon the track, covering it for a distance of forty feet. A gang of men was immediately set to work, and in a couple of hours the track was cleared. The passenger train from Portland, which usually reaches here at a little after midnight, did not arrive till 2 o'clock.

A jury was secured last evening in the murder trial of Lee Ching, who is charged with participation in the murder of Lock Wo last August. After the regular panel had been exhausted, thirty-four men were summoned on special venire. Of these thirty-one were examined. The jury obtained is as follows: W. D. Jones, Sam Edmunson, R. H. Guthrie, George W. Rowland, Peter Godfrey, A. D. McDonald, Frank Gabel, Frank Kincaid, F. M. Thompson, W. R. Heyres, W. H. O'Dell and F. J. Kellar. The opening statements were made this morning, and good headway has been made with the examination of witnesses. Mr. A. F. Sears assists the prosecuting attorney and Huntington & Wilson represent the defendant.

A Farewell Party.

Last evening as Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Wyndham were busy packing preparatory to their leaving for California, a knock was heard at the door and when it was opened in came about thirty of their friends and neighbors, who had gathered for a farewell party. Although Mr. and Mrs. Wyndham were considerably surprised they recovered and did the honors of host and hostess in a hospitable manner. After spending a delightful evening with amusements and conversation, during which a bounteous lunch was served, the guests departed wishing the recipients of the honor a safe journey and a pleasant life in balmy California.

Mr. and Mrs. Wyndham have lived in The Dalles for many years. Mr. Wyndham being here at different times since 1865. His wife was raised from girlhood in Wasco county. They go to California in the hopes of benefiting Mr. Wyndham's health which has not been of the best. The best wishes of a large circle of friends go with them and should they decide to return to The Dalles a hearty welcome will be given them. Mr. Wyndham will engage in business in San Diego.

A Wasco County Case.

In the case of John Barger, appellant vs. O. D. Taylor, respondent, which was appealed from Wasco county, the supreme court rendered a decision yesterday overruling the motion of the respondent to dismiss the appeal. The Statesman contains the following statement of the case:

This is a suit to foreclose a mortgage. The defense is usury. The court below found the contract usurious and rendered a decree in favor of the school fund. From this the plaintiff appealed but did not serve the state with notice thereof. The defendant moves to dismiss the appeal on the ground that the state is an adverse party and ought to have notice. The supreme court holds that the state is not a party in the legal sense of the term and consequently it is not necessary that service of notice be made on it.
