THE DAY IN CONGRESS

President's Message Receives Much Attention.

BUT LITTLE BUSINESS DONE

Joint Resolution Forcibly Approving the Principles of the Monroe Doctrine Introduced in the Senate--Nominations.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—The senate galleries were again well filled today, but there was not the struggle for places incident to the opening.

After the formal proceedings, Senators Vilas and Allison, the committee appointed to wait on the president, stepped into the middle aisle and Vilas said: "The president desires us to convey his respectful salutations to the houses of congress and to say he will immediately communicate his views in writing to congress."

Then Pruden, the executive clerk, made a formal transfer of the message to the senate.

There was a thinning out of the attendance on the floor after the first half hour of reading, as the senators had printed copies.

At 1:40 the reading of the message was completed, and on motion of Senator Gorman it was laid on the table and ordered printed.

Senator Cullom presented a communication from Evanston, Ill., asking that the government take action concerning the deplorable condition of affairs in Turkey.

Senator Gallinger offered a similar communication from the citizens of New Hampshire.

The resolution of the Idaho legislature urging the election of United States senators by a popular vote was presented by Senator Dubois.

Senator Lodge introduced the following resolutions relative to the Monroe doctrine:

"Resolved, That the congress of the United States deems it proper to assert, as a principle in which the rights and interests of the United States are involved, that the American continents, by the free and independent condition which they have assumed and mainained, are henceforth not to be considered as subjects for future colonization by any European powers.

"Resolved, that we would consider any attempts on their part to extend their system to any portion of this hemisphere as dangerous to our peace and safety. With the existing colonies or dependencies of any European power we have not interfered and shall not interfere, but with the governments who have declared their independence and maintained it, and whose independence we have, on great consideration and on just principles, acknowledged, we could not view any interposition for the purpose of oppressing them or controlling in any manner their destiny by any European power in any other light than as a manifestation of an unfriendly disposition towards the United States.

"Resolved, that in accordance with the doctrine laid down by President Monroe, as stated in the preceding rules, the United States declares its purpose to maintain the principle embodied in that doctrine and will regard any infringement of it, or any attempt on the part of any European power to take or acquire new territory on the American continent, whether under the pretense of boundary disputes, or otherwise, as an act of hostility to the United States.

"Resolved, that the president be requested to communicate these resolutions to the governments of all nations with whom we have relations of amity and commerce."

Senator Call introduced a resolution directing that the insurgents in Cuba be accorded belligerent rights.

The senate, in executive session, confirmed the nomination of Richard Olney as secretary of state and Judeon Harmon as attorney-general, and at 3 o'clock adjourned until tomorrow, shutting off debate for several senators primed with speeches on Cuba and Venezuela.

Senator Stewart introduced the usual free-coinage bill.

IN THE HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—When the house met at noon today Rev. H. F. Coudon, the new chaplain, a blind Universalist preacher, from Port Huron, Mich., delivered the invocation.

Mr. Payne, republican, of New York, chairman of the committee appointed to wait upon the president, reported that Mr. Cleveland sent his respectful salutations to congress and would communicate in writing. Immediately thereafter, Mr. Pruden, the president's executive clerk, appeared with the message, while the clerk read. The members listened, some intently, but all respectfully, to the words of the chief executive. During the entire reading of the message there was not a single manifestation of approval or disapproval, but at the conclusion of the reading, which occupied an hour and a half, there was a slight scattering of applause. Five thousand copies of the message was ordered printed.

At 1:50 the house adjourned until Friday.

Representative Livingston, of Georgia, has prepared a resolution providing for a joint committee to investigate the facts in the Nicaragua case and to recommend proper action to vindicate and preserve the dignity and rights of the United States in the premises.

Charges Against Scranton's Finest.

SCRANTON, Pa., Dec. 3.—The police force, with the exception of two patrolmen on vacation, were summoned before the mayor today and notified that Rev. Dr. Chase Robinson, in the Second Presbyterian church pulpit, on Thanksgiving day, had charged that Scranton policemen led young men to houses of ill-fame.

Blakeley & Houghton, the druggists, will tell you that no one is better qualified to judge of the merits of an article than the dealer, because he bases his opinion on the experience of all who use it. For this reason they wish us to publish the remarks of other dealers about an article which they handle Messrs. C. F. Moore & Co., Newberg, Ore., say: "We sell more of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy than all others put together, and it always gives good satisfaction." Mr. J. F. Allen, Fox, Or., says: "I believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be the best I have handled." Mr. W. H. Hitchcock, Columbus, Wash., says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy sells well and is highly praised by all who use it."

There is nothing that causes women greater discomfort and misery than the constantly recurring Headache. Men suffer less with Headache. "My wife's health was very indifferent having Headache continually, and just two packages of Simmons Liver Regulator released her from all Headache and gave tone and vigor to her whole system. I have never regretted its use."—M. B. DeCord, Mt. Vernon, Ky.

When persons are weak and languid, from sickness or overwork, feel debilitated and depressed, it is an indication that the blood is out of order, and they need help to throw off the miserable feeling? The best remedy for this purpose is Dr. J. H. McLean's Strengthening Cordial and Blood Purifier. It restores lost strength, gives vigor to circulation, promotes good appetite and a flow of cheerful spirits. Snipes-Kinersly Drug Co.
