enthusiasm necessary to make a play well received. As seven acts were required to complete the performance, the audience was treated to some extra playing by the Orchestra Union, which proved the delight that it always does. The Chase Stock Company are making a good impression on theatre goers and the crowded house last night shows that the company wears well.

The Hay-Burning Case

The case of the State vs. Thomas Lewis, charged with setting fire to the haystacks of Phillip Brogan, occupied the attention of the circuit court today. The case is of the greatest importance as there have been several of these deeds perpetrated, and this is one of the first attempts at conviction. The evidence against Lewis is circumstantial, consisting of evidence to the effect that tracks supposed to be Lewis' were found to lead to the stack and away from it. Mr. Brogan has employed A. F. Sears, Jr., to assist the prosecuting attorney while Huntington and Wilson are employed for the defense. The time yesterday and a portion of this morning were spent in examining witnesses. A large portion of Antelope's population has appeared as witnesses. For the prosecution Phillip Brogan, John Brogan, Sam Glover, Thomas Brogan, J C Brogan, C J Murphy, W Silvertooth, Ed Fenell, C B Durbin, Frank Fenell, N C Baird, G W Phelps, Jack Henry and T J Driver testified. A F M Kircheiner, F N Kincaid and the defendant, Thomas Lewis, gave testimony for the defense. The closing argument for the state was being made as we went to press. The jury is composed of the following gentlemen: Alex. Anderson, Henry Prigge, Van Woodruff, John End, Geo W Rice, H Mahear, Jasper Enslly, T A Van Norden, J M Murchie, H F Dietzel, John W Carey, D Creighton.

Mays & Crowe have just received a scow load of oak wood, which they will sell at $4.25 per cord delivered. dec21f.

baby growth

The baby's mission is growth. To that little bundle of love, half trick, half dream, every added ounce of flesh means added happiness and comfort! Fat is the signal of perfect health, comfort, good nature, baby beauty.

Scott's Emulsion, with hypophosphites, is the easiest fat-food baby can have, in the easiest form. It supplies just what he cannot get in his ordinary food, and helps him over the weak places to perfect growth.

BRIEF MENTION.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

Tonight At the Baldwin "American Born." The new club has made a good start, keep it moving.

A droye of hogs from Klickitat county passed up Second street today.

Jos. T. Peters & Co. are selling good oak wood at $4.50 per cord, delivered.

A party of tourists arrived from the East this morning and stopped off to view the beauties of The Dalles.

John C. Hertz has just received a fine line of neckties. The very latest. Look at his show window and you will see the fashionable styles.

German Lutheran service will be held in their chapel on Ninth street next Sunday at 2 o'clock p. m. All are cordially invited to attend.

Stubling & Williams announce that they have opened a wholesale and retail liquor house in the building formerly occupied by J. O. Mack.

The meeting of the Epworth League society, which was to have been held this evening at the Methodist church, has been postponed till next week.

A conservative estimate has placed the cost of the present term of court in Wasco county at $10,000. The taxpayers will have a merry time settling the bills.

Things are quiet at the East End today. The stock receipts have been small and the most life was noticed in Saltmarsh & Co.'s office, where a crowd of good story tellers were seated around the stove spinning yarns.

The streets are getting in bad cond't on owing to the mud. Mr. French has had that portion of Second street in front of his bank swept and it would be well if all property owners on Second street would follow this example.

The hills surrounding The Dalles are covered with snow, while on Tygh Ridge and other high altitudes, too much snow is upon the ground to enable the farmers to do any plowing. A few days of warm weather would be acceptable just now.

The city authorities are on the look out for the men who are introducing the counterfeit money into town. Yesterday afternoon a couple of men were suspected of "shoving the queer" and placed under arrest, but a lack of evidence made it impossible to hold them.

Tomorrow and Sunday will be special days to the Catholics of Cascade Locks. Rev. A. Bronsgeest went down on the local train this afternoon to hold services there. Upon one of these days he will dedicate the bell for the new Catholic church, which was built last summer.

A meeting of the new Social and Athletic Club—the name of which we hope to see changed to "Commercial Club" is called for tomorrow night at the council chambers. A full attendance of those who have signed the lists is requested, as matters of importance will be brought up for consideration.

The grain shipments by boat are beginning to slacken, the Regulator not taking the large load this morning which she has been accustomed to carry. The amount shipped by boat this fall was very large and the aggregate will be many thousand sacks. Till more wheat is received from the farmers the shipments will be light.

At the Degree of Honor Lodge last Wednesday night, the following officers were elected: P. C. of H., Mrs. Margaret Herrin; C. of H., Mrs. Ollie Stephens; L. of H., Mrs. Anna Blakeney; C. of C., Mabel Sterling; Financier, Cora Joles; L. W., Amber Joles; Receiver, Elizabeth Schooling; I. W., Emma Jacobsen; O. W., Chas. Snipes.

Tomorrow afternoon the Chase Stock Company will give the old-time favorite play, "Uncle Tom's Cabin." The admission for children will be 10 cents, thus giving an opportunity for every child to witness this sterling drama. A bag of candy will be given to every child attending. Tonight the company will appear in "American Born."

Already the Athletic and Social club has out-grown its original proportions and is putting on the form and appearance of a Commercial club. This is exactly what The Dalles needs—an organization of business men where matters of importance to the welfare of the city can be intelligently discussed and which will combine the features that will add to the pleasure and comfort of its members.

Committee Meeting Last Night.

The gentlemen who were elected by the Social and Athletic Club as a board of trustees met last night in the office of W. H. Wilson and discussed matters pertaining to a permanent organization. There were present Messrs. J. S. Schenck, E. C. Pease, H. J. Maier, W. H. Wilson, R. B. Sinnott, H. A. Bill and J. S. Fish. As the trustees were empowered to choose the officers from among their number, an election was held, which resulted as follows: President, John S. Schenck; vice-president, E. C. Pease; secretary, R. B. Sinnott; treasurer, W. H. Wilson.

The trustees went carefully over all the probable items of expense which would be met with, and considered propositions from several property owners relative to a building for the club. The Michaelbach building, at the corner of Second and Union streets, and the Grant building, at the corner of Washington and Front streets, were the two most considered. They can both be obtained on suitable terms. It was stated last night that Mr. Max Vogt might erect a building suitable for the needs of the club. The committee thought that with little trouble one hundred members could be obtained at an initiation fee of $10 each. This would secure a fund of $1000, which would do a great deal in giving the organization a good start. Each member of the committee was given a list of men to see, and report at a meeting to be held tomorrow evening.

The gentlemen who were present last evening were of the opinion that with proper co-operation the club can be made to go without any trouble. The session was lengthy, lasting from 8 o'clock till 11.

At the Baldwin Last Night.

The popularity of the Chase Stock Company was evinced by the large audience which greeted it last evening to witness the performance of "Two Orphans." The play is a strong, emotional drama showing life in the Great French capital near the close of the 18th century. The piece is a serious one, enlivened now and then by touches of humor. The scenery and stage settings last evening were especially worthy of mention as they were in perfect keeping with the circumstances and spirit of the production. The scenery for the act, in which were shown the prison and some of the great buildings of Paris in the distance, was some of the most realistic ever placed on a Dalles stage. The characters last night were well sustained—each participant acting with the
