THE DAY IN CONGRESS

Chief Interest in the Senate Morgan's Speech.

ON THE BERING SEA AWARD

Is Causing Much Speculation Among Representatives—Livingstone's Proposed Resolution—Peckham for Justice.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—Chief interest in the senate proceedings today centered in the speech of Senator Morgan, of Alabama, chairman of the committee on foreign affairs, on the Behring sea award.

Senator Caffery, re-elected at the expiration of a short term for a full term of six years, was sworn in.

The first bill of the session to be passed was one granting the state of Pennsylvania permission to occupy the United States' court rooms at Scranton and Williamsport during certain months.

Cullon gave notice that he would address the senate tomorrow on the Monroe doctrine.

Among the bills introduced was one by Voorhees, of Indiana, granting a pension of $200 per month to the widow of the late Secretary of State Gresham.

In the House.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—A bill by Hopkins of Illinois was passed to amend the statute fixing the customs district of Chicago so that the district would embrace all of the states of Illinois and Indiana. Hopkins explained that the bill was in the interest of the smelters of Aurora, who desired to be able to pay duties on Canadian ores at the port of Chicago.

The oath of office was then administered to Prince of Louisiana.

The memorial adopted by the National Woolgrowers' Association last Saturday, calling for higher duties, was presented by Danforth, but Crisp objected to its reception. Crisp also objected to the resolution by Cannon, calling on Secretary Hoke Smith for his authority for the order suspending all operations of the land office by which settlers on the Pacific railroad grant lands in Utah and Nebraska could perfect their titles.

At 1:10 the house adjourned until tomorrow.

SALISBURY'S REPLY.

Representative Livingstone Anxious to Learn its Contents.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—The Venezuelan question divided with the committee appointments, the interest of the house today. Talk was created by a statement that Livingstone of Georgia, thinking that congress should not be kept waiting until Cleveland's return to be informed of the contents of Lord Salisbury's reply would introduce a resolution calling upon Olney for the correspondence. As this would be rather an unusual mode of procedure, several influential members, both republicans and democrats, suggested to Livingstone that such a resolution might be construed as an act of discourtesy to the president. If Livingstone finds this opinion general he will abandon his intentions.

MANITOBA SCHOOLS.

Premier Greenway Says There Will be no Compromise.

WINNIPEG, Dec. 9.—Speculation has been rife lately regarding the probable action of the Manitoba government in respect to the federal order-in-council inviting Premier Greenway and his colleagues to remove the alleged grievances of the Roman Catholic ministry in this province in relation to education. This order-in-council was received in July last, and up to this moment no answer has been given, and the ministers have maintained a profound silence. This has given rise to rumors that a compromise settlement was contemplated, and the friends of the Ottawa government were beginning to congratulate themselves on an easy escape for their party from the self-imposed pledge of remedial legislation which has been promised as the act of the parliament which assembles next month. But Premier Greenway made a statement this morning which will take the wind out of their sails. This is the first official statement made by any member of the government since the last session of the legislature. The premier says:

"The government has had under consideration the whole subject at various times since the receipt of the order-in-council of the Dominion government July 3 last, with the result that it has become rather clear to us that no concession by the legislature, as a solution of the difficulty, or as removing the alleged grievances, unless such concession admits the principle and re-established state-aided separate schools. The re-establishment of separate schools by the government will be no compromise."

Peckham Will Be Confirmed.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—The senate judiciary committee has reported the nomination of Rufus W. Peckham, of New York, as associate justice of the supreme court favorably, which insures his confirmation. The judiciary committee has also agreed to report favorably the nomination of Judges Springer, Kilgore and Stuart.

Does Not Wish Re-election.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 9.—Senator Don Cameron today announced formally that he would not be a candidate under any circumstances for re-election.

NOTICE.

To All Whom It May Concern:

By order of the Common Council of Dalles City, made on the 31 day of December 1895, and entered of record in the records of Dalles City on the 4th day of December, 1895, notice is hereby given that the crosswalks on the following streets have been declared dangerous by said council, on said 31 day of December, and the said Common Council, will proceed to make the improvements as hereinafter stated, on said streets or parts of streets so declared dangerous, after fourteen days from the first publication of this notice, to-wit, December 10, 1895; and the cost of such improvements of all crosswalks, and of each of them, will be charged and levied upon the corner lots cornering upon the street or streets intersected by such crosswalks, and upon all lots or parts thereof, to the center of each block coming upon such intersection, each lot to pay that portion of the entire cost that its street frontage upon the intersecting streets bears to street frontage of all lots to be assessed upon such streets, as by charter provided. The crosswalks declared dangerous and about to be repaired and built are as follows, to-wit:

1. To build a cross walk on the west side of Laughlin street, across Second street.
2. To build a cross walk on the west side of Jefferson street, across Second street.
3. To build a cross walk on east side of Jefferson street, across Second street.
4. To build a cross walk on the west side of Madison street, across Second street.
5. To build a cross walk on the east side of Madison street, across Second street.
6. To build a cross walk on the west side of Monroe street, across Second street.
7. To build a cross walk on the north side of Second street, across Washington street.
8. To build a cross walk on the south side of Second street, across Federal street.
9. To build a cross walk on the north side of Third street, across Union street.

All of said crosswalks will be built and constructed in accordance with the provisions of the charter and ordinances of Dalles City.

Dated this 10th day of December, 1895.
G. W. PHELPS,
deci10-14t Recorder of Dalles City.

Miss St. John. Mrs. Manns.

Mrs. W. B. Meek, who resides at Camptonville, Cal., says her daughter was for several years troubled at times with severe cramps in the stomach, and would be in such agony that it was necessary to call in a physician. Having read about Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy she concluded to try it. She found that it always gave prompt relief. It was seldom necessary to give the second dose. "It has not only saved us lots of worry and time," she says, "but also doctor bills. It is my opinion that every family should have a bottle of this remedy in the house." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists.

There is nothing that causes women greater discomfort and misery than the constantly recurring Headache. Men suffer less with Headache. "My wife's health was very indifferent having Headache continually, and just two packages of Simmons Liver Regulator released her from all Headache and gave tone and vigor to her whole system. I have never regretted its use."—M. B. DeCord, Mt. Vernon, Ky.

Blakeley & Houghton, the druggists, will tell you that no one is better qualified to judge of the merits of an article than the dealer, because he bases his opinion on the experience of all who use it. For this reason they wish us to publish the remarks of other dealers about an article which they handle Messrs. C. F. Moore & Co., Newberg, Ore., say: "We sell more of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy than all others put together, and it always gives good satisfaction." Mr. J. F. Allen, Fox, Or., says: "I believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be the best I have handled." Mr. W. H. Hitchcock, Columbus, Wash., says: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy sells well and is highly praised by all who use it."
