ALLEN THURMAN DEAD

The "Old Roman" Expired at Columbus Today.

HIS DEATH WAS UNEXPECTED

A Fall Sustained Some Weeks Ago—He Never Recovered From the Shock to His Nervous System.

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 12.—Allen G. Thurman died at 1:15 today. The death of Thurman was a painful shock to the general public here. The last reports from him before today were to the effect that he was doing finely. The Thurman residence is about a mile from the center of town. Absolutely no other information came with the announcement of his death save that it occurred at 1:15 p. m.

The immediate cause of death was a fall he sustained some weeks ago, from the effects of which it was thought he had partially, at least, recovered. He was 82 years old on the 13th of last November, and had it not been for the accident a month ago he might have lived a number of years. He has not been able to leave home for over a year, but he could walk about the house without assistance, could read, and retained much of the power of his once vigorous mind. The shock of the accident, more than the actual physical injuries, seemed to impair his hold upon life.

DAMAGE TO THE GERMANIC.

It is More Extensive Than at First Thought.

LIVERPOOL, Dec. 12.—Officials of the White Star line say it is impossible to fully ascertain the damage done the Germanic by her collision with the Scotch steamer Cambria yesterday, which resulted in the sinking of the latter vessel, until she has been placed in the drydock. In addition to the large hole, 9 feet by 7, which was stove in the bow of the Germanic above the water mark, a second hole has been discovered right through the bow of the steamship two feet in diameter. The Germanic's stern is also damaged.

White Star officials decided to dispatch the Adriatic, of their line, to New York tonight with the steerage passengers of the Germanic and the saloon passengers who may be desirous of taking passage in her.

The Cambria is lying in a dangerous position in the track of vessels. Her fore-castle is visible at low tide.

To the Rescue of Durrant.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 12.—Durrant will not go to San Quentin just yet. Once more the supreme court has come to the rescue of the murderer, and Judge Murphy has been advised by Chief Justice Beatty not to persevere in his refusal to grant a stay of execution. The warrant for Durrant's execution has, consequently, not been given to the sheriff. Today Chief Justice Beatty, Judge Murphy, District Attorney Barnes and Attorneys Dickinson and Deuprey, for the prisoner held a consultation, and as a result Durrant was granted a 20 days' stay of execution. Within the time specified Dickinson undertook to prepare a bill of exceptions in order to perfect his appeal to the supreme court.

Outwitted by Cubans.

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—A dispatch from Kingston, Jamaica, says:

Some Cubans departed in rowboats and boarded a strange steamer. They said they were going fishing when they got into the boats; and, as they were unarmed, the parties watching them were powerless. The steamer, it is believed, carries from Venezuela an expedition.

Spanish Cabinet Will Resign.

MADRID, Dec. 12.—It is announced that the cabinet has decided to resign tomorrow, owing to the recent popular demonstration against the ministers of finance, of justice and of public works, who supported the municipal authorities.

The Swiss President.

BERNE, Switzerland, Dec. 12.—M. Adrien Lachenel, who was vice-president for 1895, has been elected president for 1896. He is radical in politics and his home is in Geneva. M. Ducher Thurgan has been elected vice-president.

Geo. W. Jenkins, editor of the Santa Maria "Times," Cal., in speaking of the various ailments of children said: "When my children have croup there is only one patent medicine I ever use, and that is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It possesses some medical properties that relieve the little sufferers immediately. It is, in my opinion, the best cough medicine in the market." If this remedy is freely given as soon as the croup cough appears it will prevent the attack. It is also an ideal remedy for whooping cough. There is no danger in giving it to children, as it contains nothing injurious. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggist.

There are many good reasons why you should use One Minute Cough Cure. There are no reasons why you should
