PANIC AT STAMBOUL

General Massacre Feared for a Time Yesterday.

TROUBLE, HOWEVER, NOT SERIOUS

All Christians in the City Closed Their Shops and Houses and Prepared to Defend Themselves.

CONSTANTINOPLE, via Sofia, Dec. 13.—There was a disturbance in Stamboul today, and it caused the spread of rumors so alarming that Galata and Pera were soon in a state of panic, and serious outbreaks were threatened. This in view of the passage through the Dardanelles of the British gunboat Dryad and the Italian gunboat Archimede, as extra guardships for the British and Italian embassies, formed the basis for a report that the rioting predicted by the Yildiz Kiosk courtiers had actually commenced, but happily the trouble was not serious, although the Armenians, as usual, are accused of having attempted to bring about an uprising. The panic, however, was a striking evidence of the nervousness and apprehension which prevail here as the result of the long-drawn-out negotiations between the powers and the sultan regarding the suppression of the outbreaks in Asiatic Turkey and the admittance of extra guardships into the Bosphorus.

Simmered down to bare facts, the cause of the panic was a fierce quarrel between two Armenians in the Stamboul quarters. Finally one drew a revolver and fired at his opponent. The shot was the signal for an uproar, the stampede of spectators, and eventually, a panic which spread from one end of the city to the other, until matters began to look very serious indeed.

The Armenians and other Christians, terrified by the shouting and yelling, imagined a fresh massacre had commenced. They hurriedly closed their shops and houses, barricaded their doors and windows, concealed their most valuable belongings, and made all preparations possible for their defense. The women as well as the men armed themselves as best they could, after the recent visits of the police, who searched their residences for concealed weapons, and left the unfortunate people very little to fall back upon for defense in case of an uprising of Mussulmans.

CIVIL SERVICE REFORM LEAGUE.

The Officers Elected at Its Meeting Today—Some Recommendations.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—The National Civil Service Reform League today elected the following officers: Hon. Carl Schurz, president; vice-presidents, Chas. Francis Adams, Boston; August K. McDonough, New York; Henry C. Potter, New York; J. Hill Pleasant, Baltimore; Henry Hitchcock, St. Louis; Henry C. Lea, Philadelphia; Franklin MacVeagh, Chicago; Rt. Rev. C. Ryan, Buffalo; William Potts, Farmington.

The report of the official committee on extension entered into detail regarding the recommendations contained in the recent order of President Cleveland extending the civil service rules. The committee recommended that applicants for positions in the diplomatic service be given a fair, open examination under the civil service commission, thereby relieving the appointing power of the temptation to have men it desires pass the examination unfairly. The report was adopted.

The report of the committee on legislation recommended the preparation of bills looking to a betterment of the civil service. It was agreed to.

The committee on District of Columbia recommended that the government of the district be placed under civil rules; adopted.

Geo. W. Jenkins, editor of the Santa Maria "Times," Cal., in speaking of the various ailments of children said: "When my children have croup there is only one patent medicine I ever use, and that is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It possesses some medical properties that relieve the little sufferers immediately. It is, in my opinion, the best cough medicine in the market." If this remedy is freely given as soon as the croup cough appears it will prevent the attack. It is also an ideal remedy for whooping cough. There is no danger in giving it to children, as it contains nothing injurious. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggist.

The House Committees.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Speaker Reed did not appear at the capitol today. It was announced that he remained at his hotel to work on the committees. The impression grows stronger daily that Dingley of Maine will be chairman of the ways and means committee, instead of Payne of New York, who, 10 days ago, was supposed to be booked for the leadership of the majority on the floor.

For the chairmanship of the appropriations committee the contest lies between General Henderson, of Iowa, the present ranking member, and Cannon of Illinois, who would have been the ranking member had he not failed of election to the 52d congress.

The rivers and harbors chairmanship is supposed to lie between Hermann of Oregon and Hoeker of New York. The chairmanship of the following committees seem almost certain: Foreign affairs, Hitt of Illinois; judiciary, Stone of Pennsylvania; Pacific railways, Powers of Vermont; banking and currency, Walker of Mississippi; interstate commerce, Hepburn of Iowa; elections, Daniels of New York; naval affairs, Boutelle of Maine.
