THE DAY IN CONGRESS

Keen Interest Taken in the President's Message.

IT WAS HEARTILY APPLAUDED

Vied in Showing Their Approval of the Sentiments Contained Therein

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—The president's message reached the senate at about 12:30. Senator Morgan, chairman of the committee on foreign relations, examined the message and then moved to go into executive session, and at 12:40 the doors were closed.

At 1 o'clock the senate resumed legislative session and the message of the president was laid before the senate.

The senators showed the keenest interest in the reading of the message. There was hardly a vacant seat on the republican side, and but few absentees on the democratic side. As the reading closed there was a hearty hand-clapping from all quarters of the chamber, Chandler leading the demonstration on the republican side. Veterans of the senate say it was the most spontaneous demonstration in their recollection.

The message and accompanying documents were referred to the committee on foreign relations, and at 1:15 p. m. the senate adjourned.

In the House.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.—The house devoted itself today to discussing the proposition to have two elections committees instead of one, the Venezuelan message meanwhile lying unopened.

This caused Crisp to exclaim: "There is an important message from the president, relating to Venezuela, laying on that table and yet this republican congress enters upon partisan action delaying the consideration of the president's message?"

Bulwick was quickly on his feet with the inquiry: "Is it this house or the president's ducking excursion that has delayed the message of the Venezuelan question?"

There was a round of laughter and applause from the republican side.

"There is the message," proceeded Crisp. "It lies unheeded, and yet, it is a frank, honest and manly support of the Monroe doctrine."

Both sides joined in applause at the mention of the Monroe doctrine.

AT ST. LOUIS.

Arrangements Made for Accommodating Convention Crowds.

St. Louis, Dec. 17.—The engagement of rooms to be occupied by different delegations and prominent republicans during the convention, has at last taken some definite form and the managers of some of the hotels have prepared lists of those who will be in their houses. During the past few days Colonel Swords, of Iowa, sergeant-at-arms of the republican national committee, and Mr. Dwight A. Lawrence, of New York, who is representing the interests of Senator Quay, have been in the city and have completed their arrangements with several hotels.

The majority of the state delegations have been provided for and a large number of prominent republicans from all sections of the country know the numbers of the rooms there are to occupy. The list of politicians and delegates at the Planters', as given out by Manager Weaver, will be:

Chauncey L. Filley and the Missouri delegation; General Clarkson, and the Iowa delegation; Matthew S. Quay, and the Pennsylvania delegation; Colonel Fessenden and the Connecticut delegation; General Alger, of Michigan; Chauncey M. Depew; Colonel Trumbo, of Utah; Thomas E. Platt, of New York; Hon. G. O. Hobart, of New Jersey;

Lieutenant-Governor Lyon, of Pennsylvania; Ben W. Andrews, of Pennsylvania; M. H. De Young, of San Francisco; Warner Miller, of New York; Edward Quackenbush, of Massachusetts; the Union Republican Club, of Philadelphia; headquarters of the New York delegation; the Indiana delegation; Hon. H. C. Stickney, of Delaware, accompanied by six friends: Messrs. McKee, Flynn and George von Bommhorst, of Philadelphia; Dwight A. Lawrence, of New York; Colonel H. L. Swords, of Iowa; Messrs. Frank Hiseock, John Conyon, Hamilton Fish, Charles Hackett and Reuben Fox.

The Union Republican Club has engaged 35 rooms; Colonel Swords has taken 45, and 30 have been placed at the disposal of Mr. Lawrence. Mr. Swords and Mr. Lawrence have not secured all the rooms they will need, however, as Mr. Lawrence will engage 75 and Colonel Swords estimates that the people he represents will fill nearly 200 rooms.

If suffering with piles, it will interest you to know that De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve will cure them. This medicine is a specific for all complaints of this character, and if instructions (which are simple) are carried out, a cure will result. We have tested this in numerous cases, and always with like results. It never fails. Snipes-Kinnersly Drug Co.

SENATOR ALLISON.

He is an Active, Aggressive Candidate for the Presidency.

CHICAGO, Dec. 16.—A special to a local paper from St. Louis, says:

Colonel H. L. Swords, of Iowa, sergeant-at-arms of the republican national committee, who is here to select the committee headquarters for convention week, said in discussing the presidential outlook:

"Senator Allison is in no sense a receptive candidate for the nomination, whatever that means. He is an active, aggressive candidate. I saw him at Washington Wednesday and had a long talk with him. His campaign will be managed by General James S. Clarkson and Congressman Henderson, of Iowa. Ours will be something of a waiting policy. That is to say, we will hold our forces in reserve until McKinley and Reed cut one another to pieces, and stop fighting from sheer exhaustion. Then we will plunge to the front with our man."

"I am delighted that General Harrison's friends have decided to enter him. That will greatly relieve the intense strain created by the struggle between McKinley and Reed. A great man is General Harrison—a great man—and there is no telling at this juncture what sort of a factor he is going to be in the contest."

Castoria

For Infants and Children.

Castoria promotes Digestion, and overcomes Flatulency, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhoea, and Feverishness. Thus the child is rendered healthy and its sleep natural. Castoria contains no Morphine or other narcotic property.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. AARON, M. D.
 111 South Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"For several years I have recommended your 'Castoria,' and shall always continue to do so, as it has invariably produced beneficial results."

EDWARD F. PARSONS, M. D.
 123th Street and 7th Ave., New York City.

"The use of 'Castoria' is so universal and its merits so well known that it seems a work of supererogation to endorse it. Few are the intelligent families who do not keep Castoria within easy reach."

CARLOS MARSH, D. D.
 New York City.
