TUESDAY'S MESSAGE

The Sensation it Created Not Yet Subsiding.

AMERICANS PLEASED WITH IT

Comment of English Papers—The Views of a Number of American Governors—Senators Who Approve It.

LONDON, Dec. 18.—In spite of the prominence all the newspapers give President Cleveland's message to congress on the Venezuelan boundary question, the general public refuses to get excited, or even interested. Those who read the correspondence resent President Cleveland's attitude, but almost the invariable answer received to inquiries for an expression of opinion is, "What is it all about, anyway?"
The message, however, was being used on the stock exchange to hammer American securities. Consols declined, but there was no excitement. One newspaper remarked:
"The Yankee jobbers are the only persons injured by the message, and they have just grounds for complaint."

The editorial comments of the New York World and the New York Evening Post on the situation are reprinted here with approval, as indicating American opinion. The radical evening newspapers take the most serious view of the situation. Editorially, the Star remarks:

"It is difficult to exaggerate the gravity of the situation. The United States may be assured that Englishmen regardless of party, will abide firmly by Lord Salisbury's claim, and will not submit to a bounce."
"Public opinion," says the Westminster Gazette, "will unanimously support Lord Salisbury, but it is a pity he enlarged the dispute by attacking the Monroe doctrine."

A dose that is always reasonable is a dose of Simmons Liver Regulator, the "King of Liver Medicines." It keeps the liver active; the bowels regular; prevents Biliousness; and promotes digestion. In fact helps keep you well. "I have watched its effects in families where I have practiced, and find it admirable; both alternative and tonic in its action."
—Dr. T. W. Mason, Macon, Ga.

MEETS WITH APPROVAL.

Governors of Various States Support Cleveland's Views.

CHICAGO, Dec. 18.—The following messages were received by the Record in response to requests to governors to give their opinions of the president's message:

CARSON, Nev.—Not vigorous enough. Nevada people are strong supporters of the Monroe doctrine in its entirety.
J. E. JONES, Governor.

SALEM, Or.—If the Monroe doctrine is a principle of vital force in this country, President Cleveland deals rightly in his message with the Venezuelan question.
WILLIAM P. LORD, Governor.

JACKSON, Miss.—I believe President Cleveland's Venezuelan message is sound and statesmanlike, and I fully approve it.
J. M. STONE, Governor.

ATLANTA, Ga.—The president's message is a correct interpretation of the Monroe doctrine, and the Venezuelan question furnishes a case which calls for its enforcement. The people of Georgia will approve of the message of the president.
W. C. ATKINSON, Governor

RICHMOND, Va.—It is strong, pointed and direct, and can leave no doubt as to his position. It is characteristic of the man, courageous, and truly American. There will be no retreat on his part. The Monroe doctrine is the very wool and web of the policy upon the maintenance of which depends our safety against European aggrandizement and the greed and avarice of European powers.

CHARLES O'FERRELL, Governor.

BURLINGTON, Vt.—President Cleveland's message is unmistakable in tone, and will undoubtedly meet with the approval of the United States without regard to party. I consider it an act of hostility to the United States for Great Britain to attempt to acquire more territory on this continent, and we must vigorously assert our rights and prevent it.
W. F. WOODBURY, Governor.

BOISE, Idaho—I am proud of the manner in which the president has declared his Americanism. The people of Idaho will support him in the field, if need be, in maintaining the position he has taken.
W. J. MCCONNELL, Governor.

SACRAMENTO, Cal.—President Cleveland's message is able, wise and timely, and will meet the approval of the people of the United States, whose views it voices.
JAMES H. BUDD, Governor.

MONTGOMERY, Ala.—President Cleveland's message is sound and American. Congress should take his advice and give the country practical Monroe doctrine, and make it international law if it is not.

W. C. OATES, Governor.

APPROVED BY FORAKER.

Cleveland's Message Has the True American Ring.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 18.—The papers today publish short interviews on Cleveland's message. Among those interviewed was ex-Governor Foraker, who said:

"Yes, Cleveland's message has the true American ring."

"What if it brings war?"

"I don't care if it does. I always believed in the Monroe doctrine."

This but faintly expresses the general feeling here.

Senators Approve It.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—Following are a few of the many opinions in the same line expressed by United States senators:

Senator Davis, republican member of the committee on foreign relations—"I think the president has risen to an opportunity such as has not been presented to any president in many years. In language of great dignity, power and accuracy, he has stated the Monroe doctrine as understood by the American people for 70 years."

Senator Gorman—"It is a warlike document; a very vigorous statement. Of course much depends upon what the commission which we are to send to Venezuela shall report."

"For several years I have recommended your 'Castoria,' and shall always continue to do so, as it has invariably produced beneficial results."
ROBIN F. PARRISH, M. D.,
32nd Street and 7th Ave., New York City.

"The use of 'Castoria' is so universal and its merits so well known that it seems a work of supererogation to endorse it. Few are the intelligent families who do not keep Castoria within easy reach."

New York City.
