SAN FRANCISCO MINISTERS.

The San Francisco women must be dreadful creatures. Since the unfortunate plight in which Dr. Brown, of the First Congregational church, finds himself has been made public, several city pastors have announced their intention of throwing up barriers to protect themselves from Amazonian onslaughts.

Either the new woman is of a voracious type, or San Francisco ministers are made of a stuff the ingredients of which do not combine in proper proportions for ministerial character.

Because Dr. Brown is either a fool or a knave—and probably the latter since such foolishness as he has confessed is almost criminal—is no reason why other ministers should follow him in making themselves less thought of in the public eye.

It has long been conceded that Secretary Seward made a good bargain when he negotiated the purchase of Alaska from Russia; but the benefits of the deal are proving of greater extent as a better knowledge of our northern possessions is obtained.

The battleship Texas, concerning which so many unsatisfactory reports are received, is the product of English brains and planing. While William C. Whitney was secretary of the navy he conceived the idea of a battleship built according to English specifications, and the Texas is the result.

going to England to be taught how to build naval vessels. Most people are of the opinion that things which are good enough for Americans can be built in America.

Another run is probable on the gold reserve, and $3,000,000 is expected to be drawn out today for European shipment. It is a severe reflection on American statesmanship that the combined intelligence of men in both parties cannot stop the drain on the country's treasury.

Senator Elkins has scored a good mark in having his resolution passed, which calls for the public sale of government bonds whose issue is contemplated. This action, while unwelcome to the syndicate of New York bankers, whose opportunity to make millions easily will be curtailed, meets with favor throughout the country, where is condemned the clandestine bargain which Cleveland made with Wall street.

A. E. Kilpatrick, of Fillmore, Cal., had the misfortune to have his leg caught between a cart and a stone and badly bruised. Ordinarily he would have been laid up for two or three weeks, but says: "After using one bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm I began to feel better, and in three days was entirely well.

science Science is "knowing how." The only secret about Scott's Emulsion is years of science.

When made in large quantities and by improving methods, an emulsion must be more perfect than when made in the old-time way with mortar and pestle a few ounces at a time.
