A STORMY SESSION

Republican Caucus on the Tariff Bill.

SHORT SESSION OF THE SENATE

Butler's Amendments to the Free-Coinage Substitute for the House Bond Bill—The Hawaiian Question.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Immediately after the adjournment of the senate the republican senators caucused on the tariff bill. After a stormy session it was agreed to instruct the finance committee that the tariff bill should be reported without amendment and passed in that form.

IN THE SENATE.

Attempt to Increase the Number of Men in the Navy.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—Senator Wolcott, who has been absent in Europe for some months, was present in the senate today and took the prescribed oath.

Hale, from the committee on naval affairs, reported back favorably the bill authorizing the secretary of the navy to increase the number of enlisted men in the navy. He directed attention to the importance of the bill, and gave notice that he would call it up at an early day.

Butler offered two amendments to the free-coinage substitute for the house bond bill. The first prohibits the sale of interest-bearing bonds without the express consent of congress, and the second makes it mandatory on the secretary of the treasury to redeem greenbacks and treasury notes in silver as long as the market price of 412½ grains of silver is lower than that of 29½ grains of gold.

At the conclusion of the morning hour Sherman moved that the senate adjourn. He explained that an early adjournment would facilitate the work of the senate, it being understood that the republicans desired to hold a caucus.

Stewart requested Sherman to withdraw his motion in order to give him an opportunity to make some remarks on the financial question, but the Ohio senator declined to yield, and, accordingly, at 12:30, the senate adjourned until tomorrow.

ANNEXATION OF HAWAII.

A Resolution to That Effect Introduced in the House.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—The subject of the annexation of the Hawaiian islands was broached in the house today by Spaulding, in a resolution which provided that the Sandwich islands be erected into a new state to be called Hawaii, with a republican form of government, to be adopted by the people, through deputies in convention with the consent of the existing government. The conditions were imposed that all questions of boundary or complications with other governments be transmitted to the president to be laid before congress for final action before January 1, 1898; that all property pertaining to the public defense be ceded to the United States, but that the state retain all other property and the United States to be liable for none of its debts. The resolution proposes as an alternative that Hawaii may be admitted as a state by treaties between the two governments, with one representative in congress, and proposes the appropriation of $100,000 for making treaties. This resolution was referred to the committee on foreign affairs.

Henderson stated the committee on rules would not be able to report until tomorrow.

At 12:45 the house adjourned.

Foreign Affairs Committee.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—The senate committee on foreign relations today held its first meeting since reorganization. Senator Sherman presided. Cameron, Cullom, Lodge and Mills, the new members, were present. The committee decided to hold a special session Saturday for the consideration of the Venezuela, Cuban and Armenian questions. It is expected the committee will consider the Monroe doctrine in connection with the Venezuela matter.

PINGREE'S CHOICE.

Would Like to See Reed in the President's Chair.

DETROIT, Jan. 8.—Thomas B. Reed is Mayor's Pingree's presidential candidate and his honor announces it in tones of exultation.

"I've looked the field over," he declared, "and Reed is the only man in the list of candidates who has a backbone. That's the kind of a man we want for president. We've had enough of these spineless fellows in the presidential chair. We want a man that has brains, and then has enough backbone to carry out the views that he believes to be right."

'Frisco Marine Notes.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 8.—The steamer South Coast, which was put on the Portland route by the Oregon Railway & Navigation Co., to offset the cheap rate steamer Alice Blanchard, will not get away until Friday afternoon. Considerable freight is offering on account of the low rates and this is the occasion of the steamer's delay. The Alice Blanchard is staying with the South Coast and she too has postponed her trip until Friday.

The steamer Ida Schrauer is now nineteen days out from Portland and some little anxiety is felt over her long voyage. It has been very stormy along the northern coast and it is feared the schooner may have met with a mishap in a gale.

Maryland's New Executive.

ANNAPOLIS, Md. Jan. 8.—For the first time this state has a governor, elected and inaugurated as a republican. At noon today Chief Justice Robinson, in the presence of both houses of the assembly, administered the oath of office to Lloyd Lowndes, of Allegheny. Before his ceremony the incoming governor delivered his inaugural address, facing an enormous crowd in front of the senate chamber.
