A DUTY TO CIVILIZATION.

The house of representatives has taken up the Armenian question and a resolution has been introduced by Representative Morse, which provides for action to be taken by our government. The provisions of the resolution are as follows:

Whereas, The most mournful tragedy of the 19th century has been and is now being enacted under the apparent sanction of the Sultan of Turkey, by which hundreds of thousands of Armenians are being ruthlessly slaughtered in cold blood; women are being driven into captivity worse than death, and the inhabitants who have fled to the mountains are dying of cold and starvation, and

Whereas, The blood of these martyred dead cry to heaven for justice;

Resolved, That the committee on foreign affairs consider the expediency of reporting forthwith some expression by this government in denunciation of these atrocities, and if they find we, as a nation, are powerless to act, that we invoke the co-operation of the allied powers to wipe the Turkish government off the face of the earth and secure the freedom and independence of Armenia.

America has been the leader for freedom in the Nineteenth century, and never was there a better time for declaring its leadership over again than now. The Armenian outrages are a blot upon the boasted civilization of this enlightened century, which even the most pronounced action cannot efface. Late as it is, it is not yet too late to protect the lives and honor of the people of Armenia who have escaped the sword of the Turk. Turkey has forfeited her claims to the consideration of the nations, and the Armenian question belongs to the world. Let America declare that these outrages upon her liberty shall be stopped, and those nations of Europe, who are not yet lost to decency, will proclaim the declaration good.

The spirit of robbery seems in the air, manifesting itself in different forms. Day before yesterday a street car was robbed near Portland by a nery rascal. Yesterday an attempt was made to hold up an expressman in the same city, and last night the postoffice at Pendleton was burglarized and the postmaster shot. Crime stalks forth undaunted and nearly every day come reports from different portions of the state of bold deeds done in defiance of law. The apparent ease with which criminals find it possible to evade the punishment the law provides, has made them bold. Technicalities, delays and the devious ways known to those skilled in the art, have made it so that the ultimate acquittal of a man charged with crime is looked upon as a matter of course. The taint lies not so much with the jury system as with the practice of the supreme court in construing laws so that justice is made subservient to narrow technicalities. Juries are more ready to convict than the supreme court seems willing to sustain just convictions.

Senator Squire's bill for coast defenses provides for the expenditure of $87,000,000, the whole to be made available immediately, if so ordered by the president. If not used immediately the money is to be expended as follows: In the year ending June 30, 1896, $1,500,000; in the year thence next ensuing, $5,500,000, and in each fiscal year thereafter $8,000,000. The points referred to in the bill as requiring immediate fortification are thus described: "New York, San Francisco, Boston, (the lake ports), Hampton Roads, New Orleans, Philadelphia, Washington, Baltimore, Portland Me., Rhode Island, ports in Narragansett bay, Key West, Charleston, S. C., Mobile, New London, Savannah, Galveston, Portland Or., Pensacola Fla., Wilmington N. C., San Diego Cal., Portsmouth N. H., Cumberland sound, at Fort Clinch, the Kennebec river, at Fort Popham, New Bedford Mass., the ports on the Penobscot river, Maine, Fort Knox, New Haven, Conn., and Puget sound.

Great Britain is showing the effect of President Cleveland's message. It is reported she is now willing to treat directly with Venezuela and thus preserve her dignity and pursue a course satisfactory to the United States. It has finally dawned upon the sluggish British mind that, illy prepared as this country is for war, we would accept the issue quickly if England persisted in her determination to override our demand for arbitration of the Venezuela matter.

EDITORIAL COMMENT.

Eyeing Telegram: Journalist Norman is more of an American than Journalist Pulitzer. How would Mr. Bull like to swap?

Spokesman Review: Senator Squire of Washington is coming to the front as a champion of coast defenses, and his opinions on the matter are widely discussed by all the prominent newspapers of the Union. He has entered upon a campaign which will ultimately place the rich seacoast cities in absolute safety from plunder by foreign powers in case of sudden war, and he is awakening the masses from their dreams of fancied security. Senator Squire thoroughly realizes that modern appliances must be met with modern appliances and could not have selected a better time to push his plans for seacoast defense.

Pendleton East Oregonian: People in Pendleton will remember Rev. V. Marshall law. He was the rector of the Episcopal church at Walla Walla for a number of years. He visited Pendleton frequently. For the last year or two he has been rector of a church in Oakland, California. Owing to the troubles of the Rev. Brown in San Francisco "Doctor" Law has announced that he will not receive women parishioners, unless accompanied by a relative, in his study at the church. Oh, spare us from such frauds as "Doctor" Law! Women who call on him need the protection of some body, and his "announcement" is entirely in order on this account. It is to be regretted that the earnest, faithful workers of the church are harassed and compromised by such hypocrites and moral weaklings as Doctor Law and Doctor Brown.

Much progress is being made in finishing the Commercial and Athletic club rooms. The new floor is completed, and the partitions up for the bath rooms and wood room. The billiard rooms and gymnasium will soon be completed and ready for the furnishings to be put in. One billiard table has already been purchased and several of the gymnastic appliances are here. The bowling alley will be the last part of the club arrangements to be completed. The members are becoming more interested in the club all the time, and every evening sees an increased number occupying the social rooms. A gentleman from Sherman county, who was in The Dalles last week, said the organization of the club was one of the best moves the people of The Dalles ever made. The opportunities for doing good to the city are boundless, and we trust that of the many which will be presented some will be improved.

approve of Scott's Emulsion. For whom? For men and women who are weak, when they should be strong; for babies and children who are thin, when they should be fat; for all who get no nourishment from their food. Poor blood is starved blood. Consumption and Scrofula never come without this starvation. And nothing is better for starved blood than cod-liver oil. Scott's Emulsion is cod-liver oil with the fish-fat taste taken out.

Mr. Fred Miller, of Irving, Ill., writes that he had a severe kidney trouble for many years, with severe pains in his back and also that his bladder was affected. He tried many so called kidney cures but without any good result. About a year ago he began to use Electric Bitters and found relief at once. Electric Bitters is especially adapted to cure of all Kidney and Liver troubles and often gives almost instant relief. One trial will prove our statement. Price 50c and $1.00. A. E. Kilpatrick, of Fillmore, Cal., had the misfortune to have his leg caught between a cart and a stone and badly bruised. Ordinarily he would have been laid up for two or three weeks, but says: "After using one bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm I began to feel better, and in three days was entirely well. The peculiar soothing qualities which Chamberlain's Pain Balm possesses I have never noticed in any other liniment. I take pleasure in recommending it." This liniment is also of great value for rheumatism and lame back. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggist.

A January thaw is always more productive of colds and coughs than a January freeze. Then is the time Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is needed and proves so extremely efficacious. Ask your druggist for it, and also for Ayer's Almanac, which is free to all.

Dr. Shields, an eminent physician of Tennessee, says: "I regard Ayer's Sarsaparilla as the best blood medicine on earth, and I know of many wonderful cures effected by its use." Physicians all over the land have made similar statements.

Sift one quart of flour, two rounding teaspoons of baking powder, and one teaspoonful of salt into a bowl; add three teaspoonsful of COTTOLENE and rub together until thoroughly mixed; then add sufficient milk to make a soft dough; knead slightly, roll out about half an inch thick, and cut with a small biscuit cutter. Place a little apart in a greased pan, and bake in a quick oven for fifteen or twenty minutes. These biscuits should be a delicate brown top and bottom, light on the sides, and snowy white within.

The secret of success in this recipe, as in others, is to use but two-thirds as much Cottoleue as you used to use of lard.

will make the biscuit light, delicious, wholesome. Better than any biscuit you ever made before. Try it. Be sure and get genuine Cottoleue. Sold everywhere in tins with trade-marks — "Cottoleue" and steer's head in cotton-plant wreath — on every tin.
