Foraker received the full republican vote. The two houses will vote in joint ballot tomorrow.

ALLISON FOR PRESIDENT.
His Candidacy Formally Announced by His Home Paper.

DES MOINES, Ia., Jan. 14.—Senator Allison, who has arrived here from Washington, when asked about the rumors that there was a serious disagreement between him and his Iowa managers, said emphatically there was no truth in it.

All politicians denied the existence of any difference of opinion on any subject. The Iowa State Register today made practically the first formal announcement of Mr. Allison's candidacy. In an editorial that paper says:

"In re-electing Senator Allison the people of Iowa make, by their legislature, in a sense, a formal presentation of his candidacy to the republicans of the nation. They honor him at home now and hope he may be honored in the nation when the republican convention meets in St. Louis, having no doubt he would be signally honored at the polls in November. The republicans of Iowa present the candidacy of Senator Allison especially to the states of the great Northwest, which have always been first in the affections of the Iowa senator. Senator Allison is part of this great Northwest. He knows its wants and will serve them. He lives in Iowa, but he is a near neighbor of Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, the Dakotas, Nebraska, Kansas and Missouri—the states are the empire from which he hails."

THE DAY IN CONGRESS.

Acrid Debate Over a Pension Bill in the Senate.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—The bill granting a pension of $75 monthly to the widow of the late Brigadier-General Cogswell, representative in congress from Massachusetts at the time of his death, caused a long debate in the senate today.

Hill and Mills wanted information as to the system pursued in granting those special pensions.
Allen opposed discriminations, saying: "I want to go on record as opposed to any distinction between the widow of a private soldier and that of a brigadier-general, or any other general. It was the plain private soldier," he added, "who met the brunt of war. To hear the senators talk it would be as though the brigadiers won the war. It was a species of pamby-pambyism and flunkeyism un-American discrimination."
Hawley suggested that the world recognized questions of rank, even if the Nebraska senator did not, and while eulogizing the services of the plain soldier, he pointed out that the mortality among the officers was greater than that among the men in the ranks.

Hoar asked if Allen's logic would lead him to approve of placing the salary of General Miles, commander of the army, at $13 per month.

"It would doubtless measure the value of his services in many cases," answered Allen.

The pension bill passed without amendment, the motion of Allen to reduce the pension to $50 per month being supported by most of the democrats.

Few Have Yet Arrived.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Very few members of the national democratic committee, which is to meet here Thursday to select the time and place for holding the democratic national convention of 1896, have yet reached the city. William F. Harry, chairman, and S. P. Sherin, of Indiana, secretary of the committee, are among the most prominent arrivals up to date. Thus far the champions of New York and St. Louis have not arrived.

Geo. W. Jenkins, editor of the Santa Maria "Times," Cal., in speaking of the various ailments of children said: "When my children have croup there is only one patent medicine I ever use, and that is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It possesses some medical properties that relieve the little sufferers immediately. It is, in my opinion, the best cough medicine in the market." If this remedy is freely given as soon as the croup cough appears it will prevent the attack. It is also an ideal remedy for whooping cough. There is no danger in giving it to children, as it contains nothing injurious. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggist.

No Third-Term Sentiment.

NEW YORK, Jan. 14.—A special to the Press from Washington says: "Word has been received from leaders at headquarters of the cities contending for the democratic national convention that Gover Cleveland is not to be a candidate for a third term. This intimation was obtained by those who found themselves embarrassed in making arguments as to the respective advantages of the West and East for convention purposes.

If there is any one thing that needs to be purified, it is politics, so the reformer says, and many agree thereto. But blood tells, and as a blood purifier and liver corrector Simmons Liver Regulator is the best medicine. "I use it in preference to any other."—So wrote Mr. S. H. Hysell, of Middleport, Ohio. And Dr. D. S. Russell, of Farmville, Va., writes, "It fulfills all you promise for it."

Clarkson's Choice.

CHICAGO, Jan. 14.—J. S. Clarkson, of Iowa, in an interview, when asked concerning the contest of the republican nomination for president, said: "It is going to be a spirited and interesting, but not heroic contest, as in the rivalries between Grant and Blaine. I think it is going to be a deliberate choice."
Mr. Clarkson said he considered Allison the strongest man at all points.

The popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the high esteem in which it is held leads us to believe it to be an article of great worth and merit. Trudell says: "I have always received prompt relief when I used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy." Mr. James Orchard says: "I am satisfied that Chamberlain's Cough remedy cured my cold." Mr. J. M.
