ST. PAUL AGROUND

Struck a Sandbar on the Jersey Coast.

ACCIDENT DUE TO HEAVY FOGS

Thought to Be Leaking--If She Is Not Ready to Sail Wednesday the St. Louis Will Take Her Place.

SANDY HOOK, Jan. 26.—The American liner St. Paul, from Southampton, for New York, struck the outer bar, off the Hotel Brighton, at Long Branch, N. J., during a dense fog, between 1 and 2 o'clock this morning. She was shortly afterwards discovered by the patrol from the Long Branch life-saving service, and preparations were made to open communication with her. The apparatus was dragged to the place and a shot was fired across the vessel, a hawser was placed on board and the breeches-buoy sent off. The people on board desired to remain by the vessel, as there was no danger. Messages were sent ashore notifying the agents of the maritime exchange and the wrecking companies of the accident.

Crews from Seabright, Monmouth Beach and the Long Branch life-saving stations were all in attendance on the steamer. The wind was light, southwest, with a long ground swell.

Among the passengers on the St. Paul are: Ex-Congressman W. Bourke Cochran, Prince Serge Wolkowsky, Dixon C. Walker, Dr. S. A. Knorr, Harvey W. Brown, H. G. Fellows, Miss Minnie Sachs, Louis R. Worth and W. W. Whitehouse.

The St. Paul has on board $1,500,000 in specie.

The vessel struck on a sand bar a quarter of a mile from the iron pier. He nose ran about 100 feet into the sand before the engines could be stopped. She is pointing southwest.

The St. Paul sailed from Southampton, January 18, in charge of Captain Jamison. When the steamer ran ashore, it is said there were only four feet of water over the bar. Old seaman along shore say the vessel may not be floated for a week or more.

The wrecking-tug Hustler passed out at 9:20 a. m., to render assistance to the vessel, but at 10 a. m. no passengers had been removed from the steamer. At that time two tugs were beside the steamer, and another on the way from New York. A stern line was put out to hold the vessel in the position she struck. This morning she appeared to be leaking, dirty water coming from the ship's pumps.

This afternoon the life-saving crews commenced the transfer of the St. Paul passengers to another steamer.

From the fact that she ran aground at high water, it is thought she will not be easily floated. The next high water will be a little before 2 o'clock, and an effort will then be made to pull her off. Meantime everything that can be removed will be taken from the vessel in order to lighten her. Nine tugs are now with her.

Some steerage passengers became greatly alarmed when the vessel struck. When they went on deck, however, and saw the shore, they became quiet.

The St. Paul was launched from Cramps, yard, at Philadelphia, April 10, 1895. She is one of the most magnificently appointed vessels in the Transatlantic service. If she is not ready to sail next Wednesday the Company will substitute the St. Louis.

THE TRANSVAAL INVASION.

Statement From Our Consular Agent Regarding American Prisoners.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—The state department today gave out the following statement: Manian, the consular agent at Johannesburg, cables Secretary Olney that all American prisoners are out on parole, except Hammond, whose case differs from that of the others, in that Hammond signed the constitutional invitation to Jameson to come to Johannesburg in case of extreme peril. Jameson marched towards Johannesburg, however, before trouble arose. When this was discovered the American and other leaders issued a proclamation calling on the people to refrain from hostilities. Instead of inciting the rebellion, Hammond in the beginning raised the Transvaal flag and all in the movement swore allegiance. Clement and other Americans took arms from many and sent them home. Not a shot was fired by the Johannesburg party. There was no disturbance, nor a single act of hostility. The arms were peacefully surrendered and every effort was made to maintain the republic against encroachment.

The cases against the American prisoners arrested will be tried in court, though the government has not yet indicated the time of prosecution. Manian adds that the Transvaal government has acted magnanimously.

In view of the foregoing, it is believed here that neither Hammond nor any other American is in serious peril. The state department has cabled Manian to use the most active and vigorous measures for the relief of Americans, and to that end make the Transvaal government direct representation on behalf of the United States, which acts independently, of course, in its own interests.

The Extra-Session Talks.

SALEM, Jan. 26.—Talk of an extra session of the legislature continues a topic of conversation here, and expressions from Governor Lord on the subject are above par. Some who have conversed with the governor say there will be no call issued. They have not, however, been authorized to say there will not be a call issued. The governor has said there has been no direct demand made upon him.

W. H. Hobson says he was quoted incorrectly in The Oregonian of the 23d inst. He said:

"I am of the opinion that an extra session would not profit the state very much."

The machines made him say it would profit the state very much.

Geo. W. Jenkins, editor of the Santa Maria "Times," Cal., in speaking of the various ailments of children said: "When my children have croup there is only one patent medicine I ever use, and that is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It possesses some medical properties that relieve the little sufferers immediately. It is, in my opinion, the best cough medicine in the market." If this remedy is freely given as soon as the croup cough appears it will prevent the attack. It is also an ideal remedy for whooping cough. There is no danger in giving it to children, as it contains nothing injurious. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggist.

If there is any one thing that needs to be purified, it is politics, so the reformer says, and many agree thereto. But blood tells, and as a blood purifier and liver corrector Simmons Liver Regulator is the best medicine. "I use it in preference to any other."—So wrote Mr. S. H. Hysell, of Middleport, Ohio. And Dr. D. S. Russell, of Farmville, Va., writes, "It fulfills all you promise for it."

The peculiar soothing qualities which Chamberlain's Pain Balm possesses I have never noticed in any other liniment. I take pleasure in recommending it."
