

BLEEDING ARMENIA

Renewal of Massacres at Various Points Feared.

THE ATTENTION OF THE PORTE

A French Paper Thinks Europe Needs a Monroe Doctrine to Prevent Meddling by the United States.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 30.—The renewal of massacres at Aintab, Amassia and Van is feared. The ambassadors have called the attention of the ports to the alarming rumors.

Letters received from insurgents of Zeitoun say no excesses were committed by them until they heard of the massacre at Marash. They then took vengeance upon the Turks.

FRENCH COMMENT.

A Monroe Doctrine for Europe is Advocated.

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—A dispatch to the Herald from Paris says: The Parisian papers devote considerable attention to the possibilities of the United States entering into the active spheres of European international affairs and the Journal des Debats regrets that Europe has not some sort of Monroe doctrine to protect it from the meddling of the United States in purely European affairs. The resolution adopted by the senate and house of representatives, it points out, is a direct summons to the powers to carry out the clauses of the treaty of Berlin. Diplomats of old, we are told, would have been horrified at the idea of sending an American squadron to Constantinople, as Senator Frye urges, not because they would have been surprised to learn that America had a squadron to send, but because they would have remembered certain conventions which forbid the sending of a squadron to Constantinople. Americans are aware that such conventions exist, yet Senator Frye wants to send a squadron without paying any regard to them. It is impossible to be more American. It is true the authorities on international law interviewed by the Herald have clearly expressed an opinion that congress is to blame and has no business to meddle with the treaty of Berlin, in which the United States was not a signatory, but, of course, the idea of attaching any weight to the opinions of jurists is regarded on the other side of the Atlantic as a European prejudice.

As to the views of England, or rather of Mr. Chamberlain, who alone has spoken, he appears to regret that America, instead of wrangling over a trifle like the Venezuela dispute, should not have intervened to settle the Armenian question, while the press appears to regard such a course without dissatisfaction. Possibly, however, Mr. Chamberlain's reference is intended to chaff the Americans on their own intolerance in attacking England because of her intervention in Venezuela.

The Temps takes advantage of the occasion to lecture the English press on its too fertile imagination in assuming the possibility of Europe confiding to the great republic of the New World, and of the United States accepting the mission in spite of the Monroe doctrine being turned upside down, of forcing the hand of the sultan by a naval demonstration before Constantinople.

"Fortunately," said the Temps, "the world is governed not by fanatical political conjectures, but by the modest 'routines' of Downing street or of the d'Orsay."

IN MEMORY OF CHARLES I.
Anniversary of His Execution Observed by "Legitimists."

LONDON, Jan. 30.—This is the anniversary of the execution of Charles I of England, who was beheaded January 30, 1649. This morning small parties of "legitimists" arrived at Trafalgar square with floral wreaths, which they attempted to place at the foot of the statue of Charles I, but the police compelled them to remove them. The crowd, with uncovered heads, repeated the collect referring to the so-called martyred sovereign. Then they offered up prayers for the dead king. When the demonstration began to attract much attention they were dispersed by the police.

Later, apparently by orders received from the chief of police at Scotland Yard, beautiful wreaths inscribed "In memory of the White King," were allowed to be placed at the foot of the pedestal.

Rev. Brown's Position.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 30.—Rev. C. O. Brown did not make his confidential explanation of Miss Overman's letters to Mrs. Sarah Cooper this morning. At the meeting of the First Congregational church last evening Brown said Mrs. Cooper should not condemn him until she had heard his version of the scandal precipitated by Mrs. Mary A. Davidson. Mrs. Cooper announced her willingness to hear him, and the minister agreed to make matters clear to her at his home this morning. An engagement for this meeting, however, did not take place. Mr. Brown telephoned Mrs. Cooper, who is a sort of a lay preacher and Bible class teacher in the First Congregational church, that his attorneys had forbidden him to make his proposed explanation. As a result Mrs. Cooper's conviction of her pastor's culpability remains unchanged. She and other members will try to prevent Dr. Brown from preaching, pending the work of the council of investigation.

The St. Paul Still Fast.

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—News was received by telephone from the steamer St. Paul this morning that no effort to float the steamer was made either last night or this morning, and there is no change in her position. The steamer is now about as light as she can be made. The probabilities are that nothing further will be done until there is a strong eastern wind and a high tide.

At 5:50 a. m. the British ship Foyle, which went onto Shrewsbury rocks Sunday morning and was towed ashore to save her, was floated and has been towed to this city.

MEMPHIS, Jan. 30.—Mr. Jordan A. Brooks, of this city, has received a call to the London tabernacle, the largest Christian church in Europe. Dr. Brooks was the first prohibition candidate for governor of Missouri in 1884, and in 1888 he was nominated for vice-president by the national prohibition convention. He was for many years supreme-master workman, Ancient Order of United Workmen. Dr. Brooks has not yet accepted the call to London.

None But Ayer's at the World's Fair.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla enjoys the extraordinary distinction of having been the only blood purifier allowed on exhibit at the world's fair, Chicago. Manufacturers of other sarsaparillas sought by every means to obtain a showing of their goods, but they were all turned away under the application of the rule forbidding the entry of patent medicines and nostrums. The decision of the world's fair authorities in favor of Ayer's Sarsaparilla was in effect as follows: "Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a patent medicine. It does not belong to the list of nostrums. It is here on its merits."

Geo. W. Jenkins, editor of the Santa Maria "Times," Cal., in speaking of the various ailments of children said: "When my children have croup there is only one patent medicine I ever use, and that is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It possesses some medicinal properties that relieve the little sufferers immediately. It is, in my opinion, the best cough medicine in the market." If this remedy is freely given as soon as the croup cough appears it will prevent the attack. It is also an ideal remedy for whooping cough. There is no danger in giving it to children, as it contains nothing injurious. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggist.

If there is any one thing that needs to be purified, it is politics, so the reformer says, and many agree thereto. But blood tells, and as a blood purifier and liver corrector Simmons Liver Regulator is the best medicine. "I use it in preference to any other."—So wrote Mr. S. H. Hysell, of Middleport, Ohio. And Dr. D. S. Russell, of Farmville, Va., writes, "It fulfills all you promise for it."

A. E. Kilpatrick, of Fillmore, Cal., had the misfortune to have his leg caught between a cart and a stone and badly bruised. Ordinarily he would have been laid up for two or three weeks, but says: "After using one bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm I began to feel better, and in three days was entirely well. The peculiar soothing qualities which Chamberlain's Pain Balm possesses I have never noticed in any other liniment. I take pleasure in recommending it." This liniment is also of great value for rheumatism and lame back. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggist.
