KILLED HIS FAMILY

Then Shot Himself Through the Head.

DESPERATE DEED OF A CARPENTER

He Was Out of Work and His Family Was Destitute—A Deliberately Planned Crime.

CHICAGO, Feb. 5.—The entire family of six, consisting of his father, mother, wife and three children, were murdered last night by Richard Klattke, a Lakeview carpenter, who completed the work by killing himself.

The dead are: Richard Klattke, a carpenter, 39 years old; Kate Klattke, his wife, John Klattke, his father, 73; Mina Wilhelmine, his mother-in-law, 71; Mina Klattke, his daughter, 9; Anna Klattke, his daughter, 8, and Emma Klattke, his daughter, 7.

The members of the Klattke family were found dead early this morning in their little cottage, at 207 Berskau avenue, two blocks from Cuyler station, a suburb of Chicago, on the Northwestern railroad, by Matthew Brown, a saloon-keeper, who called to secure the services of the carpenter. Each of the seven corpses had a bullet wound in the head and the death of all had evidently been instantaneous. Beside the body of Richard Klattke lay a revolver, and empty cartridge shells were scattered about the room. There were no indications of a struggle on the part of any of the victims.

A heavy odor, which appeared to be that of chloroform, pervaded the house. From this it was surmised that Klattke first chloroformed the entire family and then deliberately aimed and put a bullet into the brain of each. Everything pointed to a deliberately planned murder by the head of the family, and a desire to place himself and his family beyond any further earthly troubles.

Klattke was despondent, his family were cold and hungry. Since Christmas he had been out of work, and he ended his troubles just as relief was in sight. This morning the next-door neighbor, Adolph Schmidt, called at the cottage with the joyful news that he had found a job for Klattke. At the same time Matt Brown arrived on the same errand.

A close examination of the remains showed one of the victims alone had any warning of her fate. This was Mrs. Kate Klattke, the wife of the murderer. She, it appears, struggled with her husband before the fatal shot was fired. Her hands were scratched and her clothing torn. She had evidently been overpowered and thrown beside the dead body of her little 7-year-old daughter, Emma.

TO RECOGNIZE CUBA.

Rights of a Belligerent to be Accorded Her.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.—The senate committee on foreign relations today agreed upon a substitute for the resolution heretofore reported on the question of the recognition of Cuba, and authorized Senator Morgan to report it to the senate. It is:

"Resolved by the senate, the house of representatives, concurring, That in the opinion of congress a condition of war exists between the government of Spain and the government proclaimed and for some time maintained by force of arms by the people of Cuba, and that the United States of America should maintain a strict neutrality between the contending powers, and accord each all the rights of belligerents in the ports and territory of the United States."

The committee also voted to make an effort to take up the Cuban question in the senate as soon as the urgent deficiency bill and the resolution for the distribution of the appropriation bills can be disposed of.

WORLD'S NEWS IN BRIEF.

The wish for arbitration of the Venezuelan question is gaining ground in England.

In the house yesterday, Delegate Catron, of New Mexico, introduced a bill to prevent the pugilistic festival taking place near El Paso.

The Press Association announces the Scotch oil combine as completely dissolved, with heavy losses to the investors, and the Standard Oil Company is again master of the situation.

Justice Morris, in announcing a decision of the court of appeals for the District of Columbia, ruled that while intoxication may be a disease, yet if it is voluntary and leads to commission of crime, it is a crime in itself.

General Campos, in a recent interview, said: "Weyler will accomplish no more, no less than I; but in case he fails he will not be relieved. Having been appointed by a conservative government, and being backed by the liberal party, only a great and unexpected catastrophe could bring about his removal."

Colonel A. J. Fountain, one of the best-known men in New Mexico, was kidnapped on the road from Las Cruces to White Oaks, by cattle-thieves, and is believed to have been killed, together with his little son who was his only traveling companion. Fountain was prosecuting attorney of the district and has been pushing the rustlers hard.

The secretary of the treasury yesterday opened the bids for the purchase of $100,000,000 of United States 4 per cent 30-year bonds, received under his call, dated January 6 last. The bonds, redeemable in coin, will be issued in denominations of $50 or multiples of that sum, as desired by bidders. Over five times the amount required was subscribed in a short time.

Be Sure and Attend.

There will be a regular meeting of the members of Mt. Hood Hose Co., No. 4, at the hose house on Saturday evening, Feb. 8th, at 7:30 p. m. As there will be an election of officers for the year, a full attendance is required.

"For several years I have recommended your 'Castoria,' and shall always continue to do so, as it has invariably produced beneficial results."
EDWIN F. FAIRBANK, M. D.,
123th Street and 7th Ave., New York City.

"The use of 'Castoria' is so universal and its merits so well known that it seems a work of supererogation to endorse it. Few are the intelligent families who do not keep Castoria within easy reach."
New York City.
