BRIEF MENTION.

Leaves From the Notebook of Chronicle Reporters.

Maud Muller, on a summer's day, Stuffed the manger full of hay;
Her hat was there, but not the rake, For that was but a poet's fake; Slapping the old cow on the side, She laughed until she nearly cried:
Just think, old bossy, cried the maid, I'm going to have some bloomers made!

The bicycles are cautiously emerging again.

Mrs. Zirka brought back "Jim" today from Mosier.

Officers of the McKinley Club will be elected this evening by those present, who will have considerable work to do during the coming campaign.

To encourage the fair sex to exercise the privileges extended to them during leap year, Justice Davis offers to perform marriage ceremonies for a sack of flour in cases where the bride is the payor.

A Chicago preacher has recently invited Bob Ingersoll to fill his pulpit, and a Southern newspaper says that it will not be surprised to hear of St. Peter throwing open the pearly gates to his Satanic Majesty.

The first leap-year proposal is reported from Kentucky, where a young lady proposed, and was accepted and the couple married the same day. This ought to encourage some of the marriageable young ladies in this section.

There are about forty secret societies in The Dalles of various kinds, and hall room is consequently at a premium. It has happened more than once that one society has met and adjourned to give place to another in the same hall.

The masque ball to be given by the Workmen and Woodmen, Feb. 14th, is an event eagerly awaited by all pleasure-loving citizens. The committee of arrangements are indefatigable in their efforts to make it a grand success.

The whist club were pleasantly entertained last evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hostetler. Judge Bradshaw succeeded in capturing the gents' first prize, and Mrs. F. L. Houghton was fortunate enough to win the ladies first prize.

McKinley club meeting at the council chambers this evening. This is the first gun of the coming campaign. Let every Republican interested in the country's welfare attend it. The gift of suffrage to a free people involves a sacred duty.
All citizens should take an active interest in politics.

The young men of town who have not yet been invited to the leap-year ball are beginning to wear a worried look, and whenever one of them happens to meet one of the young ladies on the street he is almost obsequious in his attentions.
There are several who "don't feel well" now and others are making engagements to be engaged in case the coveted invitation is not forthcoming. The event will occur at the Baldwin next Tuesday evening, the Orchestra Union to furnish the music.

Chas. B. Prathar of Mosier has been granted a pension of $12 per month, and is entitled under the law to back pay for five years at that rate. The old man has been having a rather hard time of it for several years, part of the time having insufficient food for his family, and latterly he has been entirely incapacitated from work by rheumatism. He has been drawing $10 a month from the county for a short time.

A two-pound cannon ball, the once discharged projectile of mountain howitzer, may be seen in the window of Mr.
Murt Donnell's drug store. It was found in a well being dug in the rear of the feed yard back of E. J. Collins & Co.'s store, being discovered about 15 feet beneath the surface, and is rust-eaten by long years of corrosive influence of water. Its early history would very likely be a part of that made when all this country was under the range of the guns of Ft. Dalles.

The Sunday school children of Mrs.
Curtis' class invited the classes of Miss Cooper and Miss Hill to a party, given at the residence of Mr. J. M. Patterson last evening, and the young folks passed an evening of thorough enjoyment.
Those present were: Pearl Joles, Margarette Kinersly, Frudence Patterson, Hattie Glenn, May Jackson, Dean James, Nora Young, Bees Young, Maudie Michell, Josie Keller, Alice Price, Valesca Liebe, Harold Thompson, Fred Wand, Clarence Gilbert, Glenn Ferguson, Glenn Pike, Carl Groler, Frank Gibbons, Rev. Mr. Curtis, Mrs.
Curtis, Miss Hill, Miss Cooper, Miss Phiraan.

Twice a Mourner.

Mr. D. A. Turner, a farmer living near Hood River, has just gone through a very sad experience. He had not returned from the burial of one of his sons more than a half-hour, when another, his eldest, breathed his last.
The death of Mason Turner occurred last Tuesday at the farm, and he was carried to his last earthly resting place on Thursday. A short time after the return home of the saddened family, his eldest son, Warren, died of consumption. The funeral of Warren Turner occurred today.

Card of Thanks.

I desire to extend my sincerest thanks to the members of Columbia lodge, No.
5, I. O. O. F. for their assistance during the last illness and at the funeral of my son, William DeWolf, and also to the many kind friends who have lent their assistance and comfort during my recovery.
Mrs. E. L. DeWolf.
The Dalles, Or., Feb. 7, 1896.

Quick in effect, heals and leaves no scar. Burning, scaly skin eruptions quickly cured by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Applied to burns, scalds, old
