

CANCER CURED

-AND A-
LIFE SAVED
By the Persistent Use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"I was troubled for years with a sore on my knee, which several physicians, who treated me, called a cancer, assuring me that nothing could be done to save my life. As a last resort, I was induced to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, after taking a number of bottles, the sore began to disappear and my general health improve. I persisted in this treatment, until the sore was entirely healed. Since then, I use Ayer's Sarsaparilla occasionally as a tonic and blood-purifier, and, indeed, it seems as though I could not keep house without it."—Mrs. S. A. FIELDS, Bloomfield, Ia.

A PORTLAND TRAGEDY.

George Baxter Cut His Wife's Throat and Tried to Suicide.
A horrible tragedy was enacted in room 30, on the third floor of the Winters block, northeast corner of East Davis and Grand avenue, Portland, at 8 o'clock Thursday night. George Baxter slashed his wife's throat from ear to ear, his victim expiring in a few moments. Soon thereafter Baxter cut his own throat from which he is likely to recover.

The Baxters, with their little 4-year-old daughter, Edna, came from Roslyn, Wash., on the 24th of January last. The only witness to the murder was the little girl, who in her childish way, related to a Telegram reporter that she was on the bed in the room in which this episode took place.

"I saw papa strike mamma in the face," she said, "and the blood came from mamma's nose, spattering it all over the bed, the wall and her clothes. Then she fell down. I asked papa, 'Is mamma dead?' and he said 'No.' I then kissed mamma's face and so did he, and he began to cry. When the police came, he said he wanted his little girl, but they would not let him have me. But I'm going to my dear papa anyway. I think all the world of my mamma too."

And in this disconnected strain, she prattled away a quarter of an hour. While the child is remarkably bright in other respects, yet last night she was incapable of grasping the enormity of the misfortune that had befallen her.
The motive for the murder is claimed by Baxter to be his wife's fondness for drink—a habit she acquired a year or so ago—Baxter had long suspected her of infidelity. Before that their married life had been a very happy one, and covered a period of almost eight years. The night of the murder he found her in the back room of a West Side saloon, so drunk that she could scarcely stand. He keenly felt the disgrace she was bringing upon him and their child, but she was his wife and he felt determined to reform her ways, if possible. With the assistance of a casual acquaintance, Baxter managed to get his wife home. While ascending the stairway leading to their room he accused her of wrong-doing, which, in her drunken condition, she resented, and he called her a dirty liar. The quarrel grew more intense after they had entered their apartment, and it continued till Baxter, as he claims, became absolutely irresponsible for his conduct.
George Baxter is a man 34 years old, being very respectably connected in Portland and elsewhere in the Northwest. He has always been a hard-working man and principally followed logging as an occupation.

Superintendent Gardner, of the Boys' & Girls' Aid Society, today made application to Judge Stephens for an order to take charge of little Edna Baxter.

The Real Culprit.
SOUTH BEND, Ind., Feb. 6.—Will Wood, a son of Rev. D. A. Wood, of Greencastle, Ind., was arrested here on account of a telegram alleging that he might be an accomplice in the murder of the young woman at Fort Thomas, Ky., whose headless body was found here last Saturday morning. It is alleged that Wood put the unfortunate girl on the train at Greencastle, and was the last person at that place seen with her. Wood and the officers left for Cincinnati today.

The jury in the case of the state vs. D. K. Benson, after being out all night, came into court at Walla Walla yesterday morning with a verdict of guilty of murder in the second degree. Benson killed Convict Ellis in the jute mill in the state penitentiary, July 12, 1895, and was charged with murder in the first degree. The verdict gives general dissatisfaction. The people believe he was guilty of premeditated murder.

But blood tells, and as a blood purifier and liver corrector Simmonds Liver Regulator is the best medicine. "I use it in preference to any other."—So wrote Mr. S. H. Hysell, of Middleport, Ohio. And Dr. D. S. Russell, of Farmville, Va., writes, "It fulfills all you promise for it."

None But Ayer's at the World's Fair.
Ayer's Sarsaparilla enjoys the extraordinary distinction of having been the only blood purifier allowed on exhibit at the world's fair, Chicago. Manufacturers of other sarsaparillas sought by every means to obtain a showing of their goods, but they were all turned away under the application of the rule forbidding the entry of patent medicines and nostrums. The decision of the world's fair authorities in favor of Ayer's Sarsaparilla was in effect as follows: "Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a patent medicine. It does not belong to the list of nostrums. It is here on its merits."

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address:

Geo. W. Jenkins, editor of the Santa Maria "Times," Cal., in speaking of the various ailments of children said: "When my children have croup there is only one patent medicine I ever use, and that is Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It possesses some medicinal properties that relieve the little sufferer immediately. It is, in my opinion, the best cough medicine in the market." If this remedy is freely given as soon as the croup cough appears it will prevent the attack. It is also an ideal remedy for whooping cough. There is no danger in giving it to children, as it contains nothing injurious. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggist.
