CAMPOS IS HOOTED

A Demonstration That Proves Almost a Riot.

THE SHOOTING AT ANACONDA

Attempted Murder and a Suicide Upon the Street—A Junk Is Boarded By Pirates.

THEY HOOTED CAMPOS.

Several Were Arrested and This Led to a Riotous Demonstration.

NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—A dispatch to the Herald from Madrid, says:

This city was recently the scene of a demonstration that would have required but very little to have turned it into a serious riot. As told on Tuesday last, a number of men hooted General Campos as he was driving to his residence from the railway station on his return from Cuba. A number were arrested and one of them broke away from the gendarmes who had him in custody and sought to make his escape. The gendarmes fired twice at him and killed him. The shooting was bitterly condemned by the republicans. When the funeral of the victim took place it was attended by great crowds. Fully 12,000 men, most of whom were republicans, marched to the cemetery, shouting, "Down with the Police," "Down with Campos" and "Long Live the Republic."

The government anticipated trouble and there was a strong display of gendarmes, who, however, appeared to be afraid to interfere with the procession in any way, lest they provoke a riot. Consequently, the crowd shouted itself hoarse until the cemetery was reached, when the great assemblage stood with bared heads until the funeral rites had been completed.

The greater part of the crowd then dispersed, but 2000 of its number again formed in line and marched unmolested back to the royal palace, in front of which they gathered and shouted, "Death to the King," "Death to the Queen Regent," and "Long Live the Republic." Even the palace guards seemed to be intimidated by the sullen temper of the mob and made no attempt to drive them away.

After partly venting their anger against the king and his mother, the crowds marched to the residence of General Campos, where a similar demonstration of disapproval was made. The apathy of the police which was unquestionably due to fear, was significant. So far as is known, the civil authorities made no request on the military for dispersing the crowds. The crowds committed no overt acts, however, contenting themselves with shooting and hooting, but they were evidently in a humor to fight, had they been interfered with.

After darkness had set in it was proposed to gather under the windows of the hotel at which were stopping a number of republican delegates who had come to Madrid especially to attend the funeral of the victim of the gendarme and serenade them. The police had in meantime mustered their courage and told the leaders the serenade would not be allowed. The crowd, after insisting upon carrying out the plan, finally listened to the leaders and dispersed.

AN ANACONDA TRAGEDY.

Attempted Murder and a Suicide Upon the Street.

ANACONDA, Mont., Feb. 8.—Barney Beck shot Mrs. E. B. Catlin, near the corner of Fifth and Locust streets about 10:20 o'clock this evening, while she was returning with friends from a visit to a neighbor. Three shots were fired, one striking Mrs. Catlin between the shoulders, another grazing her hand and the third missing her head. Friends tried to stop him, but he threatened them with his revolver and escaped in the darkness. About 10 minutes later he stood in the middle of Third Street, near Walnut, and deliberately shot himself through the head. He was killed instantly.

Barney Beck was a printer by trade, but has not worked for some time. He formerly boarded with the Catlins, and while there conceived a passion for Mrs. Catlin, which was in no way encouraged or reciprocated. He has for months hounded the house, and was driven away by the police and Mr. Catlin. About 10 days ago a warrant was issued for his arrest, but he eluded the officers.

At this hour the doctors are unable to give the extent of the woman's injuries. Before it was learned that the man had shot himself, the town was roused and searching parties rapidly organized. Had some of these found him, he would have been lucky to escape the summary justice which he dealt to himself.

Barney Beck was unmarried. He came from Quincy, Ill., and was about 30 years of age. The shooting was done with a 38-caliber gun.

A Junk Boarded By Pirates.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 8.—Particulars have reached Hong Kong of a daring case of piracy north of that place. According to the papers which arrived yesterday, a junk, while on a voyage from Pingholi to Hong Kong, with a cargo of merchandise, was attacked by two pirate junks with 50 pirates outside Nimshan. The crew of the trading junk observed the pirates approaching and fired two shots from a cannon, both without effect. The pirates drew alongside, firing all the time, threw sinkpots on board and then boarded.

One of the crew was shot in the arm and a passenger in the leg. The crew and passengers were driven below and kept under hatches while the pirates steered the junk into a bay, where it was kept two days and nights. About two-thirds of the cargo was removed to shore, as well as the money and clothing of the passengers.

The junk was then taken out to sea and turned adrift, afterward being run into Hong Kong. The crew numbered 12 men and there were three passengers on board.
